Dr. Allan Buchanan shows Lions films
 Dr. Allan Buchanan showed films of visits to Hawaii, the world's fair at Seattle, scenes from Disneyland—and the Grand Canyon at the regular dinner meeting of Acton Lions Club at the Station Hotel Monday evening.
 He gave the Lions a short history of the Hawaiian islands from the time Polynesian natives first discovered them in 800 A.D. until the present. Scenes from the films included the lush vegetation, beautiful cities, sunny beaches and volcanic mountains the islands are famous for.
 He was introduced by Lion Vic Bristow and thanked by Lion Hartley Coles.
 Lion Murray Harrison extended a plea to the Lions for more used eye glasses to send to those in need. The Lions have several pairs all ready to send out but more are welcome.
 Taj Twister, Neil Miller, a tarty Lion, had his duties usurped by Lion Peter Papillon in the early part of the meeting and was the first to pay a fine for arriving late. He got his revenge by extracting fines from almost everyone else.
 A sing song led by Lion Ray Evelan followed the delicious ham dinner.

 Holy Week services will be held this year in Trinity United Church on March 19, 21, 23 and 24. The Rev. Dr. Crawford Smith of Guelph will be the guest preacher.
 The series will be extended to include a Good Friday service at 10.30 a.m. in which at least three congregations will co-operate.
 As in past years, community organizations will be requested to plan to attend at least one evening as a group and church organizations will be asked to refrain from meeting during that week.
