Congratulations to our fellow bowling writer, Jackie Palmer, press secretary of the Acton Youth Bowling Council. Jackie celebrated her 15th birthday last Sunday.

A welcome visitor to the lanes last Saturday was Stan Haemmel of Labatt's Breweries. Stan's a busy man, but took time off to drop in and inform us that the Labatt mugs would be forthcoming again this season for the Industrial-Commercial and Major leagues' monthly high triple. This includes the month of November and the winners for that month were Bob Skidmore in the Major league with a triple of 862 and Phil LeSueur in the I-C league with a triple of 848.

That winds it up once again, my friends, so adios, amigos, and goodnight Doly City.

Nov. 12: Maybe the alarm clocks didn't ring or maybe they were just sleepyheads, but whatever the cause, some of the Bantams came in late. This is just a friendly reminder that bowling starts at 10 a.m. sharp and that means ready to bowl and not to come in at 10. Early to bed and early to rise might not make you healthy and wise, but it does help you to get to the bowling alley on time.

I forgot to mention this last week, but Bob Turkosz made one of bowling's most difficult shots — he spared a headpin.

Also we're glad Mrs. Martin was back on the job supervising for the last Saturday and had to leave halfway through the Bantam bowling. In the Bantam division this week, Alley Cats were big winners with a double win from Neptunes. Night Hawks also took two games from Top Cats. Angels did the same to Rolling Stones.

The Top Ten bowlers this week were Kevin Perkins 116-173 (289), Henry Toebes 110-139 (249), Bob O'Rourke 73-159 (212), James Ellerby 147-81 (228), Ronnie Turkosz 87-139 (226), Debbie Storey 103-117 (220), Bruce Swift 114-88 (202), Janet Storey 140-55 (195), Martin LaVoie 97-96 (193), Sharon Ellerby 86-89 (175).

The Reelinarts, Coca-Cola and Seven Up winners this week were James Ellerby, Janet Storey, Cathy Roach and Bert Post. In the Junior and Senior divisions, Pinbusters took three games from Jerks. Idiots took two games and total pins from Flinstones and Hot Rods did the same to Crousts.

The Top Ten bowlers this week were Bob Turkosz 386 (207), Jackie Palmer 566 (251), Dave Pink 558 (242), Gary Turkosz 557 (267), Guy Payne 479 (204), Steve Manry 447 (180), Larry McAtee 446 (184), Pat Nicolak 443 (186), John Churchill 428 (176), Ken Marshall 403 (185).
