

MARRIED AT ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH, Acton, were Joanne Lucarelli and Peter Vranic. Dinner, reception and dance in Guelph followed the ceremony. (Roy Studio, Guelph)

Joanne Lucarelli, Peter Vranic married in St. Joseph's church

In a double-ring ceremony in St. Joseph's Church, Acton, Saturday morning, May 27, Joanne Lucarelli became the bride of Peter Vranic. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfredo Lucarelli, 316 Peel St., Acton, and the groom, who lived at 223 Mason Blvd., Acton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Janko Vranic of Yugoslavia. The Rev. V. J. Morgan officiated at the wedding ceremony and Miss Irene Mulholland played the organ. Miss Eva DeBartolo was at the church door to pin carnations on the wedding guests. The bride wore a formal floor length sheath of Chantilly lace with long lilypoint sleeves and sabrina neckline. A sleeveless coat of organza and lace flowed into a train. A cluster of petals with crystal tips held a bouffant veil with a scalloped edge. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and white stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Barbara Vranic, Oshawa, and the bridesmaids were Antonia Rocchi, Acton; Mira Vinski, Toronto, and Margaret Price, Acton. The bride's niece, Rita Mancini, was the young flower girl. All the attendants were dressed in rose pink floor length sheath gowns with an overlay of white Swiss lace on the Empire bodice. A panel of chiffon flowed from a bow at the waist. Their headpieces were crescent shape with white poms. They carried white carnations, white poms and punchio, and the flower girl's blossoms were in a small basket. Groomsman was Charlie Vranic, Oshawa, and the young ring bearer was Giuseppe Puppo, Acton. The ushers were Enzo Salvatore, Toronto; Charles Vinski, Toronto and Mike Lesca, Kitchener. A dinner was served to the guests after the wedding and many more gathered for the evening reception in the Steelworkers Hall, Guelph. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lucarelli wore a pink brocade dress with a three-quarter length coat to match, white accessories and a corsage of white roses. As the couple received congratulations from the guests, the groom handed each man a cigar, and the bride gave each lady a bonboniera, a decorated white box filled with white wedding candies. Guests were present from St. Catharines, Toronto, Milton, Georgetown, Oshawa, Huntsville, North Bay, London, Cooksville, Guelph, Orillia, Oakville, Kitchener, Limehouse and Acton. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers came from Huntsville; Mr. and Mrs. Sabatino Leonardis from North Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Beaul from Bothwell.

R. Hayward - N. MacKenzie vows said at Olivet Church

Olivet Evangelical United Brethren Church was tastefully decorated with candelabra, white gladioli and white carnations on June 3 for the double ring wedding of Nancy Ann Elizabeth MacKenzie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. MacKenzie of Kitchener and Murray Ronald Hayward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray O. Hayward of R.R. 1, Acton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a fitted white organza gown with elbow length sleeves and full skirt at the back flowing into a train, with appliqued flowers down the front, on the sleeves and neckline. Her headpiece was made of petals outlined with seed pearls and rhinestones forming a flower to which her three tiered short veil was attached. She carried a white bible with red and white roses. The bride's attendants were Mrs. R. Wiffen of Tavistock as matron of honor, Miss Marilyn Hopkins, Kitchener as maid of honor, Miss Joy Hayward, Acton, sister of the groom, and Miss Heather Walker of Bridgeport as bridesmaids. They were dressed alike in floor length pale mauve sheath over taffeta with white lace bodice. Their headpieces were made of small beads and flowers to match. The flower girl was Miss Laurie Noble of Kitchener. She was dressed similar to the bridesmaids and threw rose petals as she came down the aisle. The bride's flower arrangements were white and mauve small carnations. Scott MacKenzie, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. The groomsman was Alan Hayward, brother of the groom.

with Douglas MacKenzie of St. Thomas, Donald MacKenzie, brothers of the bride, and Wayne Pirie of Toronto as ushers. Rev. Lorne Dorsch officiated with Mrs. Nadine Chapman at the organ. The soloist, Keith Hampton, sang the Lord's Prayer and O Promise Me. Following the ceremony an evening reception was held at Wellsley Community Hall with about 190 present. The bride's mother received in a beige lace dress with jacket, pink and beige accessories and a corsage of baby pink roses. The groom's mother received in a green nylon covered print dress and three-quarter length coat, yellow and green accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. For a short wedding trip to the United States, the bride chose a yellow linen dress and coat ensemble with matching hat, light brown accessories with a corsage of pale yellow roses. They are residing in Oakville. Guests came from Michigan, Don Mills, Milton, Brampton, Clifford, Oakville, Kitchener, Acton, Guelph, Orillia, Waterloo, Atwood, Dashmond and Listowel. Prior to the wedding several showers were given in honor of the bride. On May 4 a kitchen shower was given by Mrs. R. Wiffen, Mrs. F. Gwinn, and Mrs. C. Cobean. On May 9 Miss Marilyn Hopkins, Mrs. B. Hopkins and Mrs. G. Talbot held a shower and presented the bride with a mixer. Miss Joy Hayward held a party shower on May 12. The bride's aunt, Mrs. H. MacKenzie, assisted by Mrs. C. Hawkins had a cup and saucer shower on May 24. Mrs. D. MacKenzie held a trousseau tea for her daughter on May 28.

W.M.S. honors Mrs. C. Hansen for over 25 years of service

The president, Mrs. F. Anderson, used a poem "God is the Answer" as her opening message, when the Afternoon Auxiliary, W.M.S. of Knox Presbyterian Church, met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Johnston on June 8. The program followed the Centennial theme in Scripture reading, prayers and hymns of praise. The study was taken by Miss Isabel Anderson and was entitled "What did Canadians believe one hundred years ago?" The message it brought was in part — this is no time to bemoan the past, but time to boldly face the future. The past is put into the hands of God, its failures and sins blotted out forever. We press on to ever better things. The roll call was responded to by the naming of the fathers of Confederation. Miss Bella Roszell contributed a solo — My Lord is Waiting in the Garden. The program was planned by the Home Helpers Department of which Mrs. C. Hansen has been secretary for over 25 years. To honor her on this occasion she was presented with an Honorary Membership Certificate and pin. An address was read by Dr. K. Kennedy, life membership secretary, the certificate presented by Mrs.

Church reception for Rev., Mrs. May

The United Church congregation is planning a farewell reception at the church Monday evening for the Rev. and Mrs. John May. Mr. May has been interim minister since Rev. Dwight Engel left, and he goes to Manitoulin Island the end of June. The new United Church minister here, Rev. Gordon Turner, will be inducted Thursday evening, June 29. Blind date: a girl whom you expect to be a vision but turns out to be an awful sight.

Letter from India to Mission Circle

The June meeting of the Baptist Mission Circle was held Monday evening in the classroom at the church with the vice-president, Marg Baillie, in charge. After singing of the hymn "More Love to Thee", the minutes were read and other business discussed. An interesting letter was read from Miss Shirley Freckleton, Bobbili, India, thanking the Circle for the food parcel that was sent recently. Arrangements were made for the annual picnic to be held July 10 at Marj Landsborough's home. Reports were given of a recent leadership conference held in Kitchener and special prayers were said for missionaries outgoing and coming home on furlough. Jessie Coles read the Scripture taking from Corinthians, chapter 13 and told the story of a native kindergarten teacher in a small town in Bolivia and how her faithful Christian witness changed the lives of both children and parents. The meeting closed with the hymn "My Faith looks up to Thee" and prayer. Elsie Quee was pianist for the evening. Harriet Hetwig and Marj Landsborough were tea hostesses.

(Mrs. Beaul is the groom's cousin). The couple left on a trip east, including Expo, the bride wearing a blue suit with three-quarter length sleeves trimmed with fox fur, white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. They are making their home in Acton. One big shower was held for the bride-to-be on April 30, at the home of Mrs. Marfisa Rocchi, when many guests brought miscellaneous gifts. The shower was given by bridesmaids Antonia Rocchi and Marg Price, and was organized by Mrs. Rocchi, Mrs. Mary Mancini, Mrs. Divina DeBartolo and Mrs. Caroline Lucarelli.

Quiet celebration

Father V. J. Morgan celebrated his 45th anniversary in the holy priesthood with a mass of thanksgiving Saturday morning. Parishioners of St. Joseph's attended to celebrate the event with him.

Josef Drenters works feature of Brownies' weekend art show

Works of noted painter and sculptor Josef Drenters will be the main attraction at the unusual art show this weekend, planned by the Second Acton Brownie pack. The display Friday evening and Saturday in the scout hall is being held to raise money for the pack use and to send supplies to Brownie packs in South America. Brown Owl Mrs. E. Browne says the admission fee for children has been set at just a dime, so they can easily attend too. "The cost of living's high for kids too!" she says.

Centennial events skirt Dominion weekend

Dominion Day of centennial year in Acton will see no special celebration here. The following Monday is equally barren of any organized hundredth birthday activities. No groups suggested sponsoring any program of any sort on that auspicious day, but instead decided to concentrate on two big weekends and a range of unusual events. As usual, the town is expected to be quiet with many gone north or on holiday trips. On the actual anniversary of confederation, Acton's representative in the Legion Choralists, will be in Montreal for Expo. They will be performing several times at a bandshell on the big weekend when a fellow-tourist will be Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth. The first weekend in June was one of Acton's big ones, with library and hydro openings and decoration day. The main celebrations are planned to coincide with the fair in September. This coming weekend sees a wide variety in 100th birthday year events—a centennial field day, centennial costume dance, a unique art show, annual Rockwood carnival, dedication of Knox church gifts, and a special I.O.D.E. tea and antique display. Guelph and Fergus will both have Dominion Day parades July 1.

Trail is open

In use for years, the Bruce Trail, a 480-mile walking trail stretching from Niagara to Tobermory, was officially opened on Saturday with a ceremony near the northern end. A large portion of the trail passes through Halton County. The Hamilton "Iroquoia" club is in charge of the section from Grimsby to Kelso Conservation Area. The stretch from Kelso to Terra Cotta has been open longer.

Halton Manor, W.A.

Bazaar made nearly $1,000

Financial reports on the recent annual bazaar and tea were heard on Wednesday, June 28 at the June meeting of the Halton Centennial Manor Women's Auxiliary. Mrs. R. Randall reported proceeds from the bazaar were $1,007, less about $65 for expenses. Thirty residents had 279 articles sold and they received $115.50 for their work. The Auxiliary is buying a television set for the new Martin House.

The June and July birthday parties are to be sponsored by the Auxiliary on June 28 and July 19, both in the evening.

Mr. Drenters, who is well-known owner of the Rockwood Academy, is expecting paintings and sketches back from galleries and will provide some of them for this rare close-to-home display. He mentioned to organizer Mrs. Browne that recent paintings and sculpture went to Prime Minister Lester Pearson and U.S. president Johnson. He will not be showing sculptures here, as he mainly does them now on contract. He was commissioned to do a large sculpture for Expo.

The rest of those showing art are local amateurs. Mrs. Dittich is gathering oil paintings from members of the Acton art group. Others who are contributing some of their work are Gary Buttenham, a College of Art student; John Christolm, who is now an engraving apprentice at Birks; Iain Williams and Mrs. Browne, all of Acton; Noel Holland and Mrs. Jacobs of Milton. There will be pen and ink drawings, charcoal and pastel sketches, oil painting, water colors and bas-reliefs. There will be a draw for one of the amateur works.

New deacon takes part in service

Michael Bennett read the Epistle and Gospel at St. Joseph's church on Sunday. He was ordained a deacon the previous week in the Basilica of Christ the King, Hamilton. Father V. J. Morgan commended the young man and blessed him in his new endeavors, telling the congregation he had baptized Michael and followed his entry into the seminary with much interest.

Liquid embroidery shown to Institute

Mrs. C. Agnew, Roseford Terrace, was hostess to the June meeting of Acton Women's Institute. Mrs. R. Lindsay opened by quoting Governor-General Vanier's words to the people of Canada, rich or poor, to try to improve their homes in centennial year. Roll call was answered by a flower grown in a pioneer garden. Minutes were read by Mrs. Fred Anderson and accepted.

McMurrays host supper for Guild

St. Alban's Parish Guild and the Anglican Church Women enjoyed a delightful potluck supper at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Ritchie McMurray. Mr. McMurray was on hand to serve punch to the ladies as they arrived. A delicious assortment of everyone's favorite dishes, topped off with strawberry shortcake, tempted many to return for second helpings. A short session was conducted by the president Mrs. E. Pratt, who thanked the McMurrays for their hospitality. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. The remainder of the evening was spent playing court whist and listening to some lovely music in the background.

Prize winners for high score at cards were Mrs. R. Hall and Mrs. C. Cooke, second highest Mrs. C. Taylor and Mrs. W. DuBois, low score Miss Millie Rowles and Mrs. W. Denny.

Religion and life awards were presented to Cubs, Rovers and Guides at St. Crispin's Church, Scarborough, on Sunday, May 28. Among the youngsters, were the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. George Fryer, 55-Main-St.-N., Gub-Kenneth McLeod, Rover Bill McLeod and Girl Guide Patricia McLeod.

The Cubs, Scouts, Rovers and Guides were in charge of the special centennial Church service in the evening, with refreshments following. The Rev. E. P. Leckie was invested as the Scout's Chaplain.
