

BALLINAFAD

Girl's death, presentation accident, sale in area news

The community was saddened when they learned that Brenda Swindlehurst, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Swindlehurst, had been very badly hurt by her pony and passed away a short time later. Funeral service was held on Friday from Weddells Funeral Parlors, Erin. Sympathy is extended to the family.

A presentation was held in Ballinafad Community Centre on Friday night to honor Mr. and Mrs. John Lightle who were married recently. The evening was spent in dancing to music by Roman's Orchestra. Mr. Winters M.C. asked the bride and groom to come to the front when Mrs. Sincclair read an address. They were presented with a lovely kitchen set, a pole lamp and other gifts.

Nurse dispute goes to board

The conciliation board named to look into the Halton County Council-health nurses dispute has scheduled its first session August 31 in Toronto.

Judge Colin Bennett of Owen Sound, the chairman of the conciliation board, set the date. Two other men are on the board, one appointed by each side in the dispute.

Both Georgetown and Milton have run programs like this, arena manager Harold Townsley says, and the program is very popular.

There's roller skating from 7 to 9 and dancing from 9 to 11:45.

Flat cars loaded three layers deep with new cars have been passing through on the railroad.

This year is historic, in a way, for this is the last time grade 13 departmental examinations will be written by students. Next year, graduation results will be the sole responsibility of each high school.

Dance, roller skate to "live" music Sat.

An innovation for roller skaters this Saturday evening will be a combined program of roller skating and dancing to music. The same Georgetown band, "The Idea of March" will play for both parts of the program, and just one admission fee is charged.
