Harbers-Van Arragon wedding in Christian Reformed church

In a double-ring ceremony in the Christian Reformed church on Saturday afternoon, May 13, Nellie Van Arragon and Henry Harbers were married by the Rev. James Joose of Georgetown.

The bride, a former nurse's aid in Waterloo, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Arragon of R.R. 4, Acton. The groom, on the staff of the Acton Free Press, is the son of Mrs. F. W. Harbers and the late Mr. Harbers, Brinston, Ontario.

John Krale played the organ for the three o'clock service, and John Duenk played the trumpet.

The bride wore a full length bouffant gown of Chantilly lace. A crown of pearls held her shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was of red sweetheart roses with white stephanotis. Her single strand of pearls and matching earrings were the gift of the groom.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Ali Looyenga, who wore a street length dress of mint green lace over taffeta, made by the mother of the bride. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Groomsman was Bill Harbers, the groom's brother, and the ushers were George Ware, a friend, and Mike de Jong, a brother-in-law, of Acton.

The reception was held in the church basement, when guests were welcomed from Iroquois, Ottawa, Waterloo, Woodstock, Brantford, St. Catharines, Toronto, Listowel and Acton.

The couple left by plane for a honeymoon in Nova Scotia, the bride wearing a jade green two-piece suit with a corsage of red sweetheart roses.

They are making their home at 133 Cobblehill Road, Acton.

There were several gatherings in honor of the bride and groom before the marriage.

DON'T USE BUDGET

A couple in Pembroke have managed to raise 11 adopted children on an income of $65 a week by simply not worrying about money problems. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jansen find it isn't easy but it's fun. "We keep no budget," Mrs. Jansen says. "What would be the use? We'd only worry from week to week." Mrs. Jansen bakes all her own bread and cakes and makes most of the children's clothes. She buys half a cow at a time, flour in a 100 pound bag and provides pork by purchasing a whole pig.
