

Spilling the Pins . . . at ACTON BOWLING LANES

by Ken Hulford

Beardmore
April 17: With one night of play left in the regular schedule, Wildcats have just about sewn up top spot. Taking two and totals from Rollers did the trick. Wildcats almost made a clean sweep — they missed out in the middle can by nine pins. Helen LeSueur 700, Helen Yatesman 603, Phyllis Angell 607 and Joyce Masales 206, tripled and singled for Wildcats. Rollers' efforts were headed up by Bill Fabian 603, John Dennis 234 and Reg Dunk 219. Wonders lost a little ground in their drive to overtake Wildcats, when they White 217 had 'em. For Finers, but lost out for totals when Finers' clobbered 'em in the middle stanza. Wonders' best efforts centered on solos — Lyle Cripps 224, Earl West 205-217, Ken Brooks 203, Gerald Draycott 220 and Arlie White 217 had 'em. For Finers, Fred Lockerbie 747, Don Harris 668, Doug Draycott 230, Tom Shannon 216 and John Robson 249 had 'em. Rockers just about wrote finium to Supers' hopes of making the playoffs — they took Supers for the works. Dennis Crooks 748, Dave Shannon 74, Ed Parent 624 and Lyle Broughton 217, tripled and singled for Rockers. For Supers, it was Phil LeSueur 768 (316) and Wally Seca 224.

Legion Ladies
April 17: The league leading Hawks received a bit of a setback when they met up with the Robins. Robins took 'em for two and totals and for Hawks hadn't grabbed the last chukker by 12 pins, Robins would have had 'em all. Irene Grant 577 (210), Lucy Synnott 558 (214) and Lois Manning 482 (186) did the pin bobbin' for Robins. Joyce Buchanan 603 (237), Helen Jocque 537 (218) and Helen Fowler 503 (197) were Hawks' best. Doves were 11 pins better than Crows in the first, 10 pins better in the second, and poured it on in the third, to make with a triple win. Deanna Bulough 517 (238), Dianne Matheson 458 (178) and Pat Post 451 (166) paced Doves' win. Gall Currie 465 (175), Phyllis Angell 434 (147) and Freda Gordis 220 (127) were top trundlers for Crows.

Blue Springs Nursery
April 18: In the first three games of a six game rolloff, total pins to count, for championship honors. Orchids took the lead with a 2583 pinfall. Lilacs, who started slowly, finished strong with a 1038 game, to hold down second place with a pinfall of 2547. Pansies, with three steady games and a pinfall of 2513, are in third place. Tulips are currently fourth with 2314 and Dandelions with 2274 and Sweet Peas with 2230 are fifth and sixth. In that order, Top triples of the night's roll were — for Tulips, Mary Anderson 528 (194), Agnes McGinnes 502 (200) and Verna Totton 489; for Lilacs, Marnie Mellor 605 (249), Wanda Smith 575 (251) and Nora Gimmer 516 (213). Pansies' trundling was headed up by Marie Lambert 656 (243), Sharon Owen 548 (203) and Jean Bulough 431 (163). On the triple plateau for Orchids were Marj Johnston 534 (223), Marion Storey 510 (176), Betty Hardie 505 (212) and Lois Walker 505 (181). Top trio for Dandelions were Sylvia Mages 511 (178), Charlene Andrews 490 (191) and Rheta Goodwin 489 (194). Sweet Peas' efforts were headed up by Norma Titus 570 (211), Fay Gow 550 (216) and Ruth Archibald 505 (186).

Micro Plastics
April 18: The final round of the Micro league was a thriller. Going into the final three games, Munsters had a slim two pin lead with a three game pinfall of 2853 against Alley Cats' 2851. Munsters opened up the barrage with a roll of 1028 and seemed to be on their way. In the fifth game, Munsters fell off the pace with a 890 roll and Alley Cats took over with a 1962 roll and had a 102 pin lead going into the sixth and final game. Wild Cats, Golden Hawks, Sharks and Blue Angels were too far back to be a serious threat, so the chips were down for Munsters and Alley Cats. Alley Cats came up with a 960 effort and it got them the championship by 28 pins, Munsters rallying with a 1034 pinfall to make it close. 'Twas a good win for Alley Cats and a rough one for Munsters to lost. Victory was sweet to the Alley Cats, more so because they went into the final round with a short-handed team of only five bowlers and while we give full credit to Joan Knight, Chris Griese, Bill Rogivaldson, Martin Oehrich and Dave Smallwood as champions, it was Dave Smallwood's last game of 280 which gave the faltering Alley Cats a big lift. In the finale, each team had its mentionables and here they are — for Alley Cats, Dave Smallwood 750, Joan Knight 684 and Martin Oehrich 233; for Munsters, Gino De Bartolo 723, Frank Bartholomew 712, John Dunn 241, Steve Blanchard 235 and Frank McKenna 214; for Blue Angels, Wayne Crane 646, Jim Kelman 239, George Tilcox 208, Alice Tillo 200 and Jens Lausten 22; for Wild Cats, Earl Middleton 242, Dave McMillan 206, John McGilloway 230; for Golden Hawks, Heather Ellis 246; for Sharks, Harry Oehrich 655.

Industrial-Commercial
April 19: That wasn't a heavy fog hovering over Pete Masson's Gas and Car Emporium last Wednesday night. It was a blanket of gloom occasioned by a bunch of young, brash, wheeling and dealing bowlers going under the name of Allan's Collision. It was a four game, total pinfall to count, knockout and Masson Motors, with a first game roll of 1238 and a second game roll of 1351 paced by Phil LeSueur's hot 435 were off and rinning with a 261 pin lead. Came the third game and instead of wondering "where the yellow went" Masson's were wondering where the blazes their scores went. They trundled a 932 and Allan's nailed 'em with a 1254 and were 61 pins up. That's all the whoop — to do boys needed. They stayed off 1238 Masson 1009 rally in the fourth with a 1096 roll and their pinfall of 4678 as against Masson's 430 pulled the curtains down on the "Men of Masson".

Individually for Masson's, Phil LeSueur 856 (435) (4), Wayne Mason 821 (4), John Hoare 385 (2), Ron Latimer 413 (2), Len Annett 375 (2), Jeff Fryer 865 (3), Terry Mission 880 (4). For Allan's Collision, it was George Williamson 661 (3), Bob Doyle 889 (4), Frank Morton 698 (3), Pete Homer 665 (3), Jim Bulough 1077 (348) (4) and John McGilloway 685 (3). In the other half of the semi-final, A-B Supermarket had a rather easy time taking Taxi Drivers. A-B's string of 901 - 1085 - 967 - 1098 (4563) as against Taxi Drivers' string of 901 - 1085 - 967 - 1098 (4051) left no doubt as to the winner. Scorewise for A-B, Don Harris 1138 (324-321) (4), Bob Martin 801 (4), Fred Lockerbie 503 (2), Ken Hulford 824 (4), Ed Parent 442 (2), Terry Churchill 855 (4). For Taxi Drivers, it was Fred Dunn 562 (3), John Churchill 524 (3), Don Grein 637 (3), Ray Atkinson 826 (4), Bob Cathcart 897 (4), Frank Mead 755 (4).

Acton Ladies
April 19: Nielsen's Clothing, with a three game string of 908 - 921 - 1007, for a pinfall of 2836, have taken a 213 pin lead over the second place Acton Jersey Dairy in the first half of a six game rolloff, total pins to count. Mac Ward paced Nielsen's with a 604 tricont and Ina Mellon 235. May Swackhamer 233, Grace Robertson 243, Donna Pargeter 203 - 213 and Lorna Krakep 208 checked.

Acton Mixed
April 21: Outside of the front running Teddy Bears who, with two and totals win from Hot Shots, finished well ahead of the pack, it was a close finish in the regular schedule. Pacing the Teddy Bears' win were Frank Daley

702 (258), Don Price 609 (232) and Andre Brouillard 603 (280). Top trio for Hot Shots were Verna Arbic 704 (293), Ray Lizotte 689 (257) and Brian Rae 448 (194). Foire Balls were firing on all fronts and made with a triple win from 007, Nancy Jensen 647 (259), Jon Hurst 610 (212) and Pat Nicolak 595 (242) were chief firers for Fire Balls. Fred Landry 612 (228), Bill Dobbie 525 (206) and Dot Thompson 468 (204) headed up 007's efforts. Lucky Seven lost the first to Flukes, then won the last two and totals with the Doc Daigle 608 (213), Vince Thornton 572 (205) and Bert Robertson 541 (240) parking the win. Flukes' efforts were headed up by Maxine Hurst 673 (226), Kurt Haefner 490 (218) and Grace Robertson 481 (181).

Major
April 20: Dominion Hotel, who played second fiddle to Acton Lanes in the regular schedule, kept to that role in the finals. In the five game shot, total pinfall to count, Acton Lanes had 649 reasons why they won the playoffs, each one of the reasons being one pin more than Dominion Hotel's score. Dominion started off OK. They went to 1238 as against the Lanes' 1226. The second half the games with 1256 and Dominion 1179 and the bowling alley outfit were 65 pins up. From there, in the Lanes were never headed, finishing with games of 1233-1108-1334 for a total 6157 took-care of the "Wasowicz Wallopers" remaining games of 1032 - 1058-1001 and a total of 5508. The box score for Acton Lanes was De DeForest 1160 (5), Ken Hulford 191 (1), Don DeForest 169 (1), Had DeForest 1290 (340) (5), Jim Kelman 644 (3), George Barber 1292 (353 - 336) (5), Jim Bulough 1414 (301-341) (5). Dominion Hotel box score was Bob Agnew 1178 (5), Don Grein 205 (1), Dennis Crooks 207 (1), Ed McGilloway 1146 (5), Leo McGilloway 702 (4), Bill Johnston 943 (306) (4), and Jeff Fryer 1130 (5).

Acton Friends
April 20: It was Runamucks who ran off with first place at the completion of the league's regular schedule. Runamucks had the edge in a 4-3 go — they won the first, lost the second and tied the third and grabbed the singleton for totals. Orv Chapman 647 and Don Archibald 206, tripled and singled for Runamucks. Red Barnard's 623 tricont was a loner for the opposing Rounders. Losing the first to Hogan's Heroes didn't faze the tail-end Rat Patrol — they won the next two and totals with John Chapman 634, Hartley Coles 461 (double), Dave Hunter 227 and Dodie McGilloway 235 getting the mentionables. Ron Schmidt 236 and Doris Townsley 224 singled for the Heroes. Monkees won the first two from F Troop and while failing to make the grade in the third, picked up the singleton for totals. Hank Earle 671, Glen Gow 236, Keith Andrews 206 and June Hunter 202, highlighted for Monkees. Colleen Davidson 663, Kathy Faber 246 and Howie Jank 211-200, tripled and singled for F Troop.

Headpin Hillies
Congratulations to Phil LeSueur, who made the "400" Club. The rotund one came up with a smashing 435 game in the semi-final of the Industrial - Commercial league. Phil left a corner pin up in the first frame spared one, then struck out.

A gap in the local bowling scene with Bill Johnstone being transferred to Winnipeg by his employers. From his junior bowling days right up to the present, the "Mighty Moe" has always been a stalwart of 702 (258), Don Price 609 (232) and Andre Brouillard 603 (280). Top trio for Hot Shots were Verna Arbic 704 (293), Ray Lizotte 689 (257) and Brian Rae 448 (194). Foire Balls were firing on all fronts and made with a triple win from 007, Nancy Jensen 647 (259), Jon Hurst 610 (212) and Pat Nicolak 595 (242) were chief firers for Fire Balls. Fred Landry 612 (228), Bill Dobbie 525 (206) and Dot Thompson 468 (204) headed up 007's efforts. Lucky Seven lost the first to Flukes, then won the last two and totals with the Doc Daigle 608 (213), Vince Thornton 572 (205) and Bert Robertson 541 (240) parking the win. Flukes' efforts were headed up by Maxine Hurst 673 (226), Kurt Haefner 490 (218) and Grace Robertson 481 (181).

Big Four
April 21: With the first three games of their six game, total pins to count, series out of the way, Argonauts are leading with a pinfall of 2663. Next in line come Tiger Cats with 2628, then Alouettes with 2518, and Rough Riders with 2418. Top trio in the Argonaut roll were John Oosterhof 651 (298), Harry Hofstede 628 (252) and John Deunk 481 (185). Pacing Tiger Cats were Oscar Feenstra 655 (238), Henry Berends 555 (204) and Jennie Kuiken 515 (198). Alouettes' top triple trundlers were Harry Ensing 612 (225), Rink Vlietstra 568 (263) and Joe Hofstede 479 (180). Top trio of triconters for Rough Riders were Dolf van Arragon 635 (207), Janet van Soelen 449 (167) and Trudy Hofstede 446 (157).

Old Timers
April 18: Rockets successfully launched a drive for first place when they made with a two and totals win from Meteors, Marnie Allen 491 (172), Hele Bittorf 478 (173) and John Shaffi 416 (184) were chief factors in Rockets' win. Verna Arbic 515 (207), Hanna Cleland 397 (159) and Peg Spielvogel 307 (147) were best for Meteors. Hot Shots were rather unceremoniously knocked off the top rung when the Fleas took 'em for all games. Hot Shots made a bid for the middle canto but missed it by three pins. Rose Winter 413 (163), Joyce Adams 361 (166) and Gwen Dawe 343 (135) came up with the big triconts for Fleas. Top trio for Hot Shots were Gloria Dunne 346 (140) and Joan Gaines 338 (143).

EDEN MILLS

Centennial committee euchre Institute officers of interest

Opening with a poem, Mrs. R. Roy presided at the monthly meeting of Eden Mills Women's Institute with Mrs. H. Gilbertson as hostess. The Institute Ode was sung and Mary Stewart Collect repeated, followed by minutes and treasurer's report of the last meeting. Old business was attended to and an invitation accepted to contribute and attend the historical event in September.

Annual reports were given by the secretary Mrs. H. Gilbertson, also auditors' report. Roll call was answered by telling who the president was when you joined. Some had to think back as there is seven life members.

At this time Mrs. Norm Marshall was asked to take the chair for election of officers, which will be completed next meeting. President, Mrs. R. Roy; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. Gilbertson; assistant, Mrs. N. McLean; District Director, Mrs. L. Drysdale; assistant, Mrs. J. Gilbertson; social conveners, Mrs. J. Macintosh.

Mrs. R. Roy again took the chair and thanked the ladies for their support last year. Although small in numbers reports were gratifying. An invitation has been extended to members of Eden Crest Institute, which has disbanded, to attend the next meeting. The bus trip was planned for June, and a social time followed and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Kaye Stevenson and a daughter, Martha, Kells, and Eva left Thursday morning by plane for Regina to attend the wedding of her son John. His brothers Dan and Glenn and other guests went by car. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Ed Woodhouse in the loss of his brother at Oakville.

The Army and Sea Cadets of Guelph spent last Saturday in Eden Mills and used the facilities of Eden Mills Edgewood Lutheran Camp to enjoy a picnic lunch.

SLOW MOVING VEHICLES
Now that spring seeding and other farm jobs are underway, there will be an increase in accidents to farm tractors and cars. In 1966 nine people were killed and over 100 injured in 240 tractor accidents on our highways. Many of these were rear-end collisions. Give the motorist a break — use a slow moving vehicle sign as a warning. It could save your life. These signs are available at the Agricultural Office, Milton.

BURNT OFFERINGS
Jim: My wife worships me. Jack: Is that so? Jim: Yeah, she places burnt offerings before me three times a day.

The Centennial Committee of Eden Mills Institute held their last euchre and penny sale on Saturday evening until the fall with prize winners as follows: for euchre, ladies, high, Mrs. J. Gilbertson, Eden Mills; lone, Mrs. B. Nicholls, Guelph; consolation, Mrs. F. Tolton, Eden Mills; gents, high, Ross Campbell, Eden Mills; lone, Mr. Bags, Guelph; consolation, Stewart Rosewell, Guelph.

The penny table was again a huge success and prize winners were as follows: butter, E. Jennings; pickles, Mrs. J. Milton, Guelph; soap and face clothes, Mrs. J. Milton; cherry pie, Mrs. J. Gilbertson; muffins, Evelyn Barden; 10 lbs. sugar, Mrs. Roy; one lb. chocolates, Bob Mochrie.

Knitted-dog and bath salts, Bonnie Lang; one doz. eggs, Mr. Nicholls; cup and saucer, Edith Jennings; chocolate cake, Jim Wheeler; 5 lbs. sugar, Mr. Barnstaple; table cloth, Mr. Bags; Tupperware, Mrs. L. Milton.
