Acton Mixed

Dec. 2: A tie has cropped up for top spot — both Teddy Bears and Fire Balls are roosting there. Teddy Bears, who were up there all by their own-some, stayed there despite losing all games to the unpredictable Flukes. Grace Robertson 529 (205), Gord Thompson 522 (187) and Marj Thornton 495 (211) paced the win. Teddy Bears lost a tough first game by 21 pins. Their efforts were headed up by Andre Conway 662 (249), Frank Daley 570 (209) and Marie Tizzard 560 (217). Ed Browne's single of 200 failed to help Bears. Fire Balls' two and totals win from Hot Shots accounted for their place in the sun. Jon Hurst 553 (195), Charlie Gough 597 (191), Mary Daley 505 (214) and Nancy Jensen 501 (211) fired up Fire Balls' win. Ray Lizotte 526 (233), Jessie Price 486 (227) and Verna Arbic 459 (168), along with Brian Rae's 211 single, were Hot Shots' best. Lucky Seven's two and totals win from No. 007 keeps them on the heels of the leaders. Hec Dalgie 604 (245), Vince Thornton 560 (236), Chris Jensen 495 (182) and Bert Robertson 470 (218) featured the win. Big Four

Dec. 2: Rough Riders broke their first place tie with Alouettes when they met and defeated Alouettes for all three games. Alouettes made a bid for the final canto but dropped it by 29 pins. Roughing up the pins for Rough Riders were Kaje van der Kooy 659 (231), Dolf van Arragon 606 (263), Ada Gils 532 (197) and Jane van Soelen, who singled a neat 228. Top trio for Alouettes were Rink Vlietstra 634 (241), Renee Voskamp 587 (213), J. Hofstede 563 (217). It has taken a long time for Tiger Cats to prowl but could be that they have discovered the way to success. Certainly Argonauts will bear this out, because they were victims of Tiger Cats' three game win. Argonauts made with the big effort in the second canto but were still shy 23 pins of winning. Henry Kroes 590 (215), Oscar Feenstra 479 (183) and Ali Looyenga 471 (188) headed up the Tiger Cat win. Argonauts' efforts were paced by Lynda Ensing 540 (288), Harry Hofstede 477 (177) and Dinie Bowman 388 (154).

League standing: Rough Riders 45, Alouettes 38, Argonauts 31, Tiger Cats 26.

Headpin Hillies

It's hail and farewell to Andre Conway. Andre is returning to the City of Montreal and no longer will be one of Acton's bowling fraternity. A former duckpin bowler, Andre quickly adapted himself to the five-pin game and was a valued member of both the Industrial - Commercial and Acton Mixed leagues.

It's not drums along the Mohawk that are beating but the rattle-battle of pins in the various bowling centres as the contestants for the some championships practice up for the Eastern Championships held in Ottawa on March 23, 24 and 25.

The "Splendid Splinter" of bowling Bert Garside, who is now executive - director of the OBC, was one of the featured speakers at the recent Simcoe sport celebrities' dinner. All we need now is a bowling hall of fame and we've got it made. In the Christmas Franchise Bowl last Sunday, Acton's Jim Kelman bowled a perfect 450 game, only the kicker was, in his first game, Jim started off with a 13 count, then ran off 11 strikes. The heartbreaker came when he started off his second game with a strike. "Stough" — 12 strikes in a row and no perfect game. Just gotta get 'em in the right place, Jim.

That winds it up for now, my friends, so adios and goodnight Daly City.
