

SANDRA BLACK became the bride of Terry Moore on July 2. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Black of Campbellville and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Moore of Campbellville.

Moore-Black marriage

Standards of white chrysanthemums and gladioli decorated the altar of St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, for the wedding on Saturday, July 2, of Sandra Patricia Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Black, Campbellville, and James Terence Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Moore of Campbellville.

The Rev. John Sobier Cooke, vicar, officiated at St. David's church. The bride was accompanied by Miss Patricia Black, her sister, and Miss Margaret Black, her mother's sister. The groom was accompanied by Mr. James Moore, his brother, and Mr. Alexander Moore, his father.

The bride wore a white gown with a high collar and long sleeves. Her hair was styled in an updo. The groom wore a dark suit with a white shirt and a dark tie. The wedding took place at 11 a.m. in the church hall.

Black - McNaught

At Glencairn Church, Pollokshields, Glasgow, on July 20, 1966, John Buchanan, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Black, Moffat, Ont., and Elizabeth Margaret, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McNaught, 17 Herriet St., Glasgow, were united in marriage by the Rev. John Cameron, B.D.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attended by Miss Ann Kerr, and Miss Ruth Millie of Glasgow. The best man was John Crean of Toronto.

The reception was at the Tinto Flirs Hotel, Glasgow. Guests were present from Scotland, England, Wales, Ireland, South Africa, Canada and the U.S.A.

The bride and groom left for a two week honeymoon on the continent. On their return, they leave for Canada and will take up residence in the Silvercreek Parkway Apartments in Guelph, Ont.

The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Black, attended the wedding and also enjoyed a holiday in Scotland and Ireland.

CUTTING THE CAKE following their wedding in Scotland are Mr. and Mrs. John Black.

Nassagaweya W.I. ladies enjoy picnic in Rockwood

The Nassagaweya Women's Institute held a very successful picnic on Wednesday, July 20th, in Rockwood Conservation Park. Although the attendance was small, everyone present reported having a good time.

The roll call was answered by a favorite way to cook fish. A discussion on the 4-H club project followed. A suggestion was made that in future, the July and August regular meetings be dispersed with, as so many members seem to be busy during the holiday season.

A good program of word scramble, charades and song guessing was enjoyed by all and prizes were liberally distributed. Then all sat down to a sumptuous lunch and a social time.

Ladies had been invited to the home of Mrs. Velma Norris to join the Mountain Union W.I. in their regular meeting. Several members accepted the invitation and enjoyed the afternoon.

Mr. Clifford Nicholson addressed the gathering on "Roses". He answered questions on the subject and much practical knowledge was gained from his address and information. A miscellaneous sale concluded the meeting and a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses and helpers.

The August meeting of the Nassagaweya W.I. will be at the home of Mrs. Ivan Richardson in Guelph on August 17 at 8 p.m. with Mrs. John Henry as convener.

Henry-Patterson vows given at Limehouse church wedding

Limehouse Presbyterian Church was decorated with standards of yellow and white chrysanthemums and pink larkspur for the double-ring ceremony on July 16th which united Joy Irene Patterson and William John Henry in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson of Limehouse, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Henry of Acton.

Rev. F. N. Young officiated at the afternoon ceremony. Mrs. John Roughley was organist and Mr. Alan Graham, of Weston, cousin of the bride, sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "My World."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of Pindaban crepe, featuring a soft Alize skirt, the bodice having a Puritan sleeve trimmed with Swiss Guipure lace. This was repeated at the empire waistline and on the detachable cardinal train which flowed from the shoulder with bow trim. A lily point headpiece held her bouffant shoulder length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bridal bouquet of red sweetheart roses with white stephanotis.

Mrs. Melvyn Hicken of Georgetown, cousin of the bride, attended as matron of honor, and Mrs. Jett Agnew of Cooksville, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid.

The attendants wore matching floor length sheath gowns of shrimp pink organza over tulle, empire waists with lace trains falling from the shoulder. They carried bouquets of white carnations with white stephanotis and wore matching flower-headpieces.

Terry Masales of Acton, friend of the groom, was best man, and Ronald Henry, brother of the groom, and Leslie Hutchinson, Weston, cousin of the bride, served as ushers.

Mrs. A. C. Patterson received for her daughter at the reception in the church hall, wearing a turquoise brocade ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. W. G. Henry, mother of the groom, assisted wearing a teal blue ensemble, flower headpiece and matching accessories with a corsage of pink roses.

For their wedding trip, the bride wore a powder blue cotton lace suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Guests attended the wedding from Houston, Texas; Geraldton, Long Branch, Cooksville, Toronto, Weston, Acton, Guelph, Milton, Georgetown, Hamilton, Welland, Bronte, Rockwood, Limehouse and Bladell, N.Y.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was honored at several special events. In April at Limehouse Memorial Hall, the Limehouse 4-H Homemaking Club made a presentation and held a kitchen shower as well.

June 26, a miscellaneous shower was held in Weston at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Irene Smith and Mrs. Leslie Hutchinson.

June 29, a linen shower was given by the bridesmaid, Mrs. Jett Agnew, at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. Clarke, Georgetown.

July 9, a bathroom shower was held by the matron of honor, Mrs. M. Hicken, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wilbur Patterson, Rockwood.

Mrs. A. C. Patterson held open house on July 11 in honor of her daughter, and Mrs. W. G. Henry entertained the bridal party to a luncheon following the rehearsal.

Presentations were made to the bride by Limehouse Presbyterian Church, Sunday School; also by Mason Knit, Acton, where she is employed.

The groom was honored by a presentation from the staff of Acton Limestone Quarries, his place of employment.

NEWLYWEDS Mr. and Mrs. William Henry are pictured signing the register following their marriage ceremony in Limehouse Presbyterian church. The bride is the former Joy Patterson.
