

Harding-Fountain wedding in St. Alban's church May 20

Sandra Ann Fountain, 64 St. Clair Ave., Toronto, and Raymond Douglas Harding, 102 Bedford Rd., Toronto, were married on Saturday afternoon, May 20, in St. Alban's church, Acton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fountain, 183 Main St., Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harding, R.R. 10, Peterborough.

The Rev. R. McMurray officiated and Mrs. F. Oakes played the organ. Pink and white snapdragons decorated the church for the ceremony.

The bride wore a sleeveless white dress with scoop neckline, accented with a white lace jacket and white lace shoes. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and white stephanotis.

The bridesmaid, Miss Lisa Martin, Toronto, wore a pale gold dress on empire lines and carried red and white peppermint stick carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Hans Kreiter and the ushers were Rudy Solomon and Tom Fountain.

The reception after the marriage was held in St. Alban's parish hall. The bride's mother wore a dark pink dress with sweetheart roses. The groom's mother wore blue with pink sweetheart roses.

Guests were present from Peterborough, Hamilton, Toronto, Brampton and Fergus. The groom's grandparents came from Peterborough for the wedding.

The couple left on a trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and southern Ontario, the bride wearing moss green with a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. They are living at 64 St. Clair Ave. W., Toronto.

Before the wedding, there were showers for the bride-to-be given by Mrs. Doris Logan, Peterborough; Mrs. Art Beardmore, Peterborough; Mrs. Rita Scriven, Acton; and friends at the Bell Telephone Co., Toronto.

MARRIED IN St. Alban's church, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harding are living in Toronto. The bride is the former Sandra Fountain.

Acton W.I. sponsors bus to Hamilton

Forty ladies enjoyed Monday's bus tour sponsored by Acton Women's Institute. Members were accompanied by some ladies from Ballinafad and Georgetown W.I. and some local friends. Travelling by No. 25 to the O.E. over the Burlington skyway they wended their way to Stone Creek where the first W.I. was organized 70 years ago. A short rest period was spent there at Battle-ground Park.

From there they returned to the Barton St. shopping centre where the ladies were given two hours to shop and have lunch wherever they wished. At one o'clock they left to journey across Hamilton to the C.N.I.B. where they were greeted by W. K. Lawson, a frequent visitor to Acton, who gave a warm welcome to the ladies and told of the facilities they offer there to those who have lost their eyesight. A tour of this lovely building was given by Mr. Lawson assisted by Miss Canning. They returned to the auditorium where they were seated at tea tables and served tea and cookies. Mr. Lawson demonstrated the records that have been taped of good books. They provide 20 hours of reading and are available to those who wish them. The ladies, of course, were thrilled with the gift shop and returned home with some treasures made by these courageous people.

The next stop brought them through picturesque Dundas where the beauties of nature were enjoyed at Webster's Falls. Next stop was made at the Rock Gardens at Hamilton and also at Spring Garden where peonies were the highlight.

The last part of this planned trip brought them to south Halton county along No. 2 Highway to the Guelph Line. Touring north, they saw the beauty of their own county at its very

BALLINAFAD

Cemetery clean-up is well-attended

A good turnout attended the clean-up of the 9th line cemetery on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shortill and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson and family, also Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Madill and Mr. and Mrs. Miller attended the farewell for Rev. O. R. and Mrs. Flindall at Fulleton on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Flindall are retiring at Whitley after 42 years in the ministry. Greetings were expressed from a large number of former churches where they had served. Mr. Harry Shortill expressed best wishes from Ballinafad. Greetings were sent from Churchill Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Flindall spent a few years on Ballinafad charge and have many pleasant memories of the time they spent in Ballinafad.

best. They reached the Mohawk Inn at Campbellville for supper. The ladies were fascinated at the variety of antiques there.

The courteous driver, Ted Tyler Jr., made sure no beauty spots were missed through the trip and the final few miles to Acton brought many people right to their own door, leaving the main highway to other folk.

Hit, run accident

Thursday evening

Two cars were involved in a hit and run accident on No. 7 Highway, east of the fifth line, Esquimaux, Thursday evening. Driver of the one car is unknown, but the car driven by Gunnar Jespersen, 164 Tidey Ave., Acton, received $250 damage.

Joint services

Joint church services will be held again this summer, with the congregations of the United and Presbyterian churches participating. The Rev. A. H. McKenzie is on holidays in July and July services for both congregations will be held in the United Church conducted by the new minister the Rev. G. Turner. In August and the first Sunday in September the services will be in Knox.

CHURCHILL

Church picnic Sunday held at Gormac Lake

Churchill Church and Sunday School picnic was held on Sunday, June 25, at Gormac Lake with a fairly good turnout considering the cool weather. Races, baseball and swimming were enjoyed by the younger ones while some visited together with Rev. and Mrs. May who was our pastor for a short time and who left on Monday for his new and first charge on Manitoulin Island. A bountiful pot luck picnic supper was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Leitch and Beverly, also Mrs. Annie Saunders, Norma and Stephen, visited last week with their aunt, Mrs. Janet Cree at Allisa Craig.

Mrs. Archie Kerr and sister Mrs. E. Buck of Georgetown attended the Carson family reunion at Glen Eden near Mount Forest on Sunday, June 25. The young folks had games outside while the others gathered in the house where even the family had treasured the old cook stove and it gave a warm welcome to all. Lunch was served indoors where some old antiques were on exhibit and in use. Even the family albums gave great interest and enthusiasm to the younger generations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Wallace of London were visitors over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Waud Hamilton and family. Sunday visitors at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mc Nichol, Marnie and Paul of Mona Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McConnell, Miss Brendt and Mr. Wayne McConnell of Kincardine visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sawatsky and family of Niagara Falls were visitors on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Swackhamer and girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner, David and Julann spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Turner in North Bay. Norman reports fishing in Lake Nipissing very rewarding. His parents remain in good health.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. M. Deamon on the birth of a son, Clifford Lewis, at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, on Saturday, June 24.

On Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr entertained her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Knox and sisters Nancy and Mrs. Grant Down and three children.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ledger spent the weekend with friends on Stanley Island, Lake Muskoka. Fishing was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Thompson and family held their picnic on Sunday, June 25 at Riverside Park in Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binnie attended the Foster family reunion held at Cheltenham on Sunday, June 18 and on Sunday June 25 they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pallett and family at Tottenham.

EBENEZER

New minister comes in August many bid farewell to Leemans

By Mrs. K. McLenn

Anyone having remnants of wool or other material suitable to be made up, is asked to leave them either at the municipal offices or at the home of Mrs. Wynne Dunbar, for the North-West Halton Voluntary Services so they can use them to prepare for the coming winter.

Rev. W. Leeman gave his farewell message at Ebenezer on Sunday morning. He based his remarks on the famous 13th chapter of First Corinthians, stressing the necessity of faith, hope and love to live a truly Christian life.

A number from Ebenezer were at Mohawk Raceway to enjoy the centennial program on Saturday afternoon. The ladies had an interesting display of antiques.

Also on Sunday afternoon, a number enjoyed the centennial worship service held outside at Brookville. Ebenezer choir joined members of the other community choirs in singing two special numbers.

On Sunday evening, Ebenezer Sunday School room was full to capacity for the farewell for Rev. and Mrs. Wally Leeman and Janet. Art Diamond acted as master of ceremonies and the evening opened with a hymn-sing with Mrs. Early at the piano. Interesting pictures of their western trip were shown by Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas. The Haltontes, Wilma and Ruth Mason and Joy Hayward, sang several numbers in their usual pleasing manner, accompanied by Mrs. George Newell. Joy Hayward then showed her beautiful sides of her western trip.

Mr. Diamond, Mr. Hayward, Mr. Howard James and Mr. Lorne Page presented Mr. and Mrs. Leeman with a table and chair set, for which they expressed their appreciation. Mr. Leeman said how he had enjoyed his work here and wished us every success in the future. Sue Ward presented Janet with a doll. Mrs. Malcolm Moffat presented Mrs. Leeman with a pin and carrying set on behalf of the U.C.W. A social time brought the evening to a close.

Next Sunday, Ebenezer U. C. W. will have charge of the church service, with Mrs. McFadden of Milton, as special speaker. The following Sunday the Young People will have charge.

Induction services for the new minister, Rev. Russel Finley from Deseronto, will be held on August 10.
