SILVERWOOD

Institute members learn embroidery

Mr. and Mrs. Tjart have recently added groceries, etc. to their lunch counter at the corner of Limehouse sideroad and 7 Highway and the name Silverwood has a prominent place across the front.

The members of Silverwood Women's Institute had a real treat this past week.

Mrs. G. Henderson was hostess on Nov. 22 and 23 to Mrs. Florence I. Smith and members of W.I.

Mrs. Smith, from the Craft Section of Home Economics branch of Department of Agriculture of Ontario, taught members and visitors crewel or Jacobean embroidery. The ladies were very enthusiastic and happy to receive this instruction and already doing splendid work.

Mr. Ben Case was host for a presentation party for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Glynn on Friday evening, Nov. 18.

Miss J. Ruddell entertained with slides of her trip during this past summer to Spain and Portugal. The couple received a set of TV snack tables.

Mr. C. Wilson joined a group of hunters from Bolton Hunt Club and brought home a deer from Muskoka recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whitfield of London were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott.

Mr. C. Wilson and son, Bill were among the winners in the sheep shearing contest at the Royal Winter Fair this past week.

EDEN MILLS

Community Club annual meet includes election of officers

The annual meeting of Eden Mills and district Community Club was held on Saturday evening with open house for each.

The winners were: ladies, Anna Wilson, Sylvia Neville, Donna Clifford; gents, Ross Campbell, A. Roy, and Bill McLean Jr.

Following the cards the election of officers took place: president, Edward Woodhouse; first vice-president, Bob Gilbertson; secretary, Kaye Stevenson; treasurer, Evelyn Barden; auditors, Douglas Beattie and Bill McLean Sr.

A social time followed with refreshments.

Mr. Melvine Vincent of Mimico was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. Wright recently.

The Carlette Club started up their winter activities on Monday evening with Lela Campbell as hostess.

Winners for cards were Joan Lowrie, Fran Tofton, Alleta Martin. A social cup of coffee followed.

The nursery school mothers held a very successful bazaar in the village hall Thursday evening. Tables were loaded with home baking and home made toys of felt and many other items. A "slightly used" table did a good business. A cup of tea followed.

This is their first venture to raise money and the mothers are to be congratulated.

Christmas meeting two church groups

Mrs. F. Anderson, the president used a poem, "It's Christmas Time" as her opening message, when the afternoon auxiliary, W.M.S. of Knox church, met with the Ladies' Aid, for a joint Christmas meeting in the classroom of the church on November 29.

Miss Isabel Anderson and Mrs. R. M. McDonald led in a worship service, following the Christmas theme, and Mrs. Donald Kennedy read the Christmas poem, "One Solitary Life".

Mrs. O. Moran at the piano and Mrs. R. Algh with her mandolin were accompanists as all enjoyed singing the old familiar carols.

Mr. Mainprize showed a film, a timely part of which showed Santa and the Santa's Village in Muskoka.

The presentation of white gifts was followed by a delicious lunch with a Christmas flavor.

SANDY LYNN VARCOE and Roger Dale Montgomery were married in Rockwood United Church November 19.

Montgomery-Varcoe wedding in Rockwood United Church

In a double-ring ceremony in Rockwood United Church on Saturday, November 19, Sandy Lynn Varcoe and Roger Dale Montgomery were married by the Rev. A. F. Gardner of Rockwood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Varcoe, R.R. 2 Rockwood and the groom is the stepson of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wood, Meaford. He is employed at Rockwood Concrete Products.

Mrs. Stewart of Guelph played the organ and the soloist, Mrs. Charles Petty of Rockwood, sang The Wedding Prayer.

The bride wore a full length gown of traditional white, its white satin underskirt topped by layers of lace falling in tiers from the waist. The fitted bodice was of the same lace with long pointed sleeves. A white satin headdress covered with flowers held her net shoulder length veil.

She carried a cascade bouquet of red and white roses.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law Mrs. Helen Varcoe of Guelph and the bridesmaids were Miss Burna White of Acton and Miss Stella O'Gorman of Guelph. They were gowned alike in gold floor length dresses of peau de soie with Empire waists and a slight train falling from the waist at the back. Their headdresses of gold peau de soie were in the shape of a flower with a net veil.

Flower girl was Miss Jayne Guild of Rockwood, a niece of the bride. Her gown and flowers were similar to the bridesmaids.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the groomsmen were Rodney Montgomery of Sault Ste. Marie, Ushers were Doug Varcoe of Toronto and Ronnie Varcoe of Guelph.

The wedding reception was held in the Amber Cupola Restaurant near Guelph. The bride's mother chose a pale blue coat and dress ensemble with blue and white accessories and a corsage of pink and white roses.

The groom's mother chose a two-piece suit of blue boucle with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Montgomery of Sault Ste. Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Ross of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Varcoe of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Ken South of Georgetown.

The couple left on a trip to the Eastern states, the bride wearing a three-piece pink suit with a pink and white corsage. They are making their home in Guelph.

Before the wedding, the bride was honored at showers given by Mrs. Joan Guild in Rockwood and Mrs. Helen Varcoe in Guelph.
