Only Acton representatives up for board meeting

The inaugural meeting of the North Helton Urban Board scheduled for Wednesday evening of last week was cancelled, and for a good reason -only Acton representatives showed up, and the doors to Georgetown municipal building were locked.

The meeting was scheduled for Georgetown council chambers and notification had been served at-a recent Acton council meeting. It was Acton's turn to chair the board for the year.

Acton council voted unanimously in favor of Councillor Robert Drinkwalter having this honor. Wednesday of last week four council representa-
