by Ken Hulford

Boardsome

March 6: Going into the stretch, Wildcats are taking no chances of losing their first place spot. They met up with Rockers and made every game a winning one. The second place Wonders failed to gain on the leaders when, in spite of winning two games from Rollers, they dropped the singleton for totals when Rollers rolled a big winning third game. In fact, Rollers almost won the middle chukker — they missed out by 22 pins. Arlie White 663, Gerry Post 635 and Jake van der Kooy 629 tricotured for Wonders. Ray Atkinson 82, Roger Murray 649 and John Dennis 251 tripled and singled for Rollers. Finishers won the first from Supers and that was their finish, Supers having no trouble in winning the next two and totals. Wally Soca 617, Ches Lewandowski 617, John Gilbert 602 and Phil LeSueur 205 made with the triples and single for Supers. League standing: Hawks 87, Crows 81, Doves 68, Robins 58.

Old Timers

March 7: Rockets won the first from Fleas by four pins. Fleas equalized in the second by 39, then Rockets grabbed the final canto by 23 pins, but were shy on winning the singleton for totals by 10. Mamie Allen 477 (173), Molly McHugh 415 (166) and Helen Bittorf 411 (155) topped the triple-trundling for Rockets. Scratching the Fleas' tricotures were Rose Winter 465 (225), Gwen Dawe 356 (126) and Joyce Adams 354 (131). ### Micro Plastics

March 7: Golden Hawks and Blue Angels are still tied for top spot, both teams only winning one game in their respective goes. Sharks were Golden Hawks' nemesis. They clipped the Hawks' wings for two and totals. Hawks came in on a wing and a prayer to win the last canto by five pins. Sharks' win was based on singles with Wayne Eason 207-215, Earl Waller 215, Marg Dunn 211, Harry Oehlrich 247 and Peter Kist 203-207 getting 'em. Hawks' efforts were headed up by Gary Prevost 648, Ed Wood 631 and Stu McConnell 247. League standing: Golden Hawks 101, Blue Angels 101, Munsters 96, Wild Cats 85, Alley Cats 84, Sharks 79.

Industrial-Commercial

March 8: Ledger's IGA pulled an upset. After losing the first game to Mason Knitting by six pins, the lowly ones came back to win the next two and totals. Don Price paced the win with a 611 triple. Mason Knitting couldn't come up with a mentionable. Mason Motors rolled roughshod over Taxi Drivers in the first, won the second by 13 pins, and then got a shock when the Taxi Drivers made with a third game win by 38 pins. The odd point for totals was all Masson's. Jeff Fryer 813, Ron Latimer 718 and Terry Masales 469 (double) were tops for Masson Motors. Heading up Taxi's efforts were Ray Atkinson 709 and Bob Cathcart 625. A-B Supermarket collided with Allan's Collision and got wrecked but good, the Allan outfit winning all games. Pete Homer 853 (308), Jim Bullough 736 (343) and Ray Toth 666 were top tricotures for Allan's. For the A-B Boys, Fred Lockerbie 810, Don Harris 646 and Ed Parent 603 were best.

George Barber 797 and George Longstreet 616 were best for the bowling alley. A short-handed Station Hotel outfit handed Dominion Hotel a surprise by winning the first game. True, it was only by five pins but it was still a win. This state of affairs irked the Wasowicz Wallopers no end and they made sure of the equalizer in the second, then really got hot in the third and posted the season's high single game of 1533 for a convincing two games and totals win. Heading up the Dominion Hotel win were Moe Johnston 884 (301-320), Leo McGilloway 787 (306) and Ed McGilloway 744 (331). We'll also mention Dennis Crooks' 301 single — it's so seldom "Dennis the Menace" gets one. Top trio for Station Hotel were George Williamson 712, Al Norrie 674 and Ernie Lawson 612. Norm's Barber Shop clipped off a three game win at Sports Corner's expense with George Nurse 834, Pete Homer 759 and Bill Anderson 680 being the chief clippers. won the next two and totals with Dodie McGilloway 693, Hartley Coles 489 (double), Jackie Papillon 200 and John Chapman 204 heading up the win. Colleen Davidson turned in a hot 735 triple for F Troop. Unfortunately for F Troop, it was a loner.

League standing: Hogan's Heroes 90, Runamucks 89, Rat Patrol 85, F Troop 83, Rounders 82, Monkees 76.

Acton Mixed

March 10: Quite a jam in the Acton Mixed league, outside of the front running Teddy Bears. It's a two-way tie for second place and the other three teams a shovelin' and apushin' in the third spot. Teddy Bears made with a triple win from Fire Balls with Frank Daley 822 (248), Ed Browne 569 (217) and Don Price 550 (196) being top trio. Andre Brouillard's 215 solo came in handy. Fire Balls didn't exactly set the world on fire but had Nancy Jensen 638 (227), Pat Nicolak 480 (171) and Mary Daley 450 (196) for top tripling trio. Flukes came up with a two and totals win from 007 with Maxine Hurst 624 (231), Marj Thornton 526 (247) and Norm Price 517 (207) heading up the win. Fred Landry 637 (261), Dot Thompson 551 (205) and Bill Dobbie 540 (210) were best for 007. Hot Shots were hot enough to take the first canto from Lucky Seven, then cooled off and it was a two and totals win for Lucky Seven. Chris Jensen 699 (298), Bert Robertson 646 (255) and Vince Thornton 488 (228) paced the Lucky Seven win. Verna Arbic 695 (270), Jessie Price 551 (206) and Brian Rae 536 (195) hit the triple plateau for Hot Shots.

STRIKES At Youth Bowling Council

by Jackie Palmer

March 11, 1967. We seem to have lost the people off the common casualty list, but we have come up with a new one this time. We are sorry to say that George Adams of the Junior Division is on the sidelines with scarlet fever. We hope to see him back soon.

Instead of fighting for the highest average, the bantam boys are competing for the highest number of awards. Wade Knight who bowled a 225 single, a 350 double and a 100 pins over average, has won 11 crests. The next highest is Kevin Perkins with nine crests to his credit.

In the Bantam Division this week, the Rolling Stones took one game and total pins from the Night Hawks. The Neptunes also got that one extra total pin mark from the Top Cats. The Angels took one game and total pins from the Alley Cats.

The Top Ten Bowlers were: Wade Knight 144-244 (388); 495 (195). Rough Riders dropped the first chukker to Argonauts, then got rough and tough, to annex the next two and totals. Dolf van Arragon 710 (260), Jake van der Kooy 575 (226) and Ada Gils 413 (158) were the triple riders for Rough Riders. Top triplers for Argonauts were Lynda Ensing 533 (256), John Duenk 533 (227) and Harry Hofstedde 481 (179).

League standing: Alouettes 100, Argonauts 96, Tiger Cats 71, Rough Riders 69.

Headpin Hillies

The Elimination Tournament had some close matches this month and it wound up an all-Acton final. It was Jeff Fryer versus Pete Homer and in the final set, Jeff went in with two losses against him and Pete one. With Jeff defeating Pete in their first game, it stood at two losses each and the "pot of gold", in this case an envelope full of greenbacks, was riding on the next game. It went down to the last frame and it was Pete Homer winner and champion. That winds it up for now my friendlies, so adios and good-night Daly City.
