

Spilling the Pins . . . at ACTON BOWLING LANES

by Ken Hulford

Beardmore
March 27: Finishers were all set to trap the Wildcats, but the Cats upset Finishers' plans by winning the first game by 15 pins and then going on to win the next two and it was three times as far as Finishers were concerned. Millie Fabian 700 (341), Deanna Bullough 650, Phyllis Angell 629, Helen LeSueur 603 and Joyce Masales 228, paced the Wildcat win. Don Harris 682, John Robson 656, Fred Lockerbie 213-217, Doug Graycott 220 and Tom Shannon 262 were tripling and singling for Finishers. Supers bowed to Wonders, who took a two and totals win. Supers getting the nod in the middle canto by 12 pins. Earl Middleton 700, Arlie White 672, Gerry Post 636 and Jake van der Kooy 245, headed up the Wonder win. For Supers, Wally Sca 642 and Ben Rody 215, tripled and singled. Rockers rocked the pins a little better than Rollers rolled 'em and it was a triple win for Rockers with Ed Parent 749, John Fabian 626, Dennis Crooks 210, Dave Shannon 203, Lyle Broughton 224 and Kor Vryenhoek 222, stealing the triple and single spotlight. John Dennis 233, Roger Murray 231, Ray Atkinson 210 and Bill Fabian 212-272 soloed for Rollers.

League standing: Wildcats 114, Wonders 103, Finishers 98, Rockers 87, Supers 84, Rollers 60.

Legion Ladies
March 27: Hawks were a two and totals winner from Robins, but Robins gave Hawks a tussle for the first spasm — they lost it by three pins. Helen Jocque 533 (183), Betty Lockerbie 509 (185) and Helen Fowler 485 (179) were top tripling trio for Hawks. Mary Elliott 495 (204) and Lucy Synnot 440 (171) topped Robins' roll. Crows had nothing to crow about — Doves took 'em for all games with Deanna Bullough 526 (233), Pat Post 479 (161) and Dianne Matheson 458 (179) triggering triplings for Doves. Giving the old college try, John Crows were Phyllis Angell 514 (210), Shirley Turkosz 424 (171) and Freida Gordon 372 (130). League standing: Hawks 100, Crows 85, Doves 84, Robins 67.

Old Timers
March 28: Rockets blasted off with all burners firing and won 'em all from Fleas. Molly McHugh 520 (176), Mamie Allen 495 (195) and Helen Bittorf 476 (169) were top trio for Rockets' triples. Rose Winter 627 (258), Joyce Adams 346 (129) and Bert Chapman 329 (116) were best for Fleas. Hot Shots were hot bowlers against Meteors — they made with a triple win. Mary Daley 454 (178), Shirley Hunter 440 (164) and Gloria Dunne 365 (167) sparked the Hot Shot win. Verna Arbie 416 (180), Peg Spielvogel 388 (156) and Hannah Cleland 286 (109) were best in the Meteor trundling.

League standing: Rockets 98, Hot Shots 92, Fleas 88, Meteors 86.
Blue Springs Nursery
March 28: Orchids got away with a four pin win in the first against Pansies, then made no mistake in salting away the next two, to give them a comfortable lead. Lois Walker 605 (253), Marlon Storey 602 (241) and Betty Hardie 478 (177) headed up the Orchid win. Sharon Owen 560 (214), Marie Lambert 538 (237) and Jean Bullough 449 (175) were Pansies' best. Tulips with two and totals win from Dandyions, took sole possession of the second spot. Deanna Bullough 647 (284), Mary Anderson 519 (208) and Agnes McGinnes 474 (178) did the triple tip toeing for Tulips. Dandyions' efforts were headed up by Sylvia Mages 685 (300), Charlene Andrews 414 (146) and Doreen Adams 387 (155). Liliacs won two games from Sweet Peas, but lost out for totals when Sweet Peas put on the power play in the middle canto, to stash away enough pins for the singleton. Marnie Mellor 540 (242), Lil Wagner 521 (230) and Edna Dobbie 426 (164) hit the triple plateau for Liliacs. For Sweet Peas, it was Fay Gow 543 (205), Elsie Swift 496 (202) and Norma Titus 480 (202). League standing: Orchids 117, Tulips 86, Liliacs 85, Pansies 77, Dandyions 75, Sweet Peas 64.

Missus' Events
March 28: The first place tie between Gladys Hawks and Missus no longer exists. Missus settled that in a decisive manner by defeating the Hawks for a three game win. Gino De Bartolo 700 (302), Frank McKenna 621, John Dunn 604, Steve Blanchard 209 and "Black Bart" Bartholomew 238, tripled and singled in the Munster win. Golden Hawks' efforts were confined to solos — Heather Ellis 220-213, Linda Wood 215, Frank Mead 227 and Stu McConnell 246 had 'em. Elie Angela were a two and totals winner from Alley Cats. The Cats came up with a big win in the middle canto and almost took totals — they missed it by 13 pins. Wayne Cram 709, Jens Lausten 621, Jim Kelman 608 and Mary Lou Cram 218, tripled and singled for Angels. Bill Rognavaldson 267, Martin Oehlrich 220, Bob Mairs 229 and Dave Smallwood 220 singled for Alley Cats. Sharks won the first two from Wild Cats, who woke up in time to annex the last spasm. Harry Oehlrich 707, Bob Cathcart 616 and Earl Waller 206 were on the triple and single plateaus for Sharks. Jo-Anne McKenna's 221 single stood out for Wild Cats — it was a loner.

League standing: Munsters 114, Golden Hawks 107, Blue Angels 106, Sharks 98, Wild Cats 93, Alley Cats 91.
Industrial-Commercial
March 29: Allan's Collision really stalled Masson Motors — they grabbed the first chunk by 25 pins, the second by plenty, and when Masson's threatened in the third, the "Wreckers" nosed 'em out by 27 pins, for a triple win. George Williamson 776 (315) and Bob Doyle 602 paced the Allan win. For Masson Motors, it was Jeff Fryer 641, John Hoare 612 and Phil LeSueur 604. With nary a mentionable to their credit, Taxi Drivers came up with a triple win at Mason Knitting's expense. John Robson tripled a 667 for Mason Knit. A.B. Supermarket lost the first to the rival food merchants — Ledger's IGA — then found the range, and made with the win for the next two and totals. Don Harris 741, Ken Hulford 739 (307) and Ed Parent 605 tripling for the Abies. Charlie Aggar headed up the Iggas' efforts with a 701.

League standing: Masson Motors 145, A.B. Supermarket 132, Allan's Collision 120, Taxi Drivers 82, Mason Knitting 73, Ledger's IGA 29.
Action Ladies
March 29: Nielsen's Clothing retained their top spot position with a two game win from Ledger's IGA, who came through with a big win in the middle canto by enough pins to take a totals May Swackhamer 612 (257), Ina Mellon 546 (243) and Lorna Parveter 527 (169) topped the Nielsen trundling. For Ledger's IGA, Anna Sojka 597 (280), Verna Arbie 513 (190), Shirley Rosenbersky 450 (196) and Madeline Manes 450 (175) were tops. Cameos won two and totals from Family Store, who averted a zero count by winning the last chunk. Bea Anderson 511 (254), Sally Whitley 492 (201) and Bridget Eiler 460 (182) paced the Cannon win. Elsie Wittich 558 (198), Lila Atkinson 467 (185) and Audrey Lawrence 429 (189) came up best for Family Store. Acton Jersey Dairy won two and totals from Central Cartage, who waited until the last spasm before registering a win. Ivy Martin 498 (192), Ruth McLellan 463 (179) and Alice Hatfield 456 (179) creamed up the triples for the Dairy Molds. Carting off triple honors for Central Cartage were Irene Lavoie 616 (216), Kitty Allen 574 (233) and Jean Smith 432 (184).

League standing: Nielsen's Clothing 108, Ledger's IGA 99, Cameos 99, Family Store 95, Acton Jersey Dairy 95, Central Cartage 92.

Major
March 30: Acton Lanes came up with a triple win at the Station Hotel's expense with George Barber 814 (300), Jim Bullough 747 (326) and Don DeForest 698 (328) being top tripling trio. For the "Mill Street Taverners", George Williamson 698, Ernie Lawson 684 and Bob Vlietstra 675 were best. Norm's Barber Shop made a clean sweep of their go with Reliable-Taxi with Pete Homer 875 (343), Bill Anderson 789 (301) and George Nurse 757 highlighting. Stan Swann 753 and Larry Nolan 694 (326) were top dogs for Reliable. Dominion Hotel swung and swayed their way to a triple win when they met up with Sports Corner. Jeff Fryer 794 (323), Leo McGilloy 741 and Moe Johnstone 718, along with the single of 331 from Dennis Crooks, sparked the "Wasowich Wallpapers'" win. Earl Middleton's 635 effort was a loner for Sports Corner.

League standing: Acton Lanes 145, Dominion Hotel 125, Norm's Barber Shop 108, Station Hotel 94, Reliable Taxi 77, Sports Corner 60.

Action Friends
March 30: Runamucks are still hanging onto first place despite losing two games to F Troop. Runamucks made with a big one in the first, to take the singleton for totals. Howie Jank 719, Colleen Davidson 208 and Bob Doyle 210, tripled and singled for F Troop. "Runamucks'" mentionables came from Deanna Bullough 778 (305), Orv Chapman 615, John McChrystal 220 and Don Archibald 225. Rounders rounded out a good evening. They won all games from Hogan's Heroes with Lorna Marshall 624, Fay Gow 609, Red-Barnard 213-209 and Roy Vaughan 208 rounding up the triples and singles. Doing the heroics for Hogan's Heroes were Doris Townsley 729, Floyd Schmidt 644 and Joanne Duval 216. Monkees got away with a big win in the first against Rat Patrol, hung on to win the second by 25 pins, then bowed out in the third but had enough pins in hand to take totals. Monkees' best efforts came with solos — Hank Earle 206, Jack Handy 223-212 and Keith Andrews 283 had 'em. Rat Patrol also went for singles with Hartley Coles 316 (how about that?), John Chapman 222 and Dave Hunter 208 being the soloists.

League standing: Runamucks 101, Rounders 98, F Troop 97, Hogan's Heroes 96, Monkees 88, Rat Patrol 87.

Action Mixed
March 31: After the evening's trundling, there's a jam on for the third spot — Lucky Seven, Hot Shots and Fire Balls are all perched there. Teddy Bears increased their lead with a triple win from Flukes. Teddy Bears' win was sparked by Andre Brouillard 617 (243), Frank Daley 599 (220), Don Price 599 (235) and Bobbi Thompson 509 (236). Flukes' efforts were headed up by Fred Daigle 572 (208), Grace Robinson 540 (208) and Marj Thornton 515 (184). 007 vaulted into second spot with a three game win from Lucky Seven. Gary Price 533 (265), Gary Dobbie 520 (200) and Bill Dobbie 520 (224) paced the win. The (un) Lucky Seven's trundling was headed up by Bert Robertson 481 (191), Chris Jensen 430 (154) and Edna Dobbie 420 (155). Hot Shots made with a two and totals win from Fire Balls, who saved face by winning the middle spasm by two pins. Brian Rae 561 (227), Ray Lizotte 512 (245) and Verna Arbie 490 (183) were the hot trio for Hot Shots. Jon Hurst 524 (189), Charlie Gough 488 (187) and Rose Winter 458 (173) fired the top triples for Fire Balls.

League standing: Teddy Bears 114, 007 94, Lucky Seven 90, Hot Shots 90, Fire Balls 90, Flukes 89.

STRIKES At Youth Bowling Council

by Jackie Palmer

April 1: Being April Fool's Day, the bowlers should have played tricks on the pins by getting strikes, but instead the pins were playing the tricks by continuously leaving up corner pins and punching head pins.

Just a little reminder to all YBC bowlers that there will be no bowling Saturday, April 8, due to a special tournament being held at Acton Bowling Lanes.

In the Bantam division this week, Night Hawks came up with a big two game win by defeating the first place Angels. Rolling Stones won both their games by getting Neptunes. Alley Cats took two games from Top Cats.

league on May 27 at the Legion Hall, Youth Bowling Council league on June 3 at Knox Church, and Micro Plastics league, now there is a bash, May 26 at the Legion Hall. That winds it up again, my friendlies, so adios amigos, and goodnight Daly City.
