

SHEPHERDING HER little flock of rabbits around the ice was Mrs. Kerwin McPhail. In her Easter pack are Patti Gordon, Monika

Heptner, Shelly Schipper, Carrie McCristall, Lyn Christie, Judy Shadbolt, Beverly Kilby and Julie Ismond.

CUTEST OOKPIKS this side of the Arctic Circle are Sherry Ismond, Jay Christie, Lynne McNaughton, Cathy Cunningham, Ann Roeser, Robin Marshall and Mary Jane Hall.

SNOWFLAKES IN PINK, white and silver costumes were Debbie Drinkwater, Cathy Weldon, Kim McCristall and Brenda Browne.

Canadiana '67 ... smash hit

Free Press

Feature Page

RED AND WHITE BOUQUET was presented to blue-costumed guest star Jane Patterson at the end of the carnival by a pair whose number was one of the biggest hits of the evening, Scott Malcolm and Julie Townsley. There's a sweater in the box for the triple silver medallist from Preston.

SMOOTH RUNNING of the carnival was guided by many assistants, among them hard-working Harold Townsley and Garryt de Bruyn (wearing earphones).

GOLDEN PRAIRIE WHEAT: These slender stalks are depicted by Heike Bollert, Erika Heptner, Carolyn Duval, Kathy Robinson and Theresa Cunningham.

SALUTE TO CANADA was taken literally by all the boys in the centennial carnival, Craig Gordon, Gordon Bollert, Michael Lufy, Peter Lufy, Scott Malcolm and Danny LaMarsh.

POPULAR CLUB PROS Nancy Skuce and Sally Wilson, both silver medallists, choreographed their own duet and all the other numbers on the program.

RAINBOW-HUED POUFS and shafts of headdresses formed the costumes for the Northern Lights Ballet. Kathy Papillon had a solo part and others were Diane Charette, Patti Dunn, Dolores

Jordan, Sharon Barber, Kim Kressler, Susan McPhail, Susan Davies, Theresa Cunningham, Jean Elliott, Carolyn Duval, Colleen de Bruyn.

MANY-COLORED COSTUMES were worn by maple leaves Patti Dunne, Cathy Papillon, Diane Charette, Susan Schupp, Debbie Papillon and Dolores Jordan. (Staff Photos)