"Centennial grads" enjoy banquet, dance at school

By Mrs. D. G. Robertson The 76th anniversary of Knox Presbyterian Church was fittingly observed Sunday morning when a good turnout of members, former members and friends were present. Guest Speaker was Rev. Victor Turner of St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church, Weston, who delivered a timely message. The speaker stated anniversaries are made for memories, enabling one to think of the past, which has made us what we are. In daily toil it is easy to forget God: but in order to achieve, we must give Him a rightful place in our lives, be mindful of others and help one

Reeve asks Ukrainians to fall fair

Reeve H. H. Hinton told council last night he had enquired if the Ukrainian talent at the recent festival would be interested in performing at Acton fall fair and received an affirmative reply.

Only cost to the town for bringing in the groups of dancers, singers and bandsmen would be to supply transportation by bus from Toronto.

Mr. Hinton was impressed by the variety and quality of the talent at the Ukrainian festival he attended.

A resourceful land; a resourceful people. The Canada that Erikson and Cabot found seemed too big to encompass. A rich and teeming land, to be sure: but what to do with it? "Explore it," said Radisson and Hudson and Mackenzie. "Settle it." said Cartier and Champlain and Selkirk. "Unite it," said Macdonald and Van Horne and Tupper. "Populate it," said the Frenchmen and Englishmen, Scotsmen and Irishmen, German and Norwegian and Ukrainian and Japanese and Polish and Italian and Dutchmen.

And we did.

And the land responded with wheat and lumber, fur and fish, gas and oil, copper and silver and gold. And the land responded with space and sunrise and northern lights; and pearly dusks and wild geese flying. And the land was laughing with hunters' moons and crackling midnights and soft stray snowfalls floating down on the pussywillows. And gradually we took the riotous fancy of the maple leaf and the sober industry of the beaver and said to the world. "Here's what we do with it." "We make it Canada."

Happy birthday, Us.
