31st annual meeting held by Rockalong W.I. members

ROCKWOOD - The April meeting of Rockalong Women's Institute was held in the No. 8 Community Centre.

It was their 31st annual meeting and the following slate of officers was presented: president, Mrs. N. Harris; first vice-president, Mrs. Edgar Johnston; second vice-president, Mrs. Harvey Shultis: secretary, Mrs. H. Bayne; treasurer, Mrs. L. Dyer, district director, Mrs. G. Mitchell; alternative director, Mrs. L. Dyer and pianist, Mrs. H. Bon-former Churchill minister, the Rev. William Gibbs of Hamilton, assisted by the present minister, John May. After the service, the funeral proceeded across the road to the church

Pallbearers were Harold Griffin, Wallace Swackhamer, Griffin Sprowl, Archie Kerr, R. L.

Davidson, William McDonald,

Harold MoIntyre and Earl Ry-

Flower bearers were James and Ross Swackhamer and John Van Goozen, grandsons;

Jim Thompson, John MacRae,

Bill McCready, husbands of granddaughters; Ralph Denny,

Clarence Denny, Smith Griffin

Jr. and Don Swackhamer, ne-of Esquesing township, son of Christopher Swackhamer and

Esther Zimmerman, Jan 12,

1884, on the farm now owned by Wallace Swackhamer, a nephew. The crown deed for this 'century" farm was registered to the grandfather of the late

Arthur Swackhamer. His brother Clinton later took over this farm and Arthur Swackhamer moved across the town line and has farmed there in Erin township ever since. His ton County Council.

He was born on the third line

phews and grand-nephews.

cemetery for interment.

OBITUARY

Councillor, fair president Arthur Swackhamer dies former Erin township reeve and Wellington county councillor, Arthur Swackhamer passed away in Guelph General Hospital at the age of 83 on Friday. In failing health, he had been in hospital the past few weeks.

He was both and farmed in this district all his life. Churchill United Church, where he was an honorary elder and Sunday School superintendent for 35 years, was filled for the funeral service on Monday afternoon. Extra chairs were placed in the vestibule to accommodate the many mourners.

The service was conducted by

Mrs. M. Milne groups' hostess

Rockwood - Mrs. Max Milne was hostess to the April meeting of Rockwood Presbyterian W.M.S. and W.A. The president, Miss Elva Pearen presided and read the opening poem. Reports from the various secretaries were received and the business on hand discussed.

Mrs. J. Freeman was in charge of the Study Book, dealing with the topic "The Church Goes West". Incidents of early history were mentioned and the works of Rev. John Black and Rev. James Robertson were reviewed. The Centennial scrvice in the Glad Tidings was used in closing with Mrs. D. Gray and Mrs. Gordon Swanston assisting.

The president of the W.A. presided over the business mosting which followed. Mrs. L. Johnston opened the meeting with an appropriate April poem. A report of the recent firemen's banquet was given and other items of business were dealt with during the

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Milne, and a

C. Titt. Mrs. N. Armstrong and Mrs. W. Patterson; flower convener, Mrs. Edgar John-Johnston; auditors, Mrs. W. Guild and Mrs. A. Shultis, several committees: relations, Mrs. H. Bayne, Canadian Industries, Glendenning; agriculture, Mrs. A. McPhedran; citizenship, Mrs. D. McNabb; education, Mrs. C. Titt; health, Mrs. G. Mitchell; home economics, Mrs. W. Patterson.

ner. The directors are Mrs.

The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect. Fourteen members answered the roll call with the paying of membership fees.

After discussion, the ladies decided to purchase new curtains for the Community Centre with Mrs. C. Titt and Mrs. K. Spence the committee to look after the matter. In order to raise more funds for these curtains, it was decided to hold euchres on the 14 and 21 of April,

The F.W.I.C. Convention will be held at the University of Guelph on June 12. The District Annual will be held this vear in Duffs Church on May 8. The theme will be "Know" Canada Better". The Rockalong ladies will display samples of their quilting abilities at this time. Since this was the annual meeting, the reports of all standing committees were

The meeting closed with the Oueen and the ladies enjoyed a social half hour.

Consumers faced with rising costs of food will be offered practical help by the New Democratic Party through the distribution of an ingeniously simple Supermarket Com-

The N.D.P. Computer will help you decide the best bargain for your shopping dollar. It lets you compare prices in a few seconds.

Ted MacDonald, N.D.P. candidate for Halton West, unveiled the new gadget at a social evening in Burlington Monday night. Mr. MacDonald is geography department head in Burlington Central high school and he outlined his party's position on prices.

Much more is needed to fight the rising cost of living, he said. The New Democratic Party would establish a Consumers' Bureau to check the quality of products, advertising claims and packaging. They would also set up a Prices Review Board to investigate whether extraordinary price increases are justified. They also have a Consumers' Bill of Rights which will assure you of the right to be informed, the right to safety, the right to choose, and the right to be heard.

Mr., Mrs. S. Trousdale receive neighbor's gifts son Leslie now operates the In 1961 Mr. Wilson received plaque from the Thresher-He served on Erin township men's Re-union for being the council 15 years as reeve, deputy-reeve and councillor and as oldest surviving thresher man. Ebenezer lost its oldest reeve was a member of Wellingmember in the passing of Mr. In 1946 he was elected presi-Elwood Wilson, who was 91 dent of Acton Fall Fair board, vears old, last November 25. after serving on the board in While not one of the original 1935. He acted as superintendchurch trustees, he took over ent of the field for many years. from one of them. He sang In 1957 the Acton Agricultural in the choir for many years, Society awarded him a Certifiand was an honorary trustee cate for Meritorious Service to at the time he was called to Higher Service. He was predeceased by his Mr. Wilson was a thresher wife, the former Ina Grace for 50 years, and a life-long Denny, and he is survived by resident of Nassagaweya, unfour sons, Harold C. of Hamiltil retiring to Guelph a few ton; Leslie E., J. Christopher years ago. His parents occuand Ross M., All of Acton, and pied the farm at present owndaughter, Mrs. Dirk Van ed by Bill Frank, while his Goozen of Guelph. Also survivown home was that on which ing are 11 grandchildren and Charlie Fatt now resides. Mr. Wilson's first wife who was a Lind, died in 1950.

He is survived by his second wife, the former Augusta Jeffrey, and one daughter, Tyra, (Mrs. Wm. Kee), one brother, Harlan Wilson, of Guelph and one sister, Mrs. Easterbrook, of Milton. Mrs. H. Lawson, of Acton, is a

Rev. W. Leeman had charge of the funeral and burial was at Ebenezer. The pallbearers were two grandsons, Roger and Garry Kee, Reg. Kirkby. of Brantford, Malcolm Moffat, Art Diamond and Carl Cargill.

A happy gathering of neighbors was held in No. 10 school Puslinch, for the purpose of paying honor to Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Trousdale. Mr. Troudale had lived on the farm for over 50 years, while Mrs. Trousdale has been there for 36. Mr. Jim Simpson and Mr. Duncan McFarlane read the address, attesting to the esteem and respect felt for the Trousdales, by all who have

25th anniversary party at Ballinatad

Relatives, friends and neighbors met in Ballinafad hall on Saturday night, April 22 for a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Russell. The occasion was their 25th wedding anniversary.

The couple were married at his sister's home on April 25, 1942, the late Rev. A. O. W. Forman officiating.

They have one daughter, Merle (Mrs. Alan Grant), and one grandson Brian. Many of the wedding guests attended the anniversary party. The evening was spent dancing to the McDougall orches-

The happy couple was presented with lovely gifts and made appropriate replies. Lunch was served and the head table was decorated and centred with a three-tier wedding cake.

There were friends present from London, Toronto, Brampton, Erin, Georgetown, Acton, Guelph, Moffat, Hornby, Hillsburg and Alton.

church to enjoy the paintings, carvings and symbolism of the various statues and images.

The Greek Church emphasized paintings. The churches were literally sanctuaries of refuge from barbaric invaders. They cared for the widows and orphans.

enth century, half the popuconfession was frequent.

some of them on their feet for 24 hours having started out from Toronto City Hall. Although it was simply beyond the physical ability of many of these marchers, and some had to admit defeat short of their goal, 26 completed the march and thus accomplished their aim. This feat alone should con-

Return Mrs. Gordon Leslie Greenock Institute president Collect. Mrs. C. Binnie read

The annual meeting of the Greenoch Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Calvin Aitken. The members met at noon, sang the Institute Grace and enjoyed a delicious dinner convened by the hostess, Mrs. E. Patterson and Miss E. Pearen.

The menu consisted of meat loaf, scalloped potatoes, mixed vegetables, salad, relish and black cherries. Then the baking for the contest was sampled and judged by all. The griddle scones was won by Mrs. A. Gates and Mrs. J. McCulloch and the plain one-layer cake iced and decorated for the 70th birthday of the F.W.I.O. was won by Mrs. A. Gates and Mrs. T. Hemsley.

Mrs. Gordon Leslie opened the business meeting with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart

PRAISES "PROJECT ACTION"

"Action Project" of our High

"May I propose a special vote of thanks to all our Acton

High School students who participated in the "Action Project" walkathon on Saturday,

Eighty-two of our teenagers set out on this test of endurance and stamina to make their contribution to the Cancer Fund, and to create for all

Actonians the image of our students as dedicated, public-spir-

Anybody who, like myself drove out along the march-route to encourage, and if necessary assist, the marchers, felt admiration and respect for these young people who, in spite of inclement weather, soreness and exhaustion kept up their spirits while struggling on mile after weary mile;

ited young citizens.

Gentlemen:

School students.

April 22, 1967.

the Scripture followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison

The roll call was the payment of fees and all standing committee reports were read and adopted. Several members plan to attend the F.W.I.C. convention in Guelph on June 12 and the tables for the Greenoch Centennial Picnic site opposite the old school are expected to be in place toward the end of May.

Miss Elva Pearen presided for the election of officers and Mrs. J. McCulloch acted as secretary. Mrs. L. Trysenaar, convener of the nominating committee, gave a report and the following offices were filled and approved:

their way by denying them the use of local facilities for their hensible idiosyncrasies our young generation is made of the right stuff, and deserve our dances need not be rowdy affairs, and have proved that their way of arranging these events with properly organized security measures is more effective and acceptable than the former high school dances supervised by disapproving "chap-

In conclusion I would like to appeal to everybody concerned to show confidence in our young people, and appreciation of their splendid efforts by giving them our wholehearted support, and unreserved assis-

Yours very truly,

Sid Saitz.

The United States had an average of 50.5 persons per square mile of land at the end

FRED A. HOFFMAN

Optometrist

58 St. George's Sq.

Robertson's

OSPRINGE

Sunday Afternoon

tance in the "Action Project."

Thank you.

of the 1960 census.

They have shown that Teen

Honorary president, Mrs. L. Tryssenaar; president, Mrs. Gordon Leslie: first vice-president, Mrs. George Wallace; sec-

LETTERS

May I be permitted to sub- Teen-Dances, that in spite of mit the following tribute to the their, to us adults, incompreond vice-president, Mrs. A Gates; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Chester Allan; Assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. McCulloch; district director, Miss E. Pearen: alternate, Mrs. T

> Hemsley. Board of directors, Mrs. J. McCulloch, Mrs. R. Sinclair and Mrs. A. White; auditors, Mrs. C. Aitken, Mrs. Gordon Johnston; fruit, flowers and cards, Mrs. C. Aitkin, Mrs. T. Hemsley and Mrs. A. Winter; courtesy convener, Mrs. J. Thomp-

> Standing committee conveners: agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. T. Hemsley. Mrs. A. Winter; Federation of Agriculture, Mrs. E. Patterson: home economics and health. Mrs. A. Gates, Mrs. A. Christensen; citizenship and education, Mrs. R. Sinclair, Mrs. W. Johnson; historical research and current events, Mrs. K. Echerich and Mrs E. Johnston; pub> lic relations, Mrs. C. Altken. Temperance, Mrs. L. Tryssenaar and Mrs. B. Johnston; safety, Mrs. George Wallace; resolutions, Mrs. J. McCulloch: Tweedsmuir curator, Miss E. Pearen; Tweedsmuir committee Mrs. E. Patterson, Mrs. E. Johnston and Mrs. C. Allan.

Mrs. A.-Gates was courtesy convener for the meeting.

ALBERT (The Fuel King) MALTBY SAYS:

"Keeping a Secret from some people is like trying to hide daylight from a rooster."

YOU DON'T GET UP EARLY TO LIGHT THE FIRE WHEN YOU RELY ON

MALTBY FUELS MAIN ST. - ROCKWOOD

four great-grandchildren. social time enjoyed. Mrs. A. Drexler president of Rockwood, Oustic C.W.L. Rockwood - Rockwood and Oustic Catholic Women's League held their annual meeting at the Parish House following the celebration of Mass in the church. Mrs. Patrick Dales brought in the new slate of officers and Rev. Father Isabelle conducted the installation.

CHURCHILL

Deaths, callers week's news

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Near, Glen and Earl in the death of their uncle, Mr. John Maud of Guelph. They attended the funeral in Guelph on Monday, also the burial service at Everton cemetery.

The community and especially Churchill church members and relatives extend their sympthy to the family in the passing of their father, Mr. Arthur Swackhamer, a lifelong member and past superintendent of Sunday School of Churchill church and lifelong resident of this district.

A large number gathered to pay tribute on Monday afternoon at the service in the church and at the cemetery. A former pastor Rev. Gibb. now of Hamilton and the minister here, Mr. May, were in charge of the services.

Mrs. Robert C. Kerr visited on Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knox, R.R. 1. Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Julian and family of Woodstock spent a pleasant Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner. David and Juliann.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hamilton have their little grandson Mark Hamilton of Georgetown visiting with them for a couple of days.

Mrs. Archie Kerr and Misses Eric and Elizabeth Strokov spent the weekend at their cottage at Fenelon Falls.

The new officers are as follows - past president, Mrs. W. Gilfillan, president, Mrs. A. Drexler: first vice-president, Mrs. R. Bacon; second vicepresident Mrs. R. Dupuis; third vice-president, Mrs. J. Gooyeds; secretary, Mrs. R. Haliburton and treasurer, Mrs. P. Dica. Mrs. W. Gilfillan was presented by Mrs. V. Synnott with the past-president's pin. Mrs. GiP fillan spoke briefly and expressed her appreciation to the executive and the ladies for their co-operation during her twoyear term of office. Mrs. T. Buczek and Mrs. R. Dupuis were presented with statues of Our Lady of Good Council. The regional meeting is to be held April 16 at St. Louis Church in Kitchener with the convention being held at Burlington. Mrs. A. Drexler, the president for the coming year and Mrs. R. Haliburton will attend the three days' activities. The next euchre will be held April 28.

The standing committee conveners all gave a very full report on their year's work. The meeting closed with the League Prayers and a social time was

Mr. and Mrs. E. Green of Toronto visited on Sunday with her brother and sisterin-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. Mc-Arthur.

Friends are indeed pleased to hear Mr. George Stephenson was able to return home from Georgetown District Hospital on Sunday, where he was a patient and now is convalescing at his home.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davidson were a nephew and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Martin of Beamsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin; Mrs. Tressa Keeler; Mrs. Howard McArthur; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Keeler, Cedar Valley and Wilmer and Ada Davidhad the privilege of knowing them over the years. Lloyd Laing and Edgar Haugh presented them with a pair of lamps. Sheldon and Aunt Florence expressed their

They plan to move to Rockwood, the first week in May. Rev. W. Leeman's Sunday sermon was the second in his series on church history, covering the 800 years from 300-1100 A.D., known as the Bark Ages." Various reasons why they were "dark" were the fall of the Roman Empire, barbaric invasions from the North, attacks from the South,

> (North Africa), plagues, the gradual corruption of the church, division in the church, between the Latin West and the Greek Orthodox East and many controversies in the church, e.g. the Iconoclastic. The first 300 years A.D. were the best; sometimes a church can be in the way. The churches became lovely and wealthy. In the Old Testament, the people could worship God in a tent. When the church became wealthy, kings bowed before the popes.

The church became rich after Christianity became the legal religion. It was heavily endowed. It introduced the penitential system, tithing was compulsory, many times the church levied taxes. The almsbox was always well filled. People loved the church and wanted to give to it, often remembering it in their wills.

The churches were beautiful, with stained glass windows. The common people, most of whom could not read. read their Bibles in the windows. People went early to 50,000 peasants died in one plague in one Italian province, while, in Britain, in the sevlation perished in a plague. There was no danger of the congregation going to sleep, as there were no pews, and no heat. Communion was seldom administered, but public

Without the church, would have no history.

Guelph; Ont. vince those selfrighteous citizens and councillors who, out Telephone 824-2071 of prejudice, put obstacles in

DISTRICT SHOPPING GUIDE

RICH'S

BP SERVICE

REPAIRS - TIRES TOWING

No. 7 Hwy. — 21/2 Miles East of Acton Renee & Dick Voskamp 853-2940

TAKE OUT ORDERS Sealtest Milk and Ice Cream

Tobacco — Cigarettes — Sundries

RICK'S

SNACK BAR

Main St. - Rockwood

Specializing in

SPEYSIDE

GENERAL MERCHANDISE Supertest Gas and Oil 878-9683 Speyside, Ont.

ROOT HARDWARE LTD. 856-9551 MAIN ST. - ROCKWOOD

Farm Hardware Giftware Sporting Goods Plymbing, Heating, Electrical Supplies

MEADOWS BP SERVICE MAIN ST. - ROCKWOOD

 BP Products ● Tobacco Cigarettes Coffee & Hot Degs

MR. AND MRS. D. G. ROBERTSON are well-known throughout the Ospringe area by their many customers and friends. Their new store opened recently; is spacious and well stocked. Take a drive along 24 highway to Ospringe and pop in and brouse around. The couple will certainly make you wel-

SILVERCREEK GENERAL STORE Dick & Myrtle Pedverse

Carrying a full line of Groceries - Cooked Meats Tobacco - Gifts - Candies Novelties

Open Daily 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. — (Tuesday Closed) No. 7 Hwy. East of Acton 877-3139

STRATTON-DUPUIS

LTD. (KEN) (DICK)

R.R. 1 - Guelph On No. 24 Hwy. North of Rockwood

856-9983

SAUNDERS BAKERY LTD.

Marketeria Main St. - Rockwood GENERAL MERCHANTS

833-2872 In Business 42 Years Mon. to Sat. 8.30 a.m.

WEDDING CAKES A SPECIALTY The Home of the Double High Loaf

BREAD

CAKES

• PASTRIES

KINGWELL Barber Shop Main St. - Rockwood

Open Daily 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. - Fridays until 9 (Closed Thursday 'Afternoon) Where Trim and Price Count"

Lawrence Kingwell,

Prop.

JENNINGS GENERAL STORE

Haltonville — 854-2593 on Guelph Road

Serving B.A. Gasoline General Merchandise

On Your Way to Mohawk

856-9571 ROCKWOOD

Garage GOODYEAR TIRES McCulloch Chain Saws REPAIRS — GAS — OIL

Laura and Fred Meadows Full Repairs to All Makes SUPPORT THESE DISTRICT BUSINESSES IN

SPEYSIDE ROCKWOOD HALTONVILLE OSPRINGE

SILVERCREEK BRUCEDALE - ACTON AREA