Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards retire after 44 years as mail couriers

By Mrs. F. Taylor

H. Murray, district postal director from London, was present at Rockwood Post Office recently. The occasion was the retirement of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards as mail couriers on R.R. 5 Rockwood for the past 44 years.

A letter of merit was read by Mr. Murray and Rev. G. Dunlop and Mrs. Earl Osborne represented the families served for so many years by the couple.

Congratulations and best wishes were also sent by Eramosa's Reeve-Warden - Cameron Lush who had expected to be present but is at this time in Vancouver.

Envelopes of money were presented from the route families in appreciation of the couples' service over the years.

George Day, Rockwood postmaster also extended his congratulations and all expressed hope for many happy years of retirement for Mr. and Mrs. Edwards.

Bible presented to church as memorial to young girl

By Mrs. R. McEnery

Harvest is slowly getting finished although there are quite a few not finished. Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. J. Dunk and family of Erin in the sudden passing of Mr. Dunk following a car accident.

Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Davidson of Acton, Mr. and Mrs. Cochlan of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, called on Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McEnery last week. Communion service was held

In Ballinafad United Church on Sunday morning, Miss Ann Short-ill joined by profession of Faith. The Junior Choir sang. Mrs. Earnie McEnery at the organ. A Bible was presented to be used in Ballinafad Church by Girl friends of Brenda Swindlehurst as a memorial to her.

--Extended winter hours have begun at Beardmore and Co. The whistle sounds at 4:55 and 5 o'clock now, rather than 4:25 and 4:30.

CHURCHILL

McCullochs moving to town farm property split in lots

By Mrs. R.F. McArthur

Mr. and Mrs. James McCulloch have sold their home on No. 5 Sideroad, Erin Township, and are moving to Lakeview in Acton. Their many friends here will be pleased to learn they are not moving too far away.

Also the property across the road known as the late Fred Johnston home has been sold and has been divided into 10 acre lots and 10 acres on the same sideroad bordering the 3rd line is sold to the same people.

Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Storey and family of Orillia, spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W.J. McDonald and Gordon. Mrs. J.C. Wardlaw of Weston, and Mr. and Mrs. John Lantz, Lorie Lee and little Johnnie of Cooksville were visitors on Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. W.J. McDonalds.

Churchill friends are indeed sorry to hear Mrs. David Russell is a patient in Guelph General Hospital. Everyone hopes she's able to return home soon.

LIMEHOUSE

300 enjoy turkey dinner

By Mrs. A. Benton

About three hundred enjoyed turkey a-plenty with all the trimmings at the annual anniversary dinner served by the ladies of Limehouse Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening last week.

Mrs. M. Lima was hostess for a liquid embroidery demonstration at the home of her mother on Thursday evening.

We are pleased that Mr. Bob Lindsay is home and about following an operation in Georgetown recently.

Centennial service in United Church

By Mrs. F. Taylor

Rockwood United Church has planned their Centennial service for Sunday evening, October 22. Special speaker for the occasion will be a former pastor, Rev. J. Ewer Stewart of Safford. Guest soloist is Campbell McArthur of Guelph.

These special services through the Centennial year have been a real inspiration to all who have attended. A sincere invitation is extended to come and make those remaining a time of inspiration and fellowship.
