

Busload from Golden Age Club attends zone picnic on Tuesday

The Acton-Golden Age Club were well represented at the Zone 13 annual picnic on Tuesday, when a busload of 30 jolly members journeyed to Coronation Park, Oakville. It was a perfect day; maybe slightly on the warm side for those who had to keep busy out in the sun, especially for those on the platform.

But large marquee had been put up, and many shade trees helped to protect folks from the hot sun. Also a pleasant cool breeze wafted from Lake Ontario, somewhat tainted with the smell of dead fish, it must be admitted.

The Recreation Committee had charge of the contests and games and Acton club won a good share of prizes.

Mrs. Kennedy took the prize for her Centennial costume in the "Best Dressed Lady" parade. And Mr. Davidson won hands down as Best Dressed gent, as he was the only man brave enough to "dress up" in Centennial costume. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson took the prize as best dressed married couple. Mr. Davidson also won the lucky spot in the get-acquainted contest when he found a mystery guest, who by the way, was Fred Kingsmill.

Mrs. DeVries won the kick-off for the third year in succession; her shoe always lands much farther than any other lady in the contest. Robert McEnery won a prize in the ring the bottle contest.

All Clubs were represented and all enjoyed the activities and sing-song, also meeting old friends again.

A photographer from the Hamilton Spectator was present.

The Ontario Safety League reminds drivers that speed increases the forces which, in an accident, turn such useful equipment as metal and glass into deadly weapons.

Many drivers have spent a lifetime regretting the time they tried to save a few minutes.

Public health nurse speaks to Golden Age Club members

The Golden Age Club began the month of June with a very interesting meeting on Thursday afternoon.

Vice-president Mrs. McCutcheon presided in the absence of Mr. Davidson and Mrs. Rolston, assistant secretary, filled in for Mrs. Reed, who was out of town for the day.

Plans for the zone picnic at Coronation Park, Oakville, for June 6, were finalized. The bus was to leave the old post office at 10 a.m. An interesting program had been arranged by the committee.

On checking the route of Don Messer's Jubilee, it was found they would be in Brantford June 19 and many were anxious to attend. It was thought a busload could be arranged. The secretary was to write at once for particulars.

Mrs. Mercer, public health nurse, spoke briefly on her work and will come back for the next meeting for a discussion period. Among the ailing were Mrs. Charles Cutts who expected to enter Guelph hospital soon, and Mr. Hargrave who had just returned from Oakville hospital and is progressing favorably.

Mrs. Davidson, chairman of the centennial committee, displayed a painting by Mrs. Gordon Johnston, which the committee had chosen as the club's donation to the new library, for the official opening on June 3. All were well pleased with the painting.

A quilt, recently quilted at Mrs. Nelson Lambert's, to raise money for the centennial fund, was displayed. Mrs. Lambert has been a wonderful hostess for the quilting bees and was called to the front of the hall to receive a gift of a white purse and scarf. Mrs. Shoemaker made the presentation, while Mrs. McCutcheon read the address prepared by Mrs. Reed.

TO MRS. LAMBERT
Who hurries smartly down the street.
With spritely step and smile so sweet
And always looks so nice and neat?
Mrs. Nelson Lambert.

Who always has the quilting bee
And makes the very best cup of tea
And with her treats is most free?
Kind Mrs. Lambert.

She quilts as long as anyone
And quietly industrious, enjoys the fun,
(And boy, oh boy, do we have fun)
Quilting at Mrs. Lambert's.

No unkind word we hear her say
Though early we come and late we stay
And sometimes her nerves must fray.
Busy Mrs. Lambert.

We quilts, and all Golden Agers too
Appreciate how much you do
And present this little gift to you.
Dear Mrs. Lambert.

It brings our love and good wishes too,
And we surely hope it pleases you.

And you'll cherish it many pleasures through
Our Mrs. Lambert.

(Mrs. Don Reed)

Mrs. Lambert was taken completely by surprise but recovered to express her thanks and to smile for the Free Press photographer.

Prizes for each went to: ladies' first, Mrs. Ferguson; second, Mrs. Lindsay; men's first, Marjorie Hall; second, Mrs. McCutcheon. Prizes for crokinole: ladies' first, Mrs. Hargrave; second, Mrs. Shoemaker; men's first, Mr. Healey; second, Mr. O'Hara.

June birthdays included Mrs. Lindsay and Mr. Woods. Anniversary greetings were sung to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brown, who will celebrate their 58th wedding anniversary on June 28.

Mrs. Ferguson and her committee served a delightful lunch.

Learn of courses at community college

J. M. Porter, president of the new community college for Peel and Halton spoke to the grade 12 high school students on May 31. He outlined the courses available and the entrance requirements for each.

The principals and guidance teachers of the surrounding public and high schools were invited and most were present or sent representatives.
