

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE STULL, nee Rosemary O'Rourke, were married in St. Joseph's Church, Acton, on July 16. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond O'Rourke of R.R. 4 Acton and the groom is a son of Mrs. Freda Stull of R.R. 5 Milton and the late Howard Stull.

Stull-O'Rourke vows said in St. Joseph's

St. Joseph's Church, Acton, was the setting for a lovely summer wedding on Saturday, July 16, when Rosemary Anne O'Rourke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Desmond O'Rourke, R.R. 4 Acton, and George Stull, son of Mrs. Freda Stull, R.R. 5, Milton, and the late Howard Stull, were united in marriage by Rev. Father V. J. Morgan.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a traditional wedding gown of heavily appliqued nylon over a full underskirt. Her off-shoulder lace bodice belled at the elbows, and the illusion veil was centered with white roses. The bridal bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis completed a charming picture.

The attendants, with Miss Gail Breen, cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, and her sister, Miss Kathleen O'Rourke as bridesmaid, were dressed alike in aqua sheaths made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Kevin Breen. Their headresses were of veiling, caught with tiny white rosebuds, and they wore white accessories.

John Stull, brother of the groom, was best man, while his cousin, Garth Marchment, and the bride's cousin, Barry Breen, served as ushers.

The altar of the church was decorated with pink carnations and white mums. The wedding music was played by Miss Irene Mulholland, church organist.

After the ceremony, the guests enjoyed a noon banquet served by the St. Alban's Women's Guild. The bride's mother received the guests dressed in a powder blue street length dress with a corsage of baby pink chrysanthemums and white accessories. Mrs. Stull assisted, wearing a pink linen suit and corsage of yellow baby chrysanthemums. Her accessories were blue.

The head table was attractively decorated, centered with the wedding cake made by the bride's mother, and flanked by her paternal grandmother's candlesticks, which are over 100 years old.

Father Morgan presided at the head table and said Grace. Eric Appeltard, the groom's uncle, was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

For the honeymoon trip to Ottawa and points north, the bride chose a pink beaded ensemble

Miss Helen Hopkins honored at showers

A pre-nuptial party was given for Miss Helen Hopkins last week by her co-workers at De Haviland. About 30 staff members presented her with a nicely decorated cake and many beautiful gifts.

The previous week Miss Sandra Sinclair was hostess for a miscellaneous shower in her home.

Baptist conference held in Wisconsin

Mr. and Mrs. George Harrap from Acton Baptist Church attended a conference meeting at the American Baptist Assembly, Green Lake, Wisconsin. This is a full program for men, women and children from July 16-23.

Loyalty of men to their family is the foundation upon which allegiance is built. Discussions centred on how the church can fulfill its mission within the American Baptist family.

Among the guests and leaders of the services were Dr. and Mrs. Elbert E. "Pearly" Gates, formerly director of Church World Service, Hong Kong, Asia and Neal Dorsch, who gave special service to schools and a hospital in Vanga, Congo.

Patricia Hill, Dr. R. Braida married in Langton ceremony

At Sacred Heart Church, Langton, Ontario, Patricia Marie Hill and Dr. Raymond Braida were married by the Rev. Langton. The church was decorated in pale green and white for the three o'clock ceremony on Saturday, July 2.

The bride, a graduate of McMaster University and a teacher with the Toronto Board of Education, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth George Redmore Hill, Langton. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Braida, Acton, is a doctor in Toronto. The couple are making their home in Toronto.

The bride chose a sheath dress of Chantilly lace over tulle with a square neckline, slightly raised waist and long sheer lace sleeves. Over her gown she wore a sleeveless cardinal's coat of filmy organza trimmed with Chantilly lace and extending into a cathedral train.

A single rose held her elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, mums and stephanotis with ivy.

Her four attendants, all in peppermint green chiffon, were Mrs. Donald Targosz, Kitchener, as the matron of honor, with Visiting shooters this week included Dec Valeriot, Al Richter and Dave Lorrington.

An inter-club competition is being planned between the Georgetown club and Maple Rock at Maple Rock Shooting Range. Plans have not as yet been finalized and the date will be announced in a subsequent column.

Spectators and participants are welcome to attend the regular Thursday T.R.P. shooting bouts.

A rifle club has been built with a covered bench rest and is now nearing completion.

A pistol club has been formed but a date for completion of the pistol range has not been set. Officers have been elected and they are Gerry Lamarch, president; Dave Johnson, vice-president; Bob Simson, secretary-treasurer; and Paul Richardson, range officer.

We hope to include scores from pistol competitions as soon as the range is completed.

There were several showers for the bride before her marriage. Members and staff of Eastern High School of Commerce gathered at the home of Miss Catherine Dales, Toronto. Hostesses to university friends were Miss Susan Browne, Miss Jennifer McFarlane, and Miss Suzanne Warren, Toronto.

Miss Elna Braida, and Mrs. Raymond Abic held a shower in Acton. Mrs. Grant Hagerman entertained at the home of her mother Mrs. J. A. Robertson, Delhi, and Mrs. Andre Schachert held a shower in Delhi.

DR. RAYMOND BRAIDA and the former Patricia Hill were married at Sacred Heart Church, Langton, Ontario.

Georgetown vows of interest locally

A wedding in Georgetown of interest here was that of Agne Jane Gudgeon and David Boyd Mackenzie. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mackenzie, Georgetown, and graduated in economics from the University of Western Ontario this year. He is associated with his father in the J. B. Mackenzie and Son Lumber and contracting business.

Sandy Mackenzie was groomsmen for his brother and one of the ushers was the groom's cousin, Jack Mackenzie of Acton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gudgeon of Georgetown. The wedding was in Knox Presbyterian church there with the reception in the church hall. Their honeymoon trip was to Lake Huron, and they are living in Georgetown.

Tent Crusade attracts 300

The Georgetown Tent Crusade opened Thursday night, July 21, at 8 p.m. with a good crowd present.

It was estimated a crowd of 300 filled into the tent to enjoy the presentations of the word of God and a variety of musical talent. Rev. S. Thoman, local chairman, reports that the musical talent and preaching brought comments of inspiration and blessings from many present.

Churches represented were from Guelph, Toronto, Brampton, Erin, Acton, Georgetown, Hamilton and other areas.
