Cards defeat Villagers secure first position

Campbellville dropped their fourth game of the season last Tuesday by a narrow 3-2 margin to Burlington. The win left Burlington in first place and saw the villagers tumble to fourth.

Campbellville came back Sunday to pick up a 3-1 win over Preston in five innings of ball. The game was called because of rain.

It was a tough loss for Jack Roberts who hurled an outstanding game for Campbellville. He allowed three runs off six hits while striking out five and walking one. One of the hits was a swinging bunt down the third base line and another got through a leaky infield.

George Moore in four innings for Burlington gave up two runs off three hits. He struck out three and walked one. Dan Chlubka in three innings of relief shut-out Campbellville on two hits. He struck out three and walked two. Moore was the winning pitcher.

Campbellville got all their runs in the first. With one out Moore singled but was forced at second by Chester to second and then Roberts bounced to the short stop who flipped to second for the force out but second baseman Wallace dropped the ball and everyone was safe. Dan Joyce then singled in two runs.

Burlington got one back in their half of the first when Robin Johnny singled, stole second and third and scored on a sacrifice fly by Jack Price.

The tying and winning runs were scored in the fourth. Wiggle singled and Repta booted Clarke's sacrifice bunt so both men were safe. Rowe singled through first to score one and another came in on an infield out.

Johnny Rowe and Wiggle each had two singles for Burlington. Johnny's hit in the fifth was actually a triple but he failed to touch second and Campbellville spotted it. Bill Elliot hit a triple and a single for Campbellville. Ken Moore, Don Joyce and Larry McPhail all singled.

There was a slight flare up between the teams in the fourth after Stew King was spiked on the nose in a play at second. Bob Salvisberg of Burlington and Rick Repta of Campbellville were ejected and things soon cooled down. Lloyd Early took Repta's place at third.

Ralph Rintoul picked up the win as he held Preston to one run off two hits over five innings. He struck out five and walked four. In one and two thirds innings in relief, Harry Hamilton walked three. He had just been relieved by Roberts when the rain finished the game.

Preston took a 1-0 lead in the second inning. Doucet walked, stole second, went to third on an infield out and scored on an infield out. This lead held up until the fifth when consecutive singles by McPhail, Dennis and Griso loaded the bases. Rintoul grounded to short scoring McPhail but forcing Dennis at third. Preston tried to get Rintoul for a double play but failed and Griso came on to third from where he scored.

Larry McPhail led off the bottom of the sixth with a double and went to third when Bill Dennis singled. They then worked a double steal with McPhail scoring. A walk, Repta's single and another walk forced in a run to make it 3-1.

Henderson and Laigt singled for Preston, both in the third inning. Larry McPhail led the Campbellville attack with a double and two singles. Rick Repta, George Chester and Bill Dennis each hit two singles and Ralph Rintoul and Ray Griso singled once.

Some time ago we reported a duck shot down in Venezuela that had been tagged in the Lakehead harbour. On January 15, 1967 a blue-wing teal was downed southwest of Coronie Surinam. The tag was put on at the Lakehead on August 26, 1966.

Assuming the duck flew a straight course we estimate it was slightly over 3,000 miles from the banding location. Surinam is situated on the north east bulge of South America, on the Atlantic Ocean side. It lies between British and French Guiana and was formerly known as Dutch Guiana.

From 1964 to date 240 bands have been received. They came from 23 states ranging from Florida, Louisiana and Texas on the south to Wisconsin and Minnesota on the north, and from Alabama and Virginia on the east to Dakota on the west.

During 1964-66 the total number of ducks banded was 2383.

The total recovered represents 10 per cent and is considered a good recovery. The various species recovered were 146 Blacks, 59 Mallards, 24 Blue-Wing Teal, 14 Green-Wing Teal and 2 Pintail.

A problem that has been plaguing Hydro Commissions throughout Ontario is damage to insulators by hunters.

Some marksmen consider the shiny insulators at the top of hydro poles as ideal targets for practice. The annual damage toll in Ontario to hydro lines by hunters is $30,000.

The practice is very dangerous as it is not uncommon for the line to break when the insulator is shattered. This presents a danger of electrocution to people nearby and to the hunter himself. This also can be the cause of forest fires.

Last year in the Geraldton area 1600 customers were plugged into darkness and the radio station at Lindsay was out of commission due to a power failure resulting from this type of damage.

While the fine or imprisonment that may result upon conviction of malicious damage of this nature is not likely enough to deter these so-called sportsmen, it should be remembered by anyone tempted to use insulators as targets that this is a criminal offense and if caught they will have a criminal record for the rest of their lives.
