LIMEHOUSE

Speaker explains mission field during W.M.S. thankoffering

A very pleasant evening was spent at the fall thankoffering of Limehouse Presbyterian W. M.S. in the church last Thursday.

Mrs. John Murray, wife of the minister at Caledon East was guest speaker. Having spent 30 years on the mission field in India, she was prepared to bring a most enlightening, illustrated talk on the work in Bill field.

The speaker traced the development of the work from its beginning with Rev. John Buchanan.

Mrs. F. J. Shortill and Miss Ann Shortill, accompanied by Miss Cathy Sinclair at the piano, sang two lively duets. Mrs. Sanford chaired the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Mitchell, the president.

Mrs. Gordon Booth read Scripture and Mrs. Gishy led in prayer. Mrs. A. W. Benton introduced the speaker and Mrs. Bert Benton thanked those contributing to the program.

Mrs. Murray pronounced the benediction. Mrs. Crichton and Mrs. Patterson arranged a lovely lunch in the basement afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Snippe and family visited in Hamilton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker visited relatives in St. Catharines on Sunday.

Mrs. Sanford, Mr. Bill Sanford and Miss Cathy Kenney motored to Ottawa last weekend. Mrs. Mitchell, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. Arch there for the past month, returned home with them.

STRIKES At Youth Bowling Council

by Jackie Palmer

Oct. 15: Strikes! Yes, everybody seems to be getting them. Is there no end to this? No, there isn't, the way the kids have been bowling. No one wants to take a rest from it, and I don't think they will. Even though we seem to do wonderfully well, we have our sorrows as well as our fun, because we are sorry to say that 'Margo Matheson, captain of the Top Cats in the Bantam division is on the sidelines. An ailing kneecap has her leg in a cast for seven or eight weeks.

I wonder of any other YBC bowling centres can top this? Six Pettit youngsters, all bowling! Danny, Jury, Kenny and Walter bowl in the Bantam division, while Ruth and Tom bowl in the Junior and Senior divisions.

In the Bantam division this week, Alley Cats won both games from Neptunes, and Night Hawks also won two games from Top Cats. Angels took one game and total pins from Rolling Stones. Top Ten bowlers were: Wade Knight 138-172 (310), Kevin Perkins 193-107 (300), Bruce Swift 155-130 (285), Barry Payne 100-177 (277), Debbie Storey 101-121 (222), Ronnie Turkosz 115-84 (199), Colin Price 195-102 (197), Bob O'Rourke 101-90 (191), Martin Lavioie 85-97 (182), Sharon Ellerby 80-97 (177).

The winners of the pop or refreshing refreshers supplied by Coca-Cola, Reinhardt's and Seven-Up were Bruce Swift, Danny Pettit, Cindy Norrie and Patsy Storey.

In the Junior and Senior division, the Croats won three games from Hot Rods, and Pinbusters did the same to Jerks. Flintstones took two and total pins from Idiots. Top Ten triple bowlers this week were: Craig Perkins 589 (265), Jackie Palmer 565 (202), Gary Turkosz 554 (208), Dave Pink 549 (227), Bob Turkosz 531 (191), Frank Buschmeyer 499 (203), Bob Andrews 481 (209), Tom Pettit 480 (192), Larry McAfee 470 (202), Gord Morris 459 (236).
