Acton Novices reach finals

Tim McIntyre and Billy McGiloway fired a pair of goals each as the Acton Novices thumped Hespeler 6-1 on Wednesday night to reach the Tri-county Novice "B" finals.

The Novices, only local minor team left in the playoffs, got single goals from Russell Van Fleet and Gary Barden and assists from John McCutcheon, Jim Hurley, John Ashley and Ken Kentner.

Jubilant coach Barry Incoe reports, "we promised the kids we would take them to Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens, and we will."

Berry Barden's outstanding goalkeeping was a major factor in the team's success.

A go-getter can also be the one who gets sent out for coffee.

Curling Cues

Monday evening Acton Curling Club entertained mixed rinks from Erin, Georgetown and Milton.

Results 7 p.m. draw — Al Kirkness, Acton 7; Tracy Bragger, Georgetown 6; Gord Strain, Milton 6; Ab Irwin, Acton 5; Cecil Karney, Erin 9; Walter Dubois, Acton 7; Ken Marchment, Acton 7; Ray Harrison, Milton 6; Arnold Karney, Erin 5; Bill Dumarsh, Acton 5. Tuesday evening members enjoyed a Club Sweetheart 'Spel' to celebrate Valentine's Day. This was an opportunity for husbands and wives to curl together.

Novelty prizes were awarded to the top team in each draw (total points plus ends). Seven o'clock winners were Bill and Mae Dumarsh with Helen and Harry Otterbein. Winners of the nine o'clock draw were Bill and Marg Toth and Kent and Judy Hollman.

Saturday a Tyler foursome with Gwen, Ted Sr., Delores and Ted Jr. won two games at the Milton Sweetheart 'Spel'.

Saturday a Tyler foursome trophy donor Gwen Tyler, Mae Dumarsh, Shirley Hunter, Margaret Toth, Ann Moore and Mae Wilds. Pa personnel were headed by skips Leg Lovell, Mick Holmes, Rev. A. H. McKenzie, Chester Anderson, Dave Manes and Dick Lee.

Near Valentine's Day date for the annual Ma and Pa bonspiel was just a coincidence. Hearts and flowers were replaced by the battle of the brooms Monday afternoon.

Again this year the burley curlers won the Gwen Tyler trophy which the rock-tossing ladies have only claimed one year.

ANN MOORE, Doreen Lee, Jean McPhail and Ruth Leatherland are surrounded by characters from the back 40, not positively identified as Harold and Tom Manes, Tom Watson and Gord Cooper in Acton curlers' Ma and Pa bonspiel Monday in the community centre. Fun was lively and the curlers enjoying a break from regular league play, enjoyed themselves.

Attention Secondary School Students
YOU CAN WIN PRIZES — $25 — $15 and $10

Every citizen of a nation bears a responsibility for the conduct and welfare of his country.

There is no more important group to whom the nation should listen than to its youth. It is her young people who will decide what kind of country this Canada of ours will be in the years to come.

As a prominent statesman told the people not long ago: "As citizens of this democracy, you are the rulers and the ruled, the law-givers and the law-abiding, the beginning and the end."

Because of your importance to the nation's future, we feel it is appropriate in this centennial year, that you have the opportunity to express your views on what you think your responsibilities are to your country.

And so, it is with pleasure we announce the
