EDEN MILLS

W.M.S. Thankoffering meeting W.I. trip abroad of interest

The Eden Mills Presbyterian Church Thankoffering meeting of the W.M.S. was held in the home of Mrs. G. MacDonald on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. George Aitken in the chair. After the singing of a Thanksgiving hymn, the Lord's Prayer was given by Mrs. E. Barden and the Scripture reading by Mrs. Kave Stevenson. Mrs. Aitken then gave a hearty welcome to all especially to the visitors and then called on Mrs. J. Hamer, guest speaker, who gave a message long to be remembered. Thanksgiving was the theme.

Harvest time is a good time to give an extra thank you when we drive around the countryside and see the wonders of God. We take too many things for granted. She spoke of the Pilgrims who came to this country on the Mayflower and their hardships for the first few years. We have come a long way since the first settlers and if we stop to compare our blessings we live in a bed of roses. But their faith never faltered through all their suffering and they took time to give thanks, to God and kept in mind the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof.

Several old hymns were quoted, such as Count your blessings, name them one by one. If we use our blessings and put them to His service. As Christian women we try to follow the design of living. Love thy neighbor. There are so many little things we could do around close to home to help our fellow man. We are only fools in God's hands and so he said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel." That's the only way we can thank God for a wonderful harvest.

Mrs. W. Minnothen brought a message in song. Mrs. Aitken thanked those who had taken part followed with a hymn and prayer by Mrs. Beryl Wright and social hall hour.

The October meeting of Eden Mills Women's Institute was hosted by Mrs. J. Hamer on Eden Road.

The president, Mrs. R. Roy opened with a Thanksgiving prayer followed by the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Minutes and the treasurer's report of last meeting were read and approved. Several letters of thanks were read. The report from the social convener revealed a lot of sickness among members.

Mrs. Roy gave a report on the area convention and Mrs. H. Gilbertson a paper on Federation and Agriculture.

A motion was passed to cancel the Ottawa bus trip in June of 1967. The Centennial committee is to meet with Eden Crest committee and attend the next council meeting. A donation was given to the kindergarten school in the village to help buy more equipment.

After a community sing song a vote of thanks was given Mrs. Hamer for the use of her home followed by a social cup of tea.

Continued to hospital are Mrs. H. Barden and Mrs. W. McLean Sr.

Spending a few days with her grandparents was Barbara Barnes of Oshawa.

Miss Elizabeth Kirby leaves Saturday by jet for Scotland, then to England, where she intends to work for the next year.

OBITUARY

George L. Angell C.N.R. station agent

Well-known station agent here for many years, George Leonard Angell passed away in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Oct. 16 in his 69th year. He retired as C.N.R. agent in December, 1962 and had been in failing health for the four years since.

He had been associated with railroading for 48 years, first with the Grand Trunk Railroad and then the Canadian National. Railroading was his prime interest.

He is survived by his wife, the former Doris Mosure; sons Bob, Acton; Claude, Elora; and Jack of Phoenix, Arizona; daughters Thelma (Mrs. William Corfield), Burbank, California and Margaret (Mrs. J. W. Stark), Walkerton; sisters Mrs. Jean Sherbourn, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mrs. Thelma Garvey, Novi, Mich.; and Mrs. Ethel Putnam, Syracuse, N.Y.; six grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

He was born at Elora, son of the late Caroline Shelley and Hercules Angell. Mr. and Mrs. Angell were married at Guelph in June of 1919. They came to Acton 17 years ago after he had been with the C.N.R. at various locations.

Funeral service was held at the Rumley-Shoemaker Funeral Home on Oct. 19, with the Rev. A. H. McKenzie officiating. Pallbearers were Paul Mosure, Kenneth Mosure, Allan Mosure, Donald Mosure, Jim Stark and Donald Stark. All grandsons. Flower bearers were Jim Gilkinson, George Mosure, Doris Gilkinson, Alice Mosure, Joyce Mosure, Dianne Angell and Georgina Angell, all grandchildren.

A radio telephone course was launched Thursday in Milton by the Halton Emergency Measures Organization, with 15 men from all over Halton County attending.

Most of those registering are E.M.O. Auxiliary Police constables. E.M.O. Co-ordinator W. Bruce McGregor said. The course could handle up to 20 men. Graduates will receive a Department of Transport certificate and a licence to operate a two-way radio. The course lasts six weeks and instruction will be given by Norman Harris and Bruce Collison who are E.M.O. officers attached to the Halton branch.

Rev. Bruce Woods leaves area church

Rev. Bruce A. Woods, pastor of Maple Ave. Baptist Church in Georgetown has announced his resignation and acceptance of new responsibilities at the Rithmorton Baptist Church, Vancouver, B.C. Rev. Woods leaves Georgetown at the end of the month, taking up his new duties in Vancouver on November 6.

The Georgetown church has members from Acton and district.

Rev. Woods came to Georgetown in the summer of 1960 when the congregation of Maple Ave. Baptist Church was housed in the rented facilities of the Oddfellows Hall. The new property was purchased and church begun the same year of Mr. Woods' arrival. The congregation enjoyed a rapid growth, till recently one Sunday saw 274 in Sunday School.

Because of the need for more space, a building program was launched last year with a view to construction this fall. Although Rev. Woods' resignation was accepted with regret, the deacons' board voted unanimously to proceed as planned with the building program next spring or fall under the leadership of the next pastor.
