

DAVE DILLS Managing Editor

HENRY DEVEAU

DON RYDER

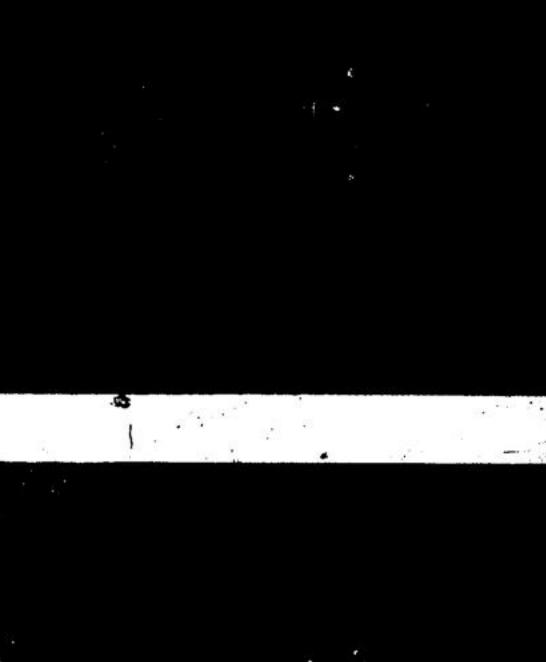

R. F. McARTHUR be ree Press three years a or the Churchill district her husband Fred are st arm where Mrs. McArth

Receptionist

HE PRODUCTION TEAM that produces your weekly newspaper includes Murray Scoyne (in front lift McEachern, Wilf Duval, Bob MacArthur, Hartley Coles, John Cunningham (first row), Georg are, Dora Ryder, Oral Norton, Dorothy Rognvaldson, Lil Marshall, bob Marshall (second row), John asales, Art Hawes, John McNabb, Terry Wilson, Bill Stuckey (back row). Missing when photo was

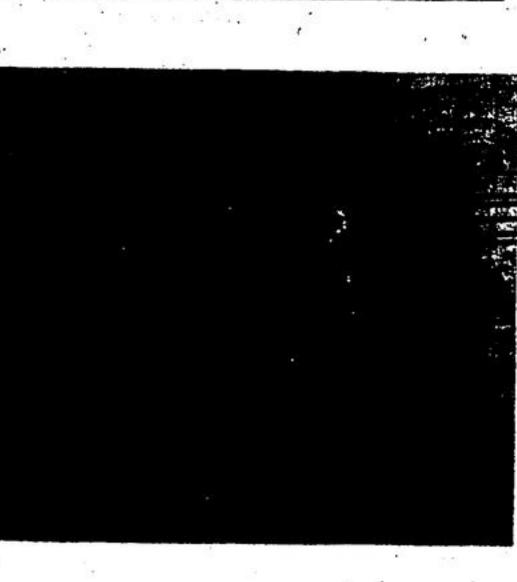

R. WRIGHT has been keeping readers up o date on news of Eden Mills for the past 10 ears and as public relations convener for the den Mills W.I. is more than qualified for this ob. She is a member of Eden Mills Presbyerian church, the W.M.S. and is quite active community projects. Her husband Robert retired.

MRS. RON McLEAN of R.R. 2 Rockwood has been Ebenezer and district correspondent for both The Champion and The Acton Free Press for the past five years. She is a member of Ebenezer United Church Women and sings in the church choir. Her husband is a poultry fancier and she helps him exhibit at shows and fairs.

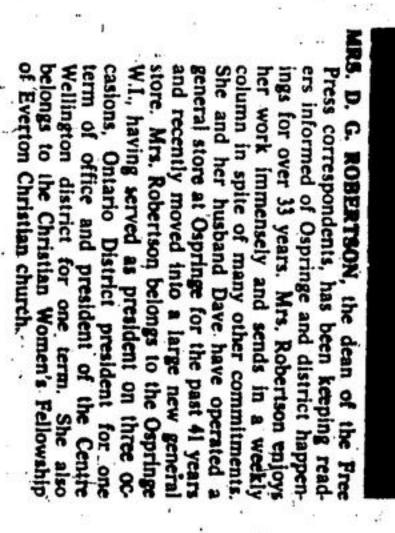

MRS. FRANK TAYLOR has been keeping readers informed of Rockwood district news for the past two years. Mrs. Taylor also acts as correspondent for another paper. She attends the Acton Pentecostal W.A. meetings, is a member of the Rockwood Home and School Association and is chairman of the Eramosa Centennial committee. She and her husband Frank have lived in Rockwood for 15 years, Mrs. Taylor has always been a resident in the Rockwood area.

MRS. HARRY SCOTT has been writing news of Silverwood area for about four years and manages to keep readers well informed as well as working as an assistant to the dietitian at Georgetown District hospital. She is public relations officer for Silverwood W.M.S. and a member of the Georgetown Horticultural Society. She and her husband Harry have lived at their home at R.R. I Georgetown for the past 10 years. Prior to that, they lived in Georgetown where Mr. Scott was a rural mail carrier for 10 years.

Ballinafad, has been news for over 25 years, the Ballinafad United or and past president of and treasurer of Ballinare board. She and her been farming at their past 45 years. They need to wedding anniversary

MRS. A. W. BENTON finds time in her busy schedule as post mistress and operator of her Limehouse store to keep readers well informed on news of the district for the past 29 years. Her husband was correspondent from 1919-26. She succeeded the late Frank Benton, her father-in-law, who was also postmaster and Free Press correspondent before 1942. In spite of his busy schedule as assessing commissioner for Esquesing Township, Mr. Benton finds time as well to help in the store. Mrs. Benton is a life member of the Limehouse Women's Institute and as a member of the Limehouse Presbyterian W.M.S. has taken her turn in every office in that organization.

MRS. DAVE HENDERSON has lived in Mottat with her busband for the past 15 years and has been writing news for the Free Press for the past 20 years. She is a life member of Nassagaweya Presbyterian church W.M.S. and a past president as well as being a charter member of the Ladies' Ald and past president.