Van Hoekelen-Shaw marriage vows in Holy Cross church, Georgetown

On February 4, Holy Cross Catholic Church, Georgetown, was the scene of the recent marriage of Marilyn Nancy Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Shaw and Edward P. J. Van Hoekelen, son of Edward Van Hoekelen, Georgetown and the late Mrs. Van Hoekelen.

Man, his World theme of Institute

The March meeting of the Greenock Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Leslie with Mrs. George Wallace, vice-president, presiding.

The meeting opened with the opening ode and Mary Stewart Collett. Mrs. Calvin Aikhen read the Scripture and all repeated the Lord's prayer in unison. The secretary, Mrs. James McCulloch read the minutes of the previous meeting, and treasurer's report was heard. The members voted to give a donation to the Canadian Cancer Society.

The roll call "Bring an article 100 years old" displayed many lovely treasures such as woollen shawls and odd pieces of china.

Mrs. Ralph Sinclair, convenor for Citizenship and Education gave an illustrated explanation of Canada's Expo using as her theme "Man and His World"; the story of man's progress, aspirations and future. In a wonderful and imaginative pavilions you'll see man's endeavors in a score of different fields — science, the fine arts, exploration, agriculture, industry, the life of the world community by the participation of more than 70 nations. Expo '67 will be challenging, inspiring and also fun.

For those who will be unable to travel to Montreal, a caravan and a centennial train will be stopping at some of the larger centres for everyone to view the history of our country.

A poem "The Centennial Gown" was read by Mrs. William Johnston.

Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. J. Thompson and Mrs. A. Winter. Mrs. J. Thompson was courtesy convenor for the evening.

bride's brother, and Ben Van Hoekelen, the bridegroom's brother.

The reception was held in the Rosetown Restaurant and to receive the guests the bride's mother chose a yellow and ivory brocade dress with a matching hat, yellow shoes, ivory bag and gloves and a green orchid corsage.

She was assisted by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Leo Leuvenik, who chose a black sheer dress with white lace collar and cuffs and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The honeymoon was spent in Florida, and for travelling Mrs. Van Hoekelen wore a turquoise suit with a white fox collar, matching hat, black patent shoes and bag and a gardenia wrist corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Hoekelen are presently making their home in Guelph but will be moving to Port Perry.

Guests were present from Toronto, London, Ont., Acton, Guelph, Streetsville, Port Credit and North Bay.

Mr. Van Hoekelen went to Acton High and graduated, attended Ontario Agricultural College where he graduated from a diploma course. He is now employed by Farm Credit Corporation in Guelph. Marilyn is a graduate of Central Peel Secondary School and is a secretary.

Robyn Vanden, Brampton, was the best man and the ushers were Douglas Shaw, the

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fletcher

Valentine theme

Fletcher-Scott wedding in Brampton February 11

In a double-ring ceremony with a Valentine theme, Teresa Ellen Scott and Laurence Aubrey Nelson Fletcher were married in Kennedy Road Tabernaacle, Brampton, on February 11. Rev. R. E. Stevens conducted the afternoon ceremony and the church was decorated with star shaped bouquets of white mums and glads.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Scott, 136 Maple Ave., Georgetown. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Fletcher, R.R. 2, Acton. He is employed at Northern Electric and the couple are making their home in Brampton. Miss Monique Brunet accompanied on the organ the soloist Mrs. Fay Frederick who sang the Wedding Prayer, Wedding Song and The Lord is My Shepherd.

The bride made her full length dress of beau de sole and Chantilly lace, trimmed with applique roses on the neck and pointed sleeves. The full length veil, which was 12 feet long, was held in place with a satin bow and crystal crown.

The maid of honor, Linda Foster, a childhood girl friend, and the three bridesmaids, Lee Townsend, Monique Brunet and Sandra Fletcher, sister of the groom, were dressed in two-piece floor length red velvet suits and wore white poms in their hair.

The bride and attendants all carried white heart-shaped bouquets in accordance with the valentine theme.

The three junior bridesmaids, friends of the bride and also a trio singing group, Jill Jourdain, Cheryl Cantwell and Dianna Watson wore floor length red velvet skirts and white brocade tops and carried Bibles with bronze poms.

The flower girl and train bearer, Bonnie Stevens and Heather Stevens were daughters of the minister. The bride's attendants all wore the gifts of jewellery given them by the bride. All the attendants except the two little girls wore red garters.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The groomsmen were Richard Fletcher, the groom's cousin, and the ushers were Jerry Robinson, Tom Eureka and David Scott, brother of the bride. The partner for the flower girl was David Dash and for the ring bearer, Kevin Dash.

The reception was held at 5:30 p.m. in Georgetown at the Knox church hall.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with matching three-quarter length coat, a blue hat, yellow gloves and purse and a yellow rose corsage. The groom's mother was dressed in a two-piece beige brocade suit with beige accessories and had talisman roses in her corsage. The bride's aunt had made the cake.

Present at the reception were the bride's grandmother and grandfather on her mother's side and also the groom's two grandmothers. In attendance also were guests from Brampton, Hamilton, St. Catharines, Don Mills, Brantford, St. George, Peterborough, Georgetown, Acton and Toronto. The three junior bridesmaids sang three numbers at the reception.

The bride's travelling costume consisted of a matching coat and dress in pale blue brocade, a white fur hat, white fur jacket and a white beaded purse with black shoes and gloves. Her corsage was of talisman roses.

The young couple spent their honeymoon in Niagara Falls. Before her marriage, the bride was guest of honor at several gatherings. A miscellaneous shower was given by their church, Kennedy Road Tabernaacle on February 7.

A personal shower was given by Fay Frederick, a trousseau tea by the bride's mother on February 3, and another miscellaneous shower was given by the girls at work on February 3.

90th birthday Mrs. A. Croft

Rockwood — Mrs. Alfred Croft of Mary St. quietly celebrated her 90th birthday on Monday. Mrs. Croft lives alone and does her own housework. St. Patrick's presence felt at Nassagaweya W.I. meeting

The Nassagaweya Women's Institute held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Pyatt on Wednesday, March 15, at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. David De Blauw, the vice-president, was in charge of the St. Patrick's meeting and opened with an appropriate verse.

The roll call was to be announced by singing an Irish song or paying a fine. This produced some fine soloists and also added to the funds. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Pyatt and plans were made to replenish the treasury by some catering and eucure parties.

Mrs. A. Norrish was appointed Farm Accident Reporter for the year beginning April 1. Mrs. B. Young read the resolution which had been decided on at a previous meeting, concerning roadside spraying and disposal of affected elm trees. This will be sent on to the district resolution convener. Mrs. Pyatt gave some information regarding train and bus fares to Expo '67.

61st anniversary of Georgetown pair

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, 35 King St. E., Georgetown, celebrated the 61st anniversary of their marriage on March 7, with a family party which included their granddaughter Peggy Taylor, son Ron Taylor and his wife, and daughter Mrs. S. McKeown and her husband from Toronto.

They were married in Franklin, Manitoba, and lived there and in Winnipeg, where Mr. Taylor followed his trade of blacksmith. They moved to Georgetown 21 years ago, purchasing the former Moore property on King St.

Mr. Taylor was born near Acton and Mrs. Taylor is a native of the Sarnia District.

entire group and was followed by a humorous reading by Mrs. M. Moffatt. Some contests were presented and when completed, all participated in a potato roll. Mrs. De Blauw won with a score of 50 and all were given consolation prizes of a pretty green shamrock. To the strains of some lovely Irish ballads sung by John McCormack, lunch was served and enjoyed by all. Mrs. M. Moffatt thanked the hostess and all who had contributed to the success of the meeting.
