Professional caller Earl (the best from the west) Park from Saskatchewan was on hand to call for the dances. A total of 17 squares were present to enjoy the evening of dancing.

Last Saturday evening the Acton club went to Downsview Collegiate in Toronto and hosted the beginners' class from Acton during Novice Night operated by the Toronto District Association.

Miss Donna Ledger is Rotary speaker

Professional equestrian Miss Donna Ledger was guest of honor Tuesday night at Acton Rotary Club when she talked on her experiences in riding and training horses.

Miss Ledger, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Ledger, spent some time in England taking a course in training and riding horses and is presently engaged as an instructor at Eglinton Hunt Club. She and her father also board horses at their farm north of Acton.

Her talk to the club was most informative and of great interest to members. The weekly dinner meeting was held at the Dominion Hotel.

SOBER THRUWAY

The New York State Thruway Authority has prohibited the drinking of alcohol or the possession of an open bottle anywhere on the 559 mile expressway. The penalty, designed to curtail drinking on charter buses and in picnic and rest areas, is $250 or 30 days in jail, or both.

The Ontario Safety League reports that the Thruway chairman, in announcing the new regulation, said "Alcohol has more to do with accidents than is generally realized, or can be proved in court. By attempting to eliminate its presence on the Thruway, we hope to reduce sharply the number of accidents we must now believe cause untold suffering."

Too bad you can't be allowed to see what happens when you can't take with you.
