EDEN MILLS

Plan centennial tea, sale

By Mrs. Robert Wright
The monthly meeting of the W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid of Eden Mills Presbyterian Church was held Monday afternoon by Mrs. G. MacDougall. Mrs. H. Gilbertson opened the W.M.S. with a reading, followed by the hymn What a Friend We Have in Jesus. Devotions were taken by Mrs. Beryl Wright and prayer by Mrs. MacDougall.

Roll call was answered by naming a missionary. Invitations were read of a tea and bazaar at Arkell and a tea at Ebenezer in the near future. Two readings were enjoyed by Mrs. Joan Chamberlain and Mrs. G. MacDougall and Mrs. E. Barden closed with the Glad Tidings prayer.

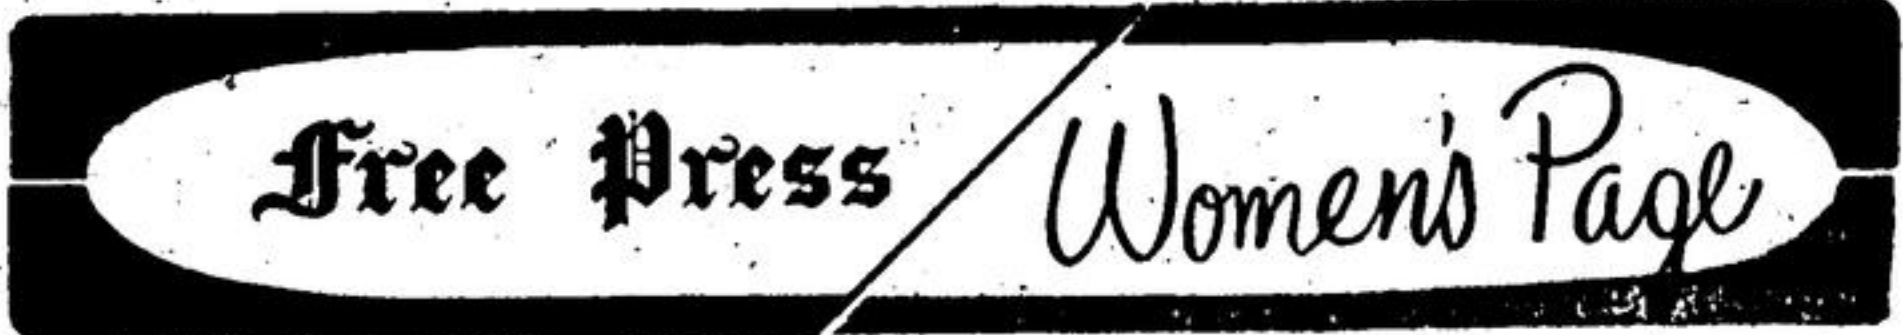

The Ladies' Aid was conducted by Mrs. Beryl Wright and after singing a hymn, minister's and treasurer's reports were read and adopted. The business related to the Centennial Tea and Bake Sale to be held May 31.

Mrs. Nellis named president at annual meeting of Dublin W.I.

Mrs. Mansell Nellis, Blue Spring Road, Nassagawaya, was hostess for the annual meeting of Dublin Women's Institute Thursday evening. As is customary, a pot luck dinner was served first at 7 p.m. and the dinner had a generous assortment of all kinds of good food which was thoroughly enjoyed by the ladies.

Commencing the program, Mrs. C. Britton presided for the singing of the Institute Ode and the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect and the Lord's Prayer. Roll call was answered by the payment of membership fees and offer of homes for meetings.

Mrs. F. Norton, secretary, read the minutes and correspondence. An invitation from the Dublin Accessory Dolls to join them at the Home of Miss Gail Douglas on April 29 was received, to review their work of the last few months under the leadership of Mrs. F. McCarron and Mrs. Jean Martin. Achievement Day will be held in Ballinacree Hall on May 13.

Catering, tea planned by group

Knox Church Ladies' Aid held their April meeting at the church. Mrs. S. G. Matthews, convenor of the month, presided. Her thought for the day was My Lovely Garden — With God's Help. The worship service included the hymn Unto the Hills and a Scripture lesson read by Mrs. F. J. McCutcheon prepared by Mrs. R. L. Davidson. During the business part of the meeting Mrs. William McIntyre, president, reported the facilities of the kitchen were asked by two groups and granted. They are catering to a dinner for the young people's bowling group on June 3.

Mrs. Matthews reported the stools for the kitchen that the committee had been looking for were there and on display. Mrs. William McLeod offered her home to the May group who will hold a centennial tea on Tuesday afternoon, May 9, when all members and friends are welcome. A donation of $25 were voted to the Presbyterian camp Iona near Bala. Mrs. William McIntyre contributed a reading, The Farmer's Plate.

The meeting closed with the singing of the hymn What a Friend We Have in Jesus and the Lord's Prayer. A pleasant time was enjoyed over the tea cups.

FREE ENTERTAINMENT

More than 400 amateur performing groups from across Canada — bands, folk singers, choirs and dance troupes — are contributing to the free entertainment at Expo '67. They will perform in six band shells located on the 1,000-acre site.

OUT OF THE GROOVE

The farm boy on his first ocean voyage was entranced by the heaving, mountainous waves. "Terribly rough, isn't it?" remarked a stranger standing nearby. "Wal," drawled the farm boy, "it wouldn't be so rough if the captain would just keep in the furrows."

Currie, Acton.

Mrs. C. McIntyre gave a concise report of a district directors' meeting at Milton which she had attended recently.

A splendid report on a farm and home safety meeting attended at Milton was given by Mrs. W. McIntyre. Members were urged to notify her of any accidents in the district.

Mrs. Ed Norton gave a very interesting financial report for the year. It had been a most satisfactory one for the branch and a fine balance is in the bank to commence another year.

The old-fashioned cookie competition whose winner will enter the district contest on May 24 in St. Paul's United church hall, Milton, was a popular one and several entries were made. Mrs. George Young of Acton very kindly judged them and declared Mrs. W. McIntyre the winner of sugar cookies.

Two minute reports were given by the conveners of the standing committees.

Mrs. W. McIntyre presided for the election of officers for 1967-68. A report of the nominating committee was presented by Mrs. J. A. Van Fleet, on behalf of herself, Mrs. A. Near and Mrs. C. Armstrong, and the following officers were named:

Past president, Mrs. C. Britton; president, Mrs. M. Nellis; first vice-president, Mrs. M. McCullough; second vice-president, Mrs. E. Norton; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. D. Moffat; assistant, Mrs. C. McIntyre; pianist, Mrs. George Robertson; assistant, Mrs. M. McCullough.
