Church service, visitors highlight district news

The lovely flowers decorating the church were in memory of the late Frank Hall. Sue Ward presided at the organ. The choir sang "I want to do my best from day to day, I know I shall not pass again this way."

Mr. Leeman referred to the coming meeting of the general council in Kitchener. This body meets every two years.

One of its functions is to appoint a new Moderator. The present moderator is Ernest Marshall Howse, originally from Newfoundland. The United church is divided into 11 conferences across Canada.

The job of general secretary is held at present by Rev. Ernest Long, who needs our prayers especially, as it is a big job and his health has not been too sturdy lately.

There is still time to plan to attend the song and worship service in Kitchener auditorium on September 11 beginning at 7:29.

Mr. Leeman's sermon dealt with Christian service. In this age, effective Christians should be knowledgeable. Parents should keep up with the times. We spend time with the daily newspaper. We should spend the same length of time with Holy Scripture and similar material.

Christians need more zeal. Human zeal wears off. The Holy Spirit gives you enthusiasm.

At Elliott Lake the dynamite had to be detonated. Knowledge should be used. Explosion of knowledge must have a goal in mind.
