

Rededication service at Ballinafad church

Mr. H. Forté was able to return home from the hospital last week and is slowly improving. Winners in the Ballinafad euchre on Tuesday night were Mrs. Storey, Mrs. F. Smith, Robert McEnery, Bert Davidson and Willard Britton out for second, Willard winning out. Ruth Burt was low.

White Gifts, S.S. concert coming soon

Next Sunday (White Gift Sunday) is your opportunity to give the baby Jesus a birthday present. Monetary donations will be received to help those less fortunate than we are. Also next Sunday some laymen will assist with the service. Nominations will be held for two new elders.

There was a good attendance at Mission Band, under the leadership of Mrs. George Hewer.

The combined Sunday school concert and choir service will be held December 20.

John Kitching was the soloist Sunday.

Mrs. Sheldon Trousdale's many friends will be pleased to know that X-rays show her hip (broken three months ago) has healed perfectly. "Aunt Florence" is now practicing walking.

The Earys attended the rededication of Ballinafad Church on Sunday.

Horace Blyth suffered a painful fall at the barn on Saturday evening. At the time of writing, X-rays have not been taken. His many friends hope they will show nothing worse than a cracked rib and that he will soon be better. Rae Blyth stepped into the breach and took his old's place as Sunday school superintendent.

Art Diamond also had a fall at a new house he is wiring. Fortunately, he was just shaken up.

November meeting of Rockwood C.W.L.

Rockwood — The November meeting of the Catholic Women's League of Rockwood and Oustic was held at the home of Mrs. Herbert Saunders. The president Mrs. Gillfillan opened the meeting with the League prayers. Roll call was answered by 18 members. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Secretary Mrs. T. Buczek read the minutes of an executive meeting and correspondence.

The children's Christmas party is to be held in the Rockwood town hall on December 18. Mrs. Chilver will be the convener. The League party to entertain husbands of members will be held at Eleanor's on December 14.

Mrs. Robert Darou and Mrs. J. Gooyers were volunteers for the Health Clinic. A talk by Mary Reed Newland on "The Family" was much appreciated by the ladies. This was made possible through the kindness of Father Zettle and members hope to hear more of the same in the near future.

The parish euchre will be held on November 25 at the rectory. The meeting adjourned and a social hour followed with Mrs. D. Bacon, Mrs. R. Bacon and Mrs. R. Dupuis serving lunch.

Three baptized at church Sunday

(Intended for last week) The sacrament of infant baptism was conferred on three wee girls: Tracy Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Diamond; and Wendy and Shirley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Derry Pattison.

Mrs. Murray Hayward, Miss Joy Hayward and Mrs. John Kitching sang a trio, "Fully Persuaded, Lord, I Believe."

Sunday, December 4, will be White Gift Sunday. Monetary contributions will be received to help those less fortunate. Some laymen plan to take part in the service. Nominations will be received for two elders to serve a three-year term.

Mrs. Horace Blyth had as her guest, her cousin, Mrs. Maxwell Bell of Jerseyville.

The community extends best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Roger Montgomery, the former Sandra Varcoe.

The Young People enjoyed a skating party Saturday night at Milton, returning to the home of Dave and Sue Ward for lunch. Ron McLennan won a number of prizes with his poultry at the Royal Winter Fair, including the brood champion on his old Cayuga drake.

Sr. Citizens bring own entertainment for big zone rally

A fair representation of Acton Golden Age Club went by chartered bus on Wednesday, Nov. 23 to the Zone Rally in the recreation room of the new municipal building on the Seventh Line in Oakville.

Since affiliated with the United Senior Citizens of Ontario, the Acton Club belongs to Zone 13 which is comprised of clubs from Brampton, Georgetown, Streetsville, Oakville, Bronte, Milton, Alderhot and Burlington as well as Acton. The annual zone picnic is held in June, and an annual Zone Rally is held in November. This was the fourth annual rally and all clubs were represented except Georgetown.

The Recreation Committee had their problems making the 328 visitors comfortable in the room supposed to seat 330!

Mrs. Coe, president of Oakville Club, welcomed all, then introduced Mayor Anderson, who added to the warm welcome, spoke a few words, then answered questions from the assembly, especially why road signs had not been changed so some buses and cars would not have taken the wrong turn and become lost.

Mrs. Tom Bradley, zone secretary, called the roll. Each president in turn announced the numbers his club had prepared and a wonderful program followed with rhythm bands, readings, solos, piano duets, piano and violin duets, etc.

Acton's contribution was a reading by Mrs. George Fryer, solos by Miss Bella-Maye Roszell accompanied by Miss Jean Mc-

Clifford Weatherall Soper of Acton, passed away on November 22, at Guelph General Hospital in his 51st year. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Henry Soper of Georgetown. He was born at Snelgrove, and lived most of his life in the Cheltenham district where he was well known. He attended the public school at Cheltenham, and also farmed at Barrie, coming later to Acton where he was employed at the tannery. He leaves two brothers, Cecil of Georgetown, Gordon of Acton, and one sister Norma (Mrs. Richard Foster) of Georgetown.

Rev. S. Thoman of the Pentecostal Tabernacle conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home, in Georgetown. Interment was in Cheltenham Cemetery Friday. Pallbearers were five cousins, Joe Soper, Jack Soper, Bill Soper, Norman McLaughlin, and George Goldthorpe, and a good friend of the family, Garnet Clarkson.

Mr. and Mrs. Brotherton, 6th Line, have her parents from New Jersey visiting them.

We are pleased that Mrs. H. Spitzer is making satisfactory progress in hospital in Georgetown following surgery last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Benton had her cousin, Mr. Arthur King, a student at Ontario Veterinary College, with them on Sunday.

Two dozen badminton players are enjoying their games in the high school gymnasium every Thursday evening. An executive has been named: president George Williams; treasurer Mrs. Hugh Patterson and co-ordinator of play Don Price.
