WHILE REV. SINCLAIR of the Presbyterian church said a prayer of dedication Jim Milne runs the Canadian flag up at the Rockwood Cenotaph Tuesday afternoon. New benches were also dedicated in honor of the pioneers of the district by Mrs. M. Milne who spearheaded a Centennial Concert Committee which raised funds for the project. (Staff Photo)

Dedicate flag, benches at Rockwood cenotaph

CENTENNIAL WEEK AT ROCKWOOD public school was an opportunity for students to dress in clothes of 100 years ago and they make a colorful picture around the cenotaph for the dedication of a new flag and benches. The impressive ceremony ended with the youngsters singing O Canada led by M.C. Jim Milne. (Staff Photo)

EDEN MILLS

Doll collections to be shown at C.N.E.; W.I. meeting held

By Mrs. R. Wright
Mrs. W. Wilson was hostess for the grandmothers meeting of Eden Mills Women's Institute on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. R. Roy opened with a poem followed by Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call was answered with memories of grandmother and several letters of thanks were read. Old business was attended to concerning the bus trip in June and final arrangements were made.

Three delegates attended the district annual at Duff's church Thursday. Mrs. J. Gilbertson, Mrs. T. Aitkinson, Mrs. H. McPherson. Continued from last month was the election of the following officers: branch directors — Mrs. E. Jennings, Mrs. T. Aitkinson, Mrs. J. Hamer; citizenship and education, Mrs. N. Marshall Sr.; historical convener, Mrs. J. Hamer; home economics and health, Mrs. E. Buchanan; public relations, Mrs. R. Wright; agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. W. McLean Sr.

The program committee then took charge of the meeting and every grandmother took part. The highlight was Mrs. Hamer in her individual skit dressed in clothes of the nineties. Mrs. Hamer gave a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Wilson for the use of her home. Refreshments were served.

Miss Ida Duffield of Cooksville in charge of the UNICEF exhibits at Toronto Exhibition was in Eden Mills recently arranging with Mrs. Ina Drysdale and Mrs. Shoemaker to display their doll exhibits at Toronto exhibition in August. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jennings at Rice Lake over the holiday weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Marshall Sr. returned this week from Expo and left to spend the holiday weekend at Doe Lake. Mr. and Mrs. R. Wright returned home Friday after a few days visit with Mrs. Wright's brother Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tougher in E. Rochester, N.Y.

Mr. Herb Gilbertson and Mr. Bob Clayton are both confined to hospital at present. Several families from Eden Mills left Friday to take in Expo for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson are gone north on a fishing trip for the weekend.

Roller crowd

Last Thursday evening, there were 150 roller skating at the arena, and the supply of skates was all rented out. The twice-a-week program is proving very popular again this year.

The lobster is one of the world's favorite seafoods, with diners shelling out almost $150 million last year for the crustacean. While the average "eating" lobster weighs only about a pound, weights of 25 pounds or more are not uncommon.

about SAVINGS
18 years ago the independent grocer has his problems in trying to match the chains when it comes to buying power. However at that time IGA was formed in Canada. Combined, these store owners were then able to match any competition. The IGA family now numbers over 800 stores in Canada. When it comes to low food prices at IGA, we don't take a back seat to anyone. We pass on extra savings to you every day. We really care about YOU at IGA.
