Katherine Kenny, Wm. Sanford exchange vows in Georgetown

At Holy Cross Church, Georgetown, at twelve o'clock noon on August 19, Katherine Mary Kenny and William Edward Sanford were married. Large baskets of white gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony, performed by the Rev. Z. Deroo and Canon J. Maxwell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kenny, 200 McDonald Blvd., Acton, and is a teacher in Toronto. The groom, a lab technician at Interchem Presslitz, Georgetown, is the son of Mrs. Edward Sanford and the late Mr. Sanford of Limehouse.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white A-line floor length gown of organza over taffeta with elbow-length sleeves, rounded neckline, and the bodice trimmed with Guipure lace. The cathedral train, attached at the neckline with a large organza bow, was also trimmed with Guipure lace. Her illusion fingertip veil was held by a double crown of Guipure lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of large red roses and stephanotis. She also wore an heirloom pink cameo ring, handmade by the groom's great-grandfather.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Lynne Robertson, Acton, a friend, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Pat Thompson, Glen Williams, cousin of the groom and Miss Sheila McSpurre, Toronto, a friend of the bride.

All three were dressed in Capri blue floor-length Empire waist gowns of chiffon over taffeta, with loose chiffon panels flowing from the back neckline. They wore matching petal and ribbon headpieces and veils and carried cascade bouquets of white shasta mums.

Flower girl was Maureen Chomica, Scarborough, a cousin of the bride, who wore a floor-length A-line gown of white peau de sole and carried a basket of red and white carnations. She wore matching red and white carnations in her hair.

Groomsman was Don Curry, Georgetown, a friend of the groom. Ushers were Bill Clark, Mimico and Gord Profit, Bramalea, friends.

Organist was Mrs. J. Roughley, Limehouse. The soloist, Mrs. A. Jennings, Georgetown, who sang I Love You Truly and O God of Loveliness. Mrs. Roughley played an organ selection, I'll Walk Beside You, before the wedding.

A reception followed the marriage at Terra Cotta Inn. The bride's mother wore a lime green brocade coat and dress ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother wore a sea blue crepe dress and jacket with silver metallic thread, with matching and white accessories and a corsage of Tallisman roses.

In the evening, there was an informal reception at the home of the groom's grandmother, Mrs. William Mitchell, Limehouse.

The couple left on a trip to Quebec, the bride wearing a light blue silk brocade dress and coat ensemble with black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Guests were present from Acton, Limehouse, Georgetown, Bramalea, Toronto, Clarkson, Guelph and Kitchener.

The couple are living in Stewartrivon.

A trousseau tea was held by Mrs. P. Kenny on Sunday, August 13. On the evening of the wedding, Limehouse friends and neighbours made a presentation of a livingroom chair, endtables, and mirror.

Follow teachers in Toronto held a miscellaneous shower in June for the bride-to-be. A miscellaneous shower was held by Mrs. Matt McDonough, Mrs. Lynne Robertson and Mrs. Wendy Andrews and another miscellaneous shower was hosted by Miss Pearl Scott and Mrs. Pat Thompson in Georgetown. A linen shower was held by Mrs. Ed Hefferman.

Do you know that Noah was the greatest financier that ever lived? He was able to float a company when the whole world was in liquidation.

NEW GARAGE & SHOW ROOMS (NEAR THE WATER TOWER)

This week marks two important milestones in the history of Andrew Murray Motors. It is the official opening of our new premises at 45 Mountainview Road South and first showing of the striking new Chevrolets and Oldsmobiles for 1968.

Our modern designed and completely equipped garage and body shop will enable us to provide a high standard of service in keeping with the quality of the automobiles and trucks we sell.

The entire staff join me in extending a most cordial invitation to come in and look us over. And we take this occasion to say a sincere "Thank You" to all our customers in Georgetown and District. Your increasing patronage through the years has made this growth and modernization possible.

Sincerely,
ANDREW MURRAY
