Fay Adams, William Moffat exchange wedding vows, rings

The color scheme was a summary white and yellow for the marriage of Fay Marie Adams and William Hodgson Moffat on June 17. The Rev. John May officiated at the ceremony in Trinity United Church, Acton, decorated with shasta daisies, white mums and yellow gladioli.

The bride wore traditional white and her attendants wore yellow.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Leonard Adams, 204 McDonald Blvd., Acton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grey Moffat, 526 Sherin Drive, Oakville.

The couple are living at 412 Valley Dr., Oakville, and the groom is employed at Lakeshore Die Casting.

The bride wore a white peau de soie gown with detachable train and lace jacket. Her shoulder-length veil was trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of regal gold yellow roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Adams gave his daughter in marriage.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Ellen Stow, Brantford, cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Miss Helen Becker, Oakville, cousin of the groom; Miss Mary Lou Moffat, Oakville, sister of the groom and Miss Pat Gowling, Milton, a friend of the bride. They wore floor-length gowns of yellow nylon over taffeta, with lace accenting the Empire waists. Their accessories were white and they carried cascades of shasta daisies. A cousin of the groom, Rose Anne Jacques, Oakville, was flower girl wearing a floor-length dress of white peau de soie and carrying yellow baby mums. Young ring bearer was Michael Becker, Oakville, cousin of the groom, who wore a powder blue jacket and dark trousers.

Keith Beauchamp, Oakville, was groomsman and the ushers were Robert Adams, Acton, brother of the bride, and Ronnie Verbeke, Oakville, cousin of the groom.

George Elliott played the organ, and Mrs. Brian Barbeau sang two solos.

After the ceremony the reception was held in Acton Legion Hall with guests attending from Oakville, Guelph, Brantford, Windsor, Willowdale, Owen Sound, Hamilton, London, Milton and Acton.

Mrs. Adams received wearing a blue dress with lace coat and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Moffat wore a turquoise lace coat over a matching dress and yellow carnations.

Grandparents of both were present.

The bride's mother made the wedding gown, and Mrs. Irene Hunter made the wedding cake.

The couple left on a trip to Buffalo, the bride wearing a turquoise suit with white gardenia.

Hostesses at showers for the bride-to-be were Mrs. Gilbert Jordan, Mrs. M. McDonough and Mrs. Z. Luty, Acton, who held a miscellaneous shower May 23; Miss Helen Becker, May 9 and Mrs. Doreen Becker, May 2.

Lloyd Lucas, Carol Freeman married in Ebenezer Church

Baskets of white chrysanthemums' and snapdragons decorated Ebenezer United Church on June 3 for the double-ring ceremony that united Carol Anne Elizabeth Freeman and Lloyd Arthur Lucas in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lucas of R.R. 1 Campbellville.

Bruce Jenkins of Oakville, a friend of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Ross Lucas, brother of the groom and Charles Stokes, brother-in-law of the bride.

The reception was held in the church parlor. The bride's mother received wearing a two piece ensemble of blue lace over taffeta and white accessories. The groom's mother received wearing a two piece aqua ensemble with matching accessories.

After the wedding a dance was held at Brookville Hall for friends and relatives. The couple left on a trip to Northern Ontario, the bride wearing a lime green two piece linen suit and white accessories with a white orchid corsage. They are making their home at R.R. 2 Rockwood.

Honored guests at the wedding were Nelson Anderson, grandfather of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Langevin of Hamilton, great aunt and uncle of the groom. Other guests were present from Burlington, Oakville, Milton, Dundas, Hespeler, Cheltenham, Rockwood, Acton and Campbellville.

A telegram was received from the groom's brother Erwin Lucas of Kobe, Japan.

Special events were held prior to the marriage. On April 3 Mrs. James Zehr held a linen shower. Mrs. Beatrice Fletcher assisted by Mrs. B. D. Young and Mrs. Stan Robinson held a paper and pantry shower on May 4. A miscellaneous shower was held May 8 at the home of Mrs. Doug Black of Guelph assisted by Miss Winifred Dunbar and Miss Mel-en Richardson, all friends of the bride. On May 11 Mrs. Wallace King assisted by her daughter Mrs. Lorne Colling held a miscellaneous shower. On May 26 the ladies of Ebenezer United Church held a miscellaneous shower in the church parlor. The ladies of the U.C.W. presented the bride and groom with a lovely Bible.

Rev. Walter Leeman officiated. Soloist, Mrs. Kenneth Griffiths of Lowville, sang "The Wedding Prayer", "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love" accompanied at the organ by James Zehr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly with lace bodice, sabrina neckline with long lily point sleeves. Panels of scalloped lace enhanced the front of the bouffant skirt. A waitau train flowed from tiny bows at the shoulders. It, too, was encircled by a wide border of lace.

A crown of seed pearls with crystal drops held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white bridal roses.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Doug Black of Guelph as matron of honor, Miss Winifred Dunbar of Campbellville and Miss Susie Richardson of Guelph as bridesmaids. They were dressed in formal floor length pink sheath gowns with empire bodices featuring an overlay of white Swiss lace, with brief sleeves. A panel of chiffon fell from a bow at the waist.

Pink crystal combs centred with a rose and tulle veils formed their headpiece. They carried a colonial bouquet of pink miniature roses and long velvet ribbon streamers.
