

Lonnie Marks, Archie Harkins wed at St. Joseph's Sept. 4

MR. AND MRS. Archie Harkins are living in Cooksville, after their marriage in St. Joseph's church. The bride is the former Lonnie Marks.

St. Joseph's church, Acton, was decorated with white gladiolas and fern for the marriage of Leona Theresa (Lonnie) Marks and Archie Harkins at 11 o'clock on Monday morning, September 4. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Father V. J. Morgan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Marks, 115 Mill St., Acton, and is employed at Orenda Limited, Malton. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Harkins, Port Credit, is employed at Salada Foods, Ltd. Toronto.

Miss Mulholland played the organ for the ceremony and Mrs. Ray Arbic sang Jesus My Lord, My God, My All; Mother All Beautiful and Only a Veil.

The lovely bride wore a gown of imported silk faille trimmed with lace daisies, with empire waist and cathedral train. A crystal tiara held her shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias, stephanotis and ivy.

She was given in marriage by her father.

The bride's two sisters were in the wedding party. The maid of honor was Mrs. Pauline Kent, a sister, and the bridesmaids another sister, Mrs. Marilyn Rupert, and a friend Helen Kent. They wore charming gowns of pale turquoise crepe in empire style, with matching coats of lace. They carried white shasta mums intermingled with blue pinocchio mums.

CEREMONY IN AUSTRALIA united Verity McIntosh, a former teacher at the Robert Little School here, and Mathias Matzoll. They honeymooned in Tahiti and are living in Sarnia.

Marlene Fuller, Robert Hanna exchange vows in Ospringle

Knox Presbyterian Church, Ospringle was decorated with pink and white bows and bouquets of white gladi with two candelabras gracing the front of the church, for the marriage of Miss Marlene Joy Fuller to Robert John Hanna.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fuller of Rockwood and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hanna of Fergus. Rev. D. J. Hardison officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line dress of peau de soie. The "V" neckline was applied in lace with seed pearls. Her headpiece was a pearl tiara with shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy and wore a pearl necklace, a gift of groom.

The maid of honor was Miss Gail Fuller of Rockwood, sister of the bride. She wore a gold street length dress with white lace on the bodice. Her head piece was a gold velvet bow with gold tulle. She carried a cascade of white shasta daisies with gold centres. Gold velvet ribbon was woven through them. Her shoes matched her dress.

The bridesmaids were Miss Linda Isatt of Pickering and Mrs. Florence Engelkrecht of Georgetown. They were gowned alike in green street length dresses with white lace on the bodices. They carried cascades of white shasta daisies with gold centres and gold velvet woven through them. The headpieces were green velvet bows with gold tulle. Their shoes matched their dresses.

Miss Kathy Fuller, cousin of the bride was charming in a gold dress the same as the maid of honor's. She carried a small cascade of white shasta daisies with gold centres. Her headpiece was a bow made of the same material as her dress with gold tulle. Her shoes matched her dress.

The best man was Elgin Curry of Georgetown, a good friend of groom. The ushers were Brian Fuller of Rockwood, brother of bride, and Ernest Hanna of Toronto, cousin of the groom. Master John Fuller was ring bearer for his sister.

At the reception held at the Erin Legion Hall the bride's mother received the guests in a two piece pale yellow dress with a mauve hat and bone colored shoes, purse and gloves. She wore a corsage of yellow Sweetheart roses. The groom's mother assisted in a two piece pale blue dress with a lace overcoat and white accessories. She wore a corsage of white mums.

For a honeymoon trip to Bermuda via New York, the bride wore a three piece double knit suit. It was brown in color and had a rust colored shell and hat, brown shoes, purse and gloves. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Guests were present from Acton, Burlington, Dundas, Barrie, Oshawa, Pickering, Oakville, Toronto, Fergus, Erin, Georgetown, Hornby, Brampton and Woodbridge. The newlyweds are living at R.R. 2, Elora.

MARLENE JOY FULLER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fuller of Rockwood became the bride of Robert John Hanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hanna of R.R. 2 Elora recently.

Matzoll-McIntosh wedding

A former teacher at the Robert Little school Verity Kathryn McIntosh and Mathias Henric Matzoll were married July 29 in St. Matthew's Anglican Church, Georgetown, Australia. The bride, who lived at 31 Yong St. while in Acton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntosh of Newcastle, New South Wales, Australia.

The groom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Matzoll, Vienna, Austria, lived at Main St., Georgetown, and was employed at Yoder of Canada, Georgetown.

The couple are living now in Sarnia and Mrs. Matzoll is teaching there.

The double-ring Nuptial Eucharist was celebrated by Rev. Gregory Holmes and Rev. Charles Taylor. Lily-of-the-valley and white gladioli decorated the pews.

The bride entered to the hymn Praise my Soul the King of Heaven and the bride and groom walked out to Purcell's Trumpet Voluntary.

The bride wore a full-length dress and coat of white crystal satin with Guipure lace appliques, with her full length veil held by two roses. Her bouquet was of white carnations. She wore an opal ring which belonged to her grandmother.

Her younger sister was her only attendant, wearing a full length gown of burgundy crepe with Empire waist and straight skirt, with pink shoes and gloves, and pink flowers in her hair and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Wal Snelson, fiance of the bridesmaid, was the groomsmen, and Paul Adcock was usher.

A wedding breakfast followed the marriage in St. Andrews Church Hall. The bride's mother wore a three piece suit of navy scrimplene with navy and white accessories and white flowers.

The couple left for Tahiti, the bride wearing a pale pink wool suit with white and pink accessories.

In June, a miscellaneous shower was held for the bride-to-be by Mrs. Bill Coats. Her sister held a kitchen shower in Australia, and a pre-wedding dinner there was hosted by friends.

Slight change

Miss Jill Hurst was enumerated in Acton, not her mother as reported last week. Mrs. Hurst is a deputy returning officer.
