John D. Timbers of Milton was elected president of the Georgetown and Halton Poultry Association at their annual meeting Wednesday evening. The meeting, held in the committee rooms of the Mil-

Circles' director is guest speaker

Members of the Baptist Mission Circle gathered for their January meeting in the basement of the church Monday of last week. President Jessie Coles opened with a centennial New Year thought and prayer.

During the business session the secretary Ellen Lott read a thank you note from Eastwood Centre, Hamilton, for Christmas gifts sent from the Circle, and also a letter from Marion Rudd in India. In her letter Mrs. Rudd thanked the Circle for their food parcel at Christmas, especially the candies for the children. She told of driving in a jeep to a new house built by a Christian where she was to cut the ribbon in a dedication ceremony.

Mission Circle treasurer reported $422 sent to missions towards the allotment of $500 to be in by April. President reported flannelette purchased to be used for White Cross work.

After singing of a hymn Alice Pilkington read Scripture passages based on the word Strength and read a poem. Marjorie Landsborough introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. W. Clutton of Stratford, who is the director of Mission Circles for Guelph Association. Mrs. Clutton in opening remarks emphasized the need for going on from strength to strength in the New Year as found in Psalm 84, verse 7. She related the organizing of the first Mission Circle in Ottawa in 1878 and cited the aims of Mission Circles to unite women and children in prayer and study of missions as well as putting before them the missionary claims of life, service and contribution. In closing Mrs. Clutton said we must be constant in prayer and service and be thankful for our great inheritance.

After the closing hymn and prayer a time of fellowship was enjoyed with Mrs. Clutton over a cup of tea. Marg Baillie and Jessie Coles were tea hostesses. Harriet Helwig thanked the speaker and those taking part in the program.

Centennial museum addition is announced by government

Venerable vehicles of a bygone era will be proudly preserved as a result of Halton county's imaginative centennial projects announced last Wednesday by the Ontario Department of Tourism and Information.

Antique stage coaches, buggies and sleighs — in fact, most means of early transportation — along with horse-drawn agricultural implements, will be housed in an addition to Halton County Museum in Kelso Conservation Area.

Friendship fire for centennial

Rockwood — The Cub and Scout Centennial Friendship fire blazed high on Wednesday evening. The Christmas trees from the area were piled high across from the Rockwood Town hall. A large and excited crowd of children and adults watched as the flames and sparks flew high in the frosty air. Hot dogs with free coffee and hot chocolate were served from the Town Hall kitchen by Cub and Scout mothers.

May the light and warmth of this Centennial Friendship Fire be sent out across the world by all Canadians every year.

Install officers at U.C.W. meeting

The January meeting of Ebenezer United Church Women took the form of a pot luck luncheon. Mr. Leeman took charge of the installation of the officers for 1967 as follows.

President, Mrs. Horace Blyth; first vice-president, Mrs. Donald Joss; second vice-president, Mrs. Wynne Dunbar.

Secretary, Mrs. Ronald McLean; treasurer, Mrs. John Kitching; pianist, Mrs. William Early; press secretary, Mrs. Ron McLean; program chairman, Mrs. Don Joss; supply secretary, Mrs. Sheldon Troutdale, Mrs. Don Joss.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Earl Ward; flower co-wener, Mrs. Arthur Diamond; cradle roll, Mrs. Horace Blyth; nominating committee chairman, Mrs. John Henry; manse committee chairman, Mrs. Murray Hayward; representative to Official Board, Mrs. Moffat; representative to Stewards, Mrs. Joss and Mrs. Henry.

Twenty-one ladies were present.

Ebenezer Choir held their annual meeting at the home of their leader, Mr. and Mrs. John Kitching. The president, Mrs. Murray Hayward presided and was returned to her office for another year.

Since the secretary — treasurer, Albert Elom may be moving, Doug McLean was appointed to take over the duties of his office. Our organist, Sandra Blyth, is leaving us to be married.

At the present time, we do not have anyone to take her place. Anyone knowing of a competent organist might get in touch with John Kitching.

The Sunday School held their meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Blyth.

Sir John A. Macdonald used to tour the provinces by train, welcoming supporters at towns and villages all across the country. He was known to have been at Milton. Does anyone recall hearing of him stopping off at Acton? We'd like to hear about it.

School children are working on centennial projects.

Bus shelter for children centennial project of W.I.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Henderson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Archdeacon of Brampton for Christmas and the Henderson family entertained Dr. and Mrs. Milton Henderson and family of Toronto for New Year's.

Mr. G. Henderson has displayed his "Century Farm" sign outside his farm on No. 7 highway at Silverwood.

Silverwood Women's Institute held their January meeting at Mrs. K. C. Lindsay's on Thursday, Jan. 12. Miss Moore was convener for the current events program.

Mr. W. R. Smith, chairman of the Georgetown Centennial Committee, was speaker and gave the members an outline of the town's plan of activities for 1967: the use of Cedarvale School and grounds for their many activities; the Centennial Caravans coming to town and many more interesting events.

The Institute intends that no children should stand out in the cold and rain.

EDEN MILLS Winter activities of club begin

The Silver Bells held their first-get together on Monday at Mrs. H. Gilbertson's home to start their winter activities. After the meeting a few games of cards were played and a social cup of tea enjoyed. Next meeting will be at Mrs. Will Gilbertson's.

The sympathy of Eden Mills community is extended to the Rev. Joseph Taylor and family in the sudden loss of a son-in-law and grandson by accident. Rev. Joseph Taylor is the former minister of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church and Rockwood.

Those present at the home of Mrs. Wynne Roszell on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. K. MacDonald, Miss Helen MacDonald and Mrs. Jessie Wilcox, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brooks, and Miss Florence Anthony, Limehouse; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roszell, John and Lori, Acton; Mrs. Frank Anthony, Shakespear, it being Mr. MacDonald's 76th birthday.

Stewards are B. Leitch, W. Swackhamer, R. Denny, Ron Douglas and Mrs. Elva Williamson.

Auditors acclaimed were Mrs. W. Swackhamer and Mr. A. Damm.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY for 4-H girls

On Saturday, Jan. 14, the Ballinafad Blue Bonnets took part in their 4-H achievement day in Milton. The girls took part in the activities by modelling their accessories, judging and answering a quiz and putting on a demonstration which was entitled, "Accessories for Various Occasions".

Each girl was presented with a 4-H spoon and a certificate of achievement presented on the completion of every two clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hiltz visited with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill Sr. on Sunday. Sympathy goes to Miss Laina Campbell in the passing of her mother, Mrs. George Campbell, Georgetown, who was once a resident of Ballinafad. Funeral services were held on Tuesday at McClure's Funeral Parlors, interment in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Reid have sold their farm.

Master Ricky McEnery spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery.

BELL LINES

by L. G. Denby your telephone manager

Announcement was made a couple of weeks ago of Bell Canada's Centennial Fellowship Program. For years our Company has been interested in education projects, from the High School Science Programs to those at university level. And now, as a Centennial Year project, the Fellowship program has been established to support the further development of post-graduate education — one of the urgent needs of the Canadian educational system. I was most interested to note that the fellowships will be truly a Canadian program. They are for exceptional Canadian students who plan to do graduate work in a Canadian university or college.

Beginning this year, 1967, this program will be administered by the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada and will provide four new fellowships each year to assist students to achieve their educational objectives at a post-graduate level. And, there will be no restrictions as to the nature of the studies the successful candidates may pursue. Preference, however, will be given to those subject areas which appear most directly relevant to the scientific, political, social or economic needs of Canada. We at Bell Canada hope that by commemorating the past 100 years in this way, we are also assisting some of the young Canadians who are the future of our country.

I've decided to make an addition to my list of resolutions for 1967. After hearing a brief run-down on the bewildering variety of projects which will help celebrate Canada's Centennial, I think I'd better take a deep breath and "go into training" for the busiest, most exhilarating and interesting year most of us will ever experience. From the sound of things no one should be able to say "I've nothing to do" during 1967. — The difficulty will come in trying to select the most interesting of the nation-wide projects in addition to our own local celebrations.

Already the Confederation Train has begun its coast-to-coast tour to bring Canada's story to 63 cities and the Confederation Caravans, which tell the same story, will visit 657 more communities. Ten teams of hardy Voyageurs will follow the treacherous, 3,500 cross-country route of the original Voyageurs between Alberta and Montreal. In the summer 13 teams of mountaineers will climb 13 of the highest unclimbed, unnamed peaks in the Rockies and name one for each province and the Northern Territories with the highest peak designated Centennial Peak.

For sport enthusiasts, the Pan-American games will be held in Canada for the first time — in Winnipeg, July 22 to August 7. The RCMP will stage special performances of their famous Musical Ride. And of course there is Expo 67 — the fantastic spectacle of Man and His World being held in Montreal from April 28 to October 27. Expo people feel that all roads will lead to Montreal this year as millions of Canadians and their guests make a visit to Expo 67 part of their Centennial Year plans. While you are there, I hope you will also visit the Telephone Association of Canada pavilion, which, I understand, is even now quickly nearing completion. There you will see an exciting film "Canada 67". I'll tell you more about that in another column. Sounds like a fascinating year to be a Canadian, doesn't it? I hope you enjoy just as many of the celebrations as you possibly can.
