

Spilling the Pins . . .

at ACTON BOWLING LANES

by Ken Hulford

Beardmore
 April 24: Rockers sorta rocked the boat for Wildcats when they took 'em for two and totals on the last night of the schedule. Wildcats, who had led the league all season, needed three points to clinch first place, but Rockers played the part of the bad boys and only allowed them to win the middle canto and it finished in a top spot tie with Wildcats and Wonders being tied. Wildcats put on a drive to annex the last game but missed out by 35 pins when John Fabian of Rockers rocked the pins for a 260 game, to put the game on ice for his team. Mentionables in this affair were for Wildcats, Helen LeSueur 642, Joyce Masales 628, Deanna Bullough 624, Phyllis Angell 206; for Rockers, Dennis Crooks 686, Dave Shannon 633, Ed Parent 226, Lyle Broughton 228, Tinnie Masales 203, and of course, John Fabian 260.
 Wonders put on a bit of a go in their three game win from Rollers, which gave them a share of top billing. With anchor-man Arlie White striking out in the first frame to give Wonders the win in the first, then taking the second game by 31 pins, gave them the will to grab the third and a place in the sun beside the Wildcats. Top trundling for Wonders was done by Arlie White 668, Lyle Cropps 627, Jake van der Kooy 228 and Earl Middleton 211. Rolling best for Rollers were Roger Murray 637, Reg Dunk 207 and Bill Fabian 234 - 204.
 Supers won all games from Finishers but still failed to make the fourth and last playoff spot. Finishers tried hard to avert the zero count but missed out in the last game by 14 pins. For Supers, Phil LeSueur 736 (303), Wally Sca 652, Ches Lewandowski 613, Bob Anderson 220 were best. For Finishers, Don Harris 655, Tom Shannon 210, Doug Draycott 242, Ben Bayliss 220 and John Robson 204, tripled and singled.
 Final league standing: Wildcats 126, Wonders 126, Finishers 107, Rockers 104, Supers 100, Rollers 67.

Legion Ladies
 April 24: Hawks were off on the win-wing in the first against Crows, but had trouble in making with a win in the second by 11 pins, and the irony of fate was, they lost out in the third by the same number of point—11. Hawks were OK for totals. Joyce Buchanan 535 (193), Helen Joque 511 (252) and Betty Lockerbie 481 (173) were top tripling trio for Hawks. Phyllis Angell 544 (216), Lois Gordon 475 (192) and Gall Currie 410 (152) were tops for Crows. Robins won two from Doves but their total pinfall wasn't equal to that of the Doves, so they had to be satisfied with a 4-3 split. Doris Angell 533 (237), Lucy Synnott 471 (194) triconter for Robins, with Deanna Bullough 587 (212), Dianne Matheson 569 (212) and Greta Feenstra 541 (197), along with Pat Post's 230, tripling and singling for Doves.
 League standing: Hawks 109, Doves 106, Crows 97, Robins 90.

Old Timers
 April 25: By the narrow margin of one point, Fleas found themselves in the top spot at the conclusion of the regular schedule. Rockets, who had a two point lead going into the last afternoon of play, found themselves toeing the foul line against the second place Fleas and saw the lead disappear, along with their hopes of finishing in first place, when the Fleas barreled home with the first two games to their credit. Rockets put on a big win in the third, but missed out on the singleton for totals by 20 pins and it was first place for Fleas. Rose Winter 452 (189), Marie Chapman 392 (190) and Ina Wilson 366 (162) were top trio for Fleas. Mamie Allen 479 (165), Helen Bitorf 474 (184) and Molly McHugh 386 (146) topped Rockets' trundling. Hot Shots put in their bid for top spot, but their two and totals win from Meteors found them three points shy. Mary Daley 438 (198), Shirley Hunter 441 (165) and Eunice Metcalfe 369 (140) paced the Hot Shot win. Verna Arbic 583 (252), Peg Spielvogel 344 (141) and Hannah Cleland 296 (133) were best for Meteors.
 Final league standing: Fleas 107, Rockets 106, Hot Shots 104, Meteors 90.

Blue Springs Nursery
 April 25: The 36 pin lead by Orchids after last week's three game roll, total pins to count, was never taken care of by the rest of the teams. With games of 948-907-799 in that order, they kept well in front, to finish 361 pins to the good and the playoff championship. So congratulations are in order to Burna White, Marion Storey, Betty Hardie, Lois Walker, Tracy Vlietstra and Marg Johnston. Pacing the Orchid roll were Betty Hardie 544 (224), Mar Johnston 540 (235) and Lois Walker 537 (197). Lilacs, paced by Marnie Mellor 554 (193), Lil Wagner 593 (216) and Wanetta Smith 464 (187) lost their chance of overhauling Orchids when they posted games of 874-709-746. Pansies, whose rolling was headed up by Sharon Owen 582 (260), Jean Bullough 521 (182) and Marie Lambert 456 (165) finished in the third slot. For fourth place, it was Tulips, whose top trundling trio were Agnes McGinnis 552 (217), Verna Tatton 527 (234) and Deanna Bullough 521 (242). Dandys came to a halt in the fifth spot with Sylvia Mages 574 (215), Charlene Andrews 481 (191) and Rheta Goodwin 471 (178) being top tripling trio. Sweet Peas, who gave it a good try but still brought up the rear, had Norma Titus 578 (215), Fay Gow 546 (205) and Ruth Archibald 409 (166) on the triple plateau.

 Final total pinfall: Orchids 5237, Lilacs 4876, Pansies 4832, Tulips 4766, Dandelions 4719, Sweet Peas 4372.

Acton Ladies
 April 26: It was Nielsen's Clothing in a breeze for the playoff championship. True, their last three games were not up to their first three games of last week, but a 213 pin carryover stood them in good stead and their final total pinfall of 5417 took care of the second place Family Store's 5185. Third place went to Acton Jersey Dairy with a pinfall of 5019. Central Cartage were in the fourth slot with 4883, followed by IGA with 4688 and Cameos with 4588.
 Top tripling trio for Nielsen's were Donna Krapek 597 (227), Grace Robertson 493 (212) and Mae Ward 486 (168). For Family Store, it was Lila Atkinson 703 (263), Elsie Witteck 635 (269) and Emmy Fryters 551 (243). Pacing the Acton Jersey Dairy were Ivy Martin 629 (220), Anne Greenfield 534 (203) and Fran Pierce 454 (170). Central Cartage's rolling was headed up by Eleanor Goy 555 (199), Kitty Allen 551 (215) and Lil Herensberger 470 (184). For IGA, Shirley Rosenbersky 609 (236), Annette St. Pierre 503 (198) Madeline Manes 484 (171) with triples and Donna Manes with a 213 single were best. Cameos' efforts were headed up by Janice Withers 518 (253), Isabel Moore 498 (192), Bea Anderson 467 (164) for triples and Bridget Erler with a 201 single.
 So ends another bowling season for Acton Ladies and it's congratulations to Ina Mellon, May Swackhamer, Grace Robertson, Lorna Pargeter, Donna Krapek and Mae Ward of Nielsen's Clothing, champions all.

Acton Friends
 April 27: There was a close battle in the final of the Acton Friends. Monkees knocked out Rounders by 37 pins and Runamucks disposed of Hogans Heroes by a 31 pin margin. In the Monkees - Rounders go, Monkees went 160 pins up with Jack Handy 201 and Hank Earle 227 pacing. With Fay Gow and Reg Adams hitting 240 and 202, Rounders pulled up within 60 pins of Monkees' total. Rounders came up with a big one in the third canto—1037—with Fay Gow 239, Bob Snyder 262 and Roy Vaughan 218 highlighting. Monkees, although hanging on the ropes, managed to stay close with a 1014 game, headed up by Keith Andrews 230 and Hank Earle 217 and their three game total of 2803 edged the Rounders' 2766. Triples in this go were: for Monkees, Hank Earle 640;

for Rounders, Fay Gow 862 and Bob Snyder 606.
 The big guns in the Runamuck go were silent but it was also a close battle. Runamucks chalked up 845 in the first against Hogans Heroes' 719 but skidded somewhat in the second with 844 to the Heroes' 902, which was paced by Merv Harness' 223. The Runamucks slipped again in the third with 843 but the Heroes' 880 effort for a total of 2501 left them 31 pins off Runamucks' 2532. No one hit the triple plateau in this go. The finals will be between the Runamucks and the Monkees and it's a case of pay your money and take your choice. The boys on Bun and Badstreet are quoting 7 to 5 on Monkees.

Acton Mixed
 April 28: Acton Mixed took the foul line in the first three games of their six game roll-off, total pinfall, to count, and it looks like a close battle. Teddy Bears are leading with 2602, 007 are on their heels with 2591 and Flukes, who after two mediocre games, blasted out a hot 1079 game in the third to hold down third spot. Fire Balls are next in line with 2524, followed by Lucky Seven with 2406 and Hot Shots, who slipped badly in the third game, are bringing up the rear with 2176.
 Top tripling trio for Teddy Bears were Frank Daley 577 (241), Ed Bivowne 568 (266) and Helen Blouillard 491 (214). For 007, it was Fred Landry 693 (215), Bill Dobbie 656 (221) and Gary Price 502 (184), along with Dot Thompson's 217 single who highlighted. Flukes' trundling was sparked by Marj Thornton 577 (315), Maxine Hurst 478 (189), Fred Daigle 475 (190) and Kurt Haefner's single of 221. Top trio for Fire Balls were Nancy Jensen 610 (260), Jon Hurst 536 (196) and Rose Winter 485 (196). On the triple plateau for Lucky Seven were Hec Daigle 552 (252), Chris Jensen 500 (194) and Bert Robertson 467 (175). Hot Shots, who might be saving their big games for the last, had Ray Lizotte 523 (208), Verna Arbic 467 (201) and Jessie Price 441 (163) for top trio.

Big Four
 April 28: Alouettes were the come-from-behind kids in the three game final of the Big Four. Going into the last phase, Argonauts were sitting pretty with a 35 pin lead over Tiger Cats, 145 pins over Alouettes and 248 pins over Rough Riders, but came the revolution and Alouettes with three steady games of 907-998-943 boosted their six game total to 5366 and that took care of Tiger Cats' 5191, Argonauts' 5011 and Rough Riders' 3936.
 The wheeler dealers in Alouettes' last three games were Renee Voskamp 606, Rink Vlietstra 655 for triples, and Harry Ensing 219-205 and Joe Hofstede 210 for singles. Tiger Cats, who bowled steady but not high enough, had Oscar Feenstra 546, Jennie Kulken 544 and Bea vander Kooy 471 with triples and Harry Barends singling 214 in their efforts. Argonauts' final efforts were headed up by Harry Hofstede 519, John Oosterhof 477 and Lynda Ensing 437. A standout in Custer's Last Stand, pardon me, Rough Riders' last stand, was Dolf van Arragon's 711 (313) but support was lacking and things were real rough for the Riders.
 So to the champs, Harry Ensing, Grant Cousins, Renee Voskamp, Rink Vlietstra, Joe Hofstede and Sid Hofstede of Alouettes, congratulations and may you wear the crown of champions with becoming modesty.

Headpin Hilltes
 Latest banquet dates to be posted are: Big Four on May 6 at Hilltop Lodge; Acton Ladies at Station Hotel on May 3; and Old Timers will do their best bib and tucker at the Y.M.C.A. on May 3. Steadiness in reverse was an oddity with Runamucks in the Acton Friends' semi-final — they went for games of 845-844-843 in that order.

 The Industrial - Commercial banquet has come and gone and also their election of officers for the 1967-68 season. The exec. will be comprised of George Williamson, president; Don Lindsay, vice-president; Bob Vlietstra, secretary; and Bob Martin, secretary. Stan Haennel of Labatt's made an appearance at the I-C bunched to present his company's awards to Charlie Auger, Phil LeSueur, Bob Martin, Terry Masales, Don Grein, Frank Morton and Pete Homer.
 I'm a week late, Scott, but happy birthday, adios amigos and goodnight Daly City.

Acton Mixed
 April 29: With one more week left in the regular schedule, all of our bowlers are trying to sharpen up for the playoffs and no doubt, the playoffs will result in keen competition and possibly some upsets.
 In the Bantam division there was another total wipeout. Angels defeated Top Cats by winning two games. Alley Cats took Rolling Stones by a two game win. Neptunes lost their two games to Night Hawks.
 Top Ten bowlers in this division were: Debbie Storey 125-191 (316), Kevin Perkins 180-123 (303), Pat Sampson 130-149 (279), Sharon Ellerby 161-115 (276), Bruce Swift 151 - 112 (263), Ronnie Moore 88 - 172 (260), Wade Knight 100 - 126 (226), Henry Toebes 114 - 101 (215), Gord McConnell 100 - 108 (208), Roger McEachern 57-147 (204).
 The Seven-Up and Coca-Cola pope winners were Kevin Perkins, Gord McConnell, Sharon Ellerby and Heather McEachern.

In the Junior and Senior division, there was also a total wipeout. To secure their top place, Hod Rods won three games from Flintstones, Idiots won three games from Jerks, and Crouts took three games

NEILSEN'S CLOTHING wrapped up the Acton Ladies' league 5-pin bowling last Wednesday night with a winning score of 5,417 is pointed out. Lorna Pargeter, Ina Mellon, Grace Robertson, Mae Ward, Donna Krapek and May Swackhamer comprised the winning team. (Staff Photo)

Decoration Day set for June 4

Plans for Decoration Day on Sunday, June 4, were made at a meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gordon Currie, Frederick St. Dave Hunter is chairman of the committee again this year and there were a dozen representatives of participating groups present at the meeting.
 It was decided to have two bands this year instead of the usual three. The parade will leave Fellow St. at 2:30 in the afternoon, march down Mill St., turning south on Main to the cemetery.
 Acton clergymen conduct the annual service and Acton Citizens' Band plays for the singing of hymns.
 Flowers are placed on many graves before the service, and afterward geraniums are planted by participating members of groups.
 Many visitors come back for the annual event.
 Mainland China is the world's leading rice producer, with a crop normally about 80 million tons annually.
