

MacDonald-Kierstead wedding at Eden Mills Pres. church

Bouquets of mixed summer flowers decorated Eden Mills Presbyterian Church for the July 22 wedding of Frances Elaine Kierstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Holmes of Campbellville and Russell Norman MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald of Eden Mills.

Rev. Donald R. Sinclair conducted the ceremony and Mrs. Wallace Lusty of Rockwood sang The Wedding Prayer and I'll Walk Beside You, accompanied by Mrs. D. Blacklock of Guelph.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was radiant in a traditional gown of white with a chantilly lace bodice, sabbina neckline and long lily point sleeves. The bouffant skirt had a wide border of lace at the hem-line and tiny bows enhancing its front and back panels. A shoulder-length, four tiered veil of tulle was held by satin rosebuds and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Gail Walker of Guelph was matron-of-honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Miss Janet Webb of Guelph and Miss Jean-Anne Bewley of Campbellville. The matron-of-honor was in a petal pink sheath with matching lace bodice and a panel of chiffon flowing from a bow at the back. The bridesmaids wore A-line gowns with ruby bodices and matching lace at the empire waists and the petal pink skirts. Panels of ruby chiffon fell from the waists. Their headresses were clusters of pink petals with tulle veils.

Arthur Brown of Rockwood was the best man. The ushers were Richard Kierstead, brother of the bride and Ralph MacDonald, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother received at the church hall wearing a white lace over lavender taffeta dress in an A-line style. The groom's mother was in a powder blue organza sheath with matching coat.

For a honeymoon to the Maritime provinces the bride wore a pink lace over taffeta dress trimmed with lace at neck and wrists.

The newlyweds will reside at R.R. 2, Guelph.

The wedding cake, decorated with pink and white roses and blue trim, was made by the groom's mother.

Lynda Varey, Colin Jennings married in ceremony at Knox

In a double-ring ceremony at Knox Presbyterian Church, Miss Lynda Grace Varey became the bride of Colin Edward Jennings.

Rev. Gordon Turner, heard the wedding vows uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lakonby, 290 Arthur St., Acton and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jennings, Norval.

Knox Church was decorated with pink and white carnations and mixed summer bouquets for the afternoon marriage. Guest organist, Dr. George Elliott of Trinity United Church, Acton, played the wedding music.

Mr. Lazenby escorted his step-daughter down the aisle. She wore a graceful floor-length gown of nylon net over satin, styled with a bouffant skirt and empire bodice. Appliques of lace and pearls accented the fullness of the skirt. The bodice featuring a scooped neckline and long lily point sleeves, was also trimmed with floral appliques.

A pearl tiara held the bride's four-ply elbow-length veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses white carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Henry Jones (nee Valerie Varey) of Guelph, attended her sister as matron of honor. Miss Nora Conrad of Willowdale, the bride's cousin was bridesmaid, and the flower girl was Miss Linda Mahoney of Brampton.

The senior attendants chose two-piece ensembles of flamingo lace over silk, street-length sheaths and three-quarter length coats, the lace coats fashioned with kimona sleeves and front bow openings. They wore white rose headresses, veil-trimmed and carried white carnations, Pinnocchio chrysanthemums and ivy.

The flower girl wore a white lace dress trimmed with front streamers. Her headress was a floral coronet, and she carried a basket of pink sweetheart roses.

Bert Jennings was his brother's groomsman. Ushering were Len Varey, the bride's brother and David Jennings, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lazenby chose a two-piece ensemble, crepe sheath and a sheer jacket in aquamarine, the jacket trimmed with matching appliques. She wore an ivory picture hat, matching accessories and a corsage of blended pink roses.

The groom's mother was in turquoise, crepe dress and matching three-quarter length coat of ribbon lace. White accessories and a corsage of tinted white carnations completed her ensemble.

Guests from Brampton, Willowdale, Puslinch, Georgetown, Scarborough, Toronto, Guelph, Hamilton, Limehouse, Galt, Kitchener, Moorefield, Silver Creek and Acton attended the church ceremony, and the reception in Acton Music Centre.

The hall was decorated with bouquets of pink and white carnations, mixed summer flowers and streamers.

Mrs. Henry Jones made her sister's three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with an arbor of flowers, and ring-bearing doves.

For travelling to Manitoulin Island, the bride wore a three-piece outfit, blouse, skirt and

District accidents result in injuries

When her car overturned near the third line railway crossing in Esqueving township, Mrs. Patricia Rody of Acton received minor neck injuries. Const. Ronald Hudd of the Milton C.P.P. investigated and estimated damage to the car at $1,800.

A second area accident on the weekend involved a collision at Crowsons Corners. Slight injuries were reported to a Kitchener couple, Mr. and Mrs. R. Stone. The driver of the other car was Raymond Ferrer of Nasagaweya township.

New lights for beach

A little more light on the subject resulted from the meeting of the Hydro Commission on Thursday, August 10. All commissioners were there to increase the town's wattage - chairman, Ted Tyler Sr., Mayor Les Duby, Doug Dawkins, Wilf McEachern and Orville Brown.

Two new mercury-vapor lights have been installed on Cameron Street.

A 400-watt light has been ordered to illuminate the swimming beach. Wattage of the light can be increased.

Ten new street lights have been installed on Elizabeth Drive, and the previous lights moved to the Crescent.

A primary line was restrung last Sunday on Queen St., resulting in power interruptions. The power cuts didn't last as long as they had been advertised.

Robert Leslie fills term School board

Eramosa Township School Board met in the board room at Rockwood Centennial School with all members present.

Robert Leslie was appointed a trustee to complete the unexpired term of Dr. Hilton who moved to Guelph. The Board decided to erect a fence at the Centennial School along Pasmore and Clara streets.

Other routine business was dealt with by the board members.

Lay charge

Police laid a charge Saturday evening when a car reportedly chasing a second car, struck a tree near the park entrance. A charge of careless driving was laid by Cons. Bob Hildreth.
