Endurance contests have always captured the imagination and Saturday's marathon walk by Acton and district teenagers which included a worthy cause with the objective created much. excitement.

It is fashionable to picture today's youth as demented, long-haired loungers who couldn't care a rap what's going on around them.

Project Action is an attempt by district youth to change that image. Judging by Saturday's effort they're going

Not only is the cancer society several hundred dollars richer but the teenagers hereabouts have gone up several notches in the estimation of people of town and district.

Congratulations are in order for all who planned and participated in Saturday's event. Special tips of the editorial dept. hat to those who walked the entire distance from Thornhill and the boys who attempted to hike all the way from Toronto city hall!

End to confusion...

Years of surveys, warnings and near-accidents at the Mill-Main corners came to mind when they turned on the new traffic lights Monday.

It is our opinion the lights were long overdue.

Pedestrians and vehicle traffic were often confused on the corners and it was a case of good luck rather than good management that nobody came

The lights will decide when people will cross the street, when vehicles can stop and go. The previous system made no allowance for human error. Strangers in particular sometimes exhibited extreme caution on the corner, Busy as bees...

Centennial projects across Canada

The oddest one I've heard about so

They are developing a new breed far, though, has to be the University of of bee there better suited to the Canadian winter. Someone put a bee in their bonnet, the present brand of Canadian bee could stand some improve-wanted to work with in Europe. So they Researchers found the strains they

French Anglos ...

One sidelight on the Franco-Canadian rhubarb over who snooted whom in making arrangements for ceremonies on the 50th anniversary of the battle of Vimy Ridge sent hollow laughter ringing down Ottawa's East Block cor-

A Paris despatch reported President ridors, John Bird says in The Financial de Gaulle as complaining "C'est toujours la meme chose: les Anglo-Saxons."

are many and varied. You hear of teas for the ladies, sports celebrations for the men and all kinds of dress-up affairs for beards and long dresses:

Guelph's.

inching the nose of their car out, causing cars in the right of way to swerve.

Although the Department of Highways take a jaundiced view of stop and go lights because of traffic tie-ups they were not fully cognizant of the facts here until recently.

Merchants were visibly upset because the new lights would interfere with accustomed parking and loading on Mill and Main. However, it's likely the new arrangement will work out better for them in the long run.

Shoppers, especially older ones, will have less fear of this intersection under the new arrangement. Business, therefore, could conceivably pick-up.

tried importing eggs and larvae in thermos jugs and portable incubators.

It didn't work! The eggs and larvae

Retired Toronto school teacher John

Stein had the solution. He flew to Europe, purchased a new shipment and put them in a specially-made belt around his waist. Thanks to the steady body heat he generated the bees sur-

Guelph will soon be releasing a new breed of bee as a centennial gift to the sting in two languages.

Consequently the University of

Maybe it will be a bilingual bee -

Who were these "Anglo-Saxons" particularly involved on the Canadian negotiating team? They were: Roger

Joseph Teillet, Minister of Veterans Affairs, and his deputy, Paul Pelletier;

Jules Leger, Canadian ambassador to

Paris; External Affairs Minister Paul

Martin (whose mother was Lumina

Marie Choinard) and his deputy minis-

Not a Sassenach in the carload.

ter, Marcel Cadieux.

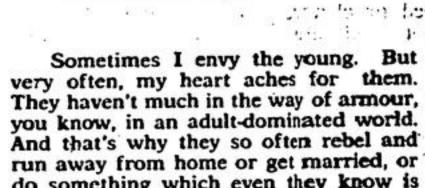

Free Press / Editorial Page

and agent, but his main interest was in exploration. He was probably the first white man to go up the Ottawa River and on to Georgian Ray; he discovered and surveyed at least four and probably five of the Great Lakes; he followed the Susquehanna River in what is now Pennsylvania down to its mouth on Chesapeake Bay. In 1629, when Kirke's British fleet at Tadoussac waylaid and sank most of a fleet of 18 French supply ships which Brule was supposed to meet there and guide to Quebec, he went over to the British with three other Frenchmen, and piloted Kirke's ships to Quebec instead. Champlain could not conceal the weakness of his defences and was forced to surrender. Brule died in 1662 or 1663, somewhere in Simcoe County's township of Tay, when he was killed and then eat-

Sugar and Spice

by bill smiley

Today's young people are confused and battered by an assault of sights, sounds and ideas they simply can't cope

Nothing is easier than to criticize them. They're spoiled rotten. They have too much money. They're bone lazy. They're utterly selfish. They're immoral. They have no sense of responsibility

There is nothing that rasps me more than that kind of talk. And I'm afraid far too many adults are far too glib with it. Perhaps the worst offenders are old maids of both sexes, but we're all guilty, sooner or later.

Adults generally are envious of young people. From that envy springs a general rancor which comes out as a petulant blanket - disapproval of youth

What causes the envy? Mostly, a host of misconceptions. Today's generation of teen-agers has more money, more freedom, more luxury than any in history. It's pretty hard for a man who grew up during the depression - and has worked like a dog all his life - to be anything but sore when he sees a. young punk just out of school riding around in a red convertible, with a doll lolling on his shoulder.

But what he doesn't remember is that while the kids have all the "mores" mentioned above, they have some others. They have more work, more decisions, more pressures, more problems, more temptations.

Certainly, some teen-agers are burns. And so are many adults. But when you look behind the facade of fun-and-games, the average high school kid seems

First of all, they spend six and a half hours a day in school, where they are supposed to be polite, attentive, industrious and obedient to a welter of rules. That's the meat-and-potatoes. For dessert, they are handed between two and three hours of homework. That's a nine hour day, Mac.

and Saturday jobs. Some are expected to do chores or help at home. Others become involved in extra-curricular activities which gobble the time. Very, very few have any hours to dream or read or just goof around, the hours that are so essential to any human's happiness, and particularly so at this sensitive age.

I know whereof I speak. My daughter came to us, almost in tears, the other day. She had just drawn up a list of things she had to do in the next two months, and she had that horrible feeling we've all experienced when things pile up to the point where we want to resign from the race.

Here's the list. And remember, this is on top of a nine hour school day. Play rehearsals; night practices; three nights' performance; band concert; night practices for string orchestra, concert band and symphonic band; one night's performance. Music festival: practise piece, play at festival, play at festival concert. Practice with Bev and Hugh for Hi-Y concert, play at concert. Study for music exams, History and Harmony. Prepare for piano scholarship audition. Practice with New Christian Minstrels for folk mass at church. Complete math and history projects for school. Study for final exams in June.

And my daughter is no exception. Other kids are just as busy, and just as much is expected of them. They haven't even time to experiment with LSD or sex. They haven't time to go for a walk, or listen to the birds, or realize

Next time you feel like knocking kids, stop and ask yourself how you'd like to finish a day's work and then tackle about five more hours of demanding physical and mental activity. Personally, I wouldn't trade with them, even if they did give me back all those years

THE FREE PRESS

PHONE 853-2010 Business and Editorial Office

Founded in 1875 and published every Wednesday at 59 Willow St., Acton, Ontano. Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulation, the CWNA and OWNA. Advertising rates on request. Subscriptions parable in advance, $4,00 in Canada; $7,00 in all countries other than Clanda; single copies 10c. Authorized as Second Class Mail, Post Office Department, Ottawa. Advertising is accepted on the condition that, in the event of typographical error, that portion of the advertising space occupied by the erroneous item, together with reasonable allowance for signature, will not be charged for, but the balance of the advertisement will be paid for at the applicable rate. In the event of a typographical error advertising goods or services at a wrong price, goods or services to sell, and may be withdrawn at any time

Free Press

back issues

years ago

Taken from the issue of the Acton Free Press. Thursday, April 24, 1947.

Following a four year interval in which the Halton Music Festival was discontinued during the war years, the 16th Festival was held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton last Thursday and Friday. G. Roy Fenwick, Toronto, Provincial Supervisor of Music was adjudicator. Betty Mae Fosbury, aged 9, of Acton, won top honors for urban girls vocal solo in the seven to ten year class.

A special meeting of Acton Council and Public Utilities Commission was held. All members of both bodies were present and chairman Hansen presided. After considering the application for the position of Secretary-Treasurer Mr. John McGeachie was chosen for the position at a salary of $1600. The members of Council passed a by-law appointing Mr. McGeachie as corporation treasurer and tax collector. Miss J. Walker was appointed his deputy by resolution of the Twenty-five years ago Amos Mason ame to Acton and purchased the old power house, a one-storey building. While experienced in the knitted goods business, he launched a new product under a new name in a highly competitive field. The product was good and through the years has established a name for quality and fair dealing so that the one-storey building became two, then three-storey, then had additions added and finally outgrew the premises and moved to new quarters that gave ample room for expansion in what had been the Beardmore Warehouses.

50 years ago

Taken from the Issue of the Acton Free Press, Thursday, April 19, 1917.

The girl friends of Miss Ethel Coleman gave her a generous shower of household and other dainty gifts at the home of Mr. John Brown last Friday evening. Miss Coleman will shortly grace a Methodist parsonage in the west as its presiding genius.

The Tansley bridge in Nelson township lost one of its abutments with the spring freshet. The county council will decide what course is best to persue:

Officers for the Methodist lawn tennis club are as follows: president, Miss Lottie V. Mason; secretary-treasurer, Ernest Brown; green committee, Earl vincent convener, Marguerite Stewart, Martin Moffat, Orval Johnstone, Ninian Lindsay. At the annual meeting of the officers of the 20th Battalion Halton Rifles, held at Milton, Lieutenant Noble formally reported that four officers of the Regiment had been killed at the front since last meeting, namely Lieut. J. E. D. Belt, Lieut. C. M. Carbert, Lieut. E. T. Leslie, and Capt. G. O. McNair. The officers in session spoke warm words of appreciation of the standing and character of these four brave men.

Free Press

THE STATE OF THE PARTY.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA KNOX CHURCH, ACTON Rev. Andrew H. McKenzie, B.A., B.D.

Minister Mr. E. A. Hansen, B.A.

Organist and Choir Master SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967

9.45 a.m.—Church School for ages 3 to 9.45 a.m.—Church Membership Class for Teenagers. 11.00 a.m.-Public Worship of God. Sermon Theme: "I Can Leap Over A Wall." 7.30 p.m.—Youth Fellowship. Everyone Most Welcome.

THE CHURCH OF ST. ALBAN THE MARTYR ANGLICAN

Corner Willow St. and St. Alban's Drive Rev. Ritchie McMurray, M.A., S.T.B.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967 Easter V 9.00 a.m.-Holy Eucharist. 10.30 a.m.-Church School.

10.30 a.m.-Holy Eucharist Thursday, May 4 - Feast of the Ascension. 10.00 a.m. Hóly Eucharist.

ACTON BAPTIST CHURCH

Founded 1842 Pastor: Rev. Stanley Gammon Res. 144 Tidey Ave., Ph. 853-1615

SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967 10.00 a.m.-Church School and Adult

11:15 a.m.-Morning Worship. "Sin In The Church." 7.00 p.m.—Evening Service. "Questions and Answers. Tuesday, May 2, 7.45 - B.W.M.S. Rally, Preston. Wednesday, 7.30 p.m.—Prayer and Bible Study, Thursday, 6.30 p.m. — Explorers. Thursday, 7.30 p.m. - Choir Practice.

Friday, 7.00 p.m. — B.H.F. Text: "Be not deceived, God is not mocked, what we sow we shall reap."

75 years ago

Taken from the issue of the Acton Free Press, Thursday, April 21, 1892.

The Council met with Reeve Lowry. Councillors Harvey, Pearson and Beardmore present.

A communication from R. B. Cook respecting the tence around Fairview Cemetery was referred to the cemetery committee.

The piano petition was dismissed in view of the increased demands for school accommodation and other matters more urgent.

The farmers are busy with their seed-

A number of our citizens are planting trees on the street, opposite their

Mr. Joseph McClure is about to build a new dwelling on the corner of Church and Wilbur Streets. Nearly 25,000 acres of Manitoba land were sold by the C.P.R. in Winnipeg last

One of the most important works to be undertaken is the extension of the railway from Saskatoon to Saskatchewan River. The extension will open up a most fertile grazing district.

100 years ago

Taken from the issue of The Canadian Champion, Milton, April 25, 1867.

We regret to announce another fatal accident from a circular saw. Yesterday morning a girl working at Mr. Hadden's was caught in the circular saw at his mill near Kilbride by means of her hoops, her leg was instantly severed, and she was thrown back on the head and died in a few minutes, chiefly from the brain injury. Dr. White was in attendance, but of course nothing could be done. Too much attention cannot be exercised by women in passing machinery.

The Mysterious order of beings known as Callathumpians will again astonish the natives on the Queen's birthday, by order of their chief with the jaw-breaking name. Rangtankaroodeboomjingjing is his title for 1867. The next meeting of Lodge No. 90000000000000019 will meet at their Lodge Room Wednesday May 1, at 8.30 p.m. All members are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted Allah il allah - Saw my leg off.

Milton Council held a special meeting Monday evening for the purpose of assenting to the moving of the old Market House to the opposite side of the road. Consent was given on the understanding Council were at liberty to use it until the other Hall was ready. Court of Revision day was fixed for Monday, May 6 The mayor, and Councillors Bestado, Dewar, Matheson and McGuffin were appointed Court of Revision.

Church News

EVANGEL PENTECOSTAL TABERNACLE

P.A.O.C. 33 Churchill Road Rev. S. M. Thoman, Pastor, 853-2715 SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967 10.00 a:m.—Sunday School. 11.00 a.m.-Morning Worship.

7.00 p.m.—Evangelistic Service. Tuesday, 8 p.m.-Prayer and Bible Study. Thursday, 8 p.m. - Christ Ambassa-

Friday, 6.45 p.m. — Crusaders.

BETH-EL CHRISTIAN REFORMED CHURCH Acton, Ontario.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967 10.00 a.m.-English Service. 11.10 a.m.-Sunday School. 2.30 p.m.-Alternating Dutch and English Service.

Saturday - Bible Classes, 10-12.30 a.m. Everyone Welcome

MAPLE AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH (Georgetown)

SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967 9.45 a.m.—Sunday School. 11.00 a.m.-Morning Service. 7.00 p.m.-Evening Service.

Wednesday, 8 p.m. - Prayer meeting. Acton 853-1956 Georgetown 877-6665

TRINITY CHURCH (The United Church of Canada)

Minister: Mr. John May (Interim Supply) Organist: Mr. George Elliott, M.A., Ph.D.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 1967 SUNDAY SCHOOL 10.00 a.m.-Junior School (to Gr. 4). 11.15 a.m.—Senior School (Gr. 5 to Gr. 8).

SERVICES 10.00 a.m.—Trinity Church Acton. (Nursery_provided.)

11.15 a.m.—Churchill Church (Churchill

Rd. N.) All Welcome

Centennial Picture Gallery

PASTOR OF Acton Baptist church from 1856 Rev. R. B. Cook was photographed with his wife by H. Ramshaw, Acton. ian Bay district where he was a pioneer preacher. When he was ordained in Acton in 1856, he became pastor of the Baptist church here. In 1858, the church was situated on Elgin St. With much interest, though in failing health, he watched the present church being built and hoped to be spared to see the new building opened and join in the He came from Cape Rich in the Georg- worship service. This but was not granted. On January 5, 1900, he was "called home". Mr. and Mrs. Cook were the grandparents of the former Eva Cook, now Mrs. W. McLaughlin of Guelph, who owns this picture.

ETIENNE BRULE at the mouth of the Humber, 1615. He left no written accounts of his journeys in the service of Champlain, and he remains a strange, shadowy, and tragic figure in the history of Canada - vet he was one of its most energetic explorers. Among his discoveries, he was probably the first white man to see all the Great Lakes, including the site of Toronto. Here he is shown in sight of Lake Ontario at the end of the Toronto carrying-place, where the trail dipped down to the Humber River bank. This portage was part of the most direct route from Northern lakes to Lake Ontario. Brule chose to live among the Indians, learned to speak several of their languages, and adopted their habits and customs. Brule helped cement Champlain's alliances with the Hurons against the Irocuois, acting as guide, interpreter en by the Hurons.

do something which even they know is

. . and so on.

in general.

to be having, you see a different picture.

Many of them have after - school