Visitor's room for Halton Manor gift of Dublin Women's Institute

Mrs. W. Frank was hostess to an enthusiastic meeting of the Dublin Women's Institute on the 19th.

The report by the secretary was heard by all the members present, that the ladies have presented Halton Manor with a cheque to furnish the new building with a visitors' room. The room is located near the entrance and will enable the residents to meet their visitors privately. A plaque will be placed on the door inscribed with the name of the donor - Dublin Women's Institute.

Notice was read concerning a course for those who wish to refresh their knowledge of baking. The school takes place at Brampton on Nov. 9 and 10.

"Fashion Cues", a dressmaking class, was slated for Dec. 5, open to all members and others interested. Place of meeting is to be announced later.

All members joined in singing

"A Song of Peace". Thought for the day, taken from a collection of Helen Hayes, was given by Mrs. G. Robertson.

An interesting collection of notes, concerning present day changes and trends in Education was read by Mrs. O'Gorman.

The meeting opened and closed in the usual manner: the Institute Ode, the Mary Stewart Collect, and God Save the Queen.

Mrs. D. Moffat thanked all who contributed to the program, including the Social Committee who served a bounteous lunch during which the ladies spent a pleasant time visiting with each other.

Ouwendyk-Mullen

Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church was decorated with candles and standards of white mums and green ferns for the September 30 candlelit, double-ring wedding of Bonnie Cheryl Mullen and Harry Ouwendyk.

Rev. D. Nicholson officiated at the ceremony with Mrs. R. Manes at the organ and the groom's sister, Miss Trudy Ouwendyk singing the Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ouwendyk of R.R. 3, Georgetown while the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Mullen of R.R. 1, Campbellville.

The bride wore a floor-length white gown with lace bodice and empire-waist skirt of chiffon over crepe. The train fell from a bow at the back.

She carried a Bible decorated with double mums with yellow centres, stephanotis and streamers. Her ruby pendant and earrings were a gift of the groom.

Maid-of-honor Beth Currie and bridesmaids Mae Britton and Linda Storey wore floor-length gowns of multi-colored flowers on a blue background. The material was chiffon over tafeta with blue accessories. They carried single mums with yellow centres.

Flower girl Wendy Britton, a cousin of the bride, wore a blue tulle dress with matching formal train and carried a basket of double mums with yellow centres.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Groomsman was Jim Mishak of Milton with Erwin and Johnnie Ouwendyk, brothers of the groom, Jim Mullen, brother of the bride and Richard Britton of Montreal, a cousin of the bride, acting as ushers.

Ringbearer was the bride's cousin, Russell Britton.

A wedding dinner was held at Mohawk Inn, Campbellville, with about 100 attending.

The bride's mother received in a pale blue metallic dress and matching lace coat, complimented by dark blue accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and stephanotis.

Receiving for the groom, his mother wore a plum-colored floral-print crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and stephanotis.

A dance was held at Brookville Hall following dinner.

For the honeymoon trip to New York State and Montreal, the bride wore a screen-printed silk dress of brown, green, blue and coral with a brown fur jacket and brown accessories. A coral corsage complimented the outfit.

Upon their return they took up residence in Milton.

Shower bride

Prior to her marriage to Harry Ouwendyk of R.R. 3, Georgetown, Bonnie Cheryl Mullen of R.R. 1, Campbellville was honored with a series of showers.

These included a miscellaneous shower hosted by a neighbor, Mrs. Pyatt; a china shower by her aunt, Mrs. Herd of Toronto; another miscellaneous shower by Mrs. T. Britton and Mrs. K. Parker. Other Miscellaneous showers were hosted by Mrs. Hamilton and Dawn Van Buskirk, maid-of-honor Beth Currie and Linda Storey and Mrs. McMillan.

Missionary work subject of meeting

Unit 2 of the U.C.W. met with Mrs. Veldhuis presiding and opened the meeting with one minute's silence in memory of the late Mrs. Wm. Evans, who was taken from their midst so suddenly the past week. The Lord's Prayer followed.

The U.C.W. Creed was repeated by all present and Miss Annie Atkins read the 24th Psalm. Mrs. Lambert's remarks were proof of how much we still depend on God in this world and on the power of prayer. Miss Dorothy Simmons sang the Hymn, Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling.

The sec's report was given and approved. The correspondence was read and dealt with. A letter of appreciation was read from Miss Bennett for her gift to the unit.

A letter from the Leper's Association asked to keep the used stamps coming in, three thousand dollars were realized from these stamps last year.

A letter from Rev. Bruce Eaton told how the money sent him had gone to help drill a well which would supply badly needed water for a hospital in India.

Mrs. Shoemaker gave her report on the sick and shut ins of the church.

Miss Simmons reported on cards for Mrs. McAuley. The Thankoffering meeting will be held Nov. 21st.

A workshop meeting is to be held in the church Oct. 24 in the afternoon. The Unit Meeting for Nov. will be held on the 2nd Tuesday, Nov. 14 instead of Nov. 21. A pot luck supper is to be held for all groups on Wed. Dec. 13.

Mrs. Force took as her study the life work of Dr. Darby at Bella Bella, B.C. He sailed up and down three hundred miles of rugged coast lines for over twenty-five years. He gave his all, not only as a missionary but as doctor, dentist in fact, man of all trades to all and sundry. This was very interesting to hear.

Roll call was answered by each one giving an article for a baby's layette for overseas where the need is so very great.

Collection was taken and the meeting closed with Mirzaph benediction and a social half hour was spent over lunch.

Some of the public school students who are going on the UNICEF walkathon say Expo was good practice... and that Miss Risborough was the best walker of them all!

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Sinclair and daughter Gina visited in Acton and attended Baptist anniversary services.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson visited with relatives in Beeton recently.

Mrs. Jack Chapman Sr. is a patient in Guelph General hospital.

Friends and neighbours will regret to learn that Mrs. Johnny Grahah is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Joanne Landsborough, a student of Waterloo University spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Landsborough, Lake Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J.G. Taylor of London and Mrs. E. Henson of Lucan were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson.

Mrs. F. Edwards hostess to W.I.

The Nassagaweya Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Fred Edwards on October 18, with a good attendance of members. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. D. DeBlaw and was opened with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call was answered by members stating the birth place of their ancestors. Business was dealt with during which it was decided to have a euchre party in November at the home of Mrs. H. Price, the families to be invited.

The program convener, Mrs. A. Norrish, as part of the theme of Citizenship and Education read an interesting article on "The Inefficiency of Waste". Many instances of waste were cited - one being the number of large high-powered cars carrying one person - the driver, or at best, two people.

The members were called in turn to tell in what way they considered themselves most wasteful. Time seemed to be the most wasted commodity - looking for articles put away too carefully or not put away at all, also the opportunities we waste in not doing things when the opportunity arises and sometimes losing the chance entirely.

Mrs. Henry read an amusing poem "The General Store", and two contests were conducted by Mrs. Norrish, winners being Mrs. Vera Cockram and Mrs. Thomas Amos. Lunch was served by the hostess and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all.

BRIEFS

Start saving your pennies for the UNICEF boxes on Halloween!

Daylight Saving Time began April 30, and it's over next Sunday.

About 50 boys and girls are taking accordion lessons at the Y.M.C.A. two nights a week.

No sweepstakes winners in this area. There was one minor winner in Guelph and another in Fergus.

Children of the community will be sharing their fun this Halloween with youngsters around the world by collecting coins for UNICEF as well as treats for themselves; thus bringing the benefits of food and medicine to thousands. Just 1¢ means 6 large glasses of milk; 5¢ means penicillin to cure two children of yaws; 10¢ means antibiotics to cure one child of trachoma; 25¢ means BCG vaccine to protect 20 children against tuberculosis.

Lt. Col. the Rev. J. Anderson guest speaker

The members of Knox Presbyterian W.M.S. welcomed a former Minister, Lt. Col. The Rev. J.M. Anderson, of Oakville as guest speaker for their Fall Thankoffering meeting on Thursday, Oct. 12. He was accompanied by Mrs. Anderson who was greeted by many old friends during the afternoon.

Mr. Anderson, who serves both his God and his country has travelled to many places in his military capacity. He chose to tell of his sojourn in India and showed slides of the country.

His opinion is they could grow enough food to feed their people. There is a lot of land not cultivated. The pictures were of the hospitals and many places where our missionaries are working and very interesting to our ladies.

He met the crippled Dr. Mary Verghese, who met with an accident that keeps her in a wheelchair-but despite this makes her visits to the hospital daily. Many of our members have read the book "Take My Hands" which is a story of her life, loaned by Miss Charlotte Moore. The informal and dry humour, with the Scottish accent, well remembered of the speaker, was really enjoyed by those present.

The president, Mrs. Fred Anderson, presided for the meeting and chose the poem "The Painter's Visit" in appreciation for the beauty of our country at this season of the year, followed by all joining to sing Praise God from whom all Blessings Flow. The Worship Service theme, "Why do we give thanks?" was presented by Mrs. Wm. McIntyre reading a lesson from Phillipians the 4th chapter. Miss Isabel Anderson gave the meditation and Mrs. Griffin Sprowl led in a prayer.

Miss Bella-Maye Roszell rendered a solo The Hymn of Thanksgiving. Worship service was concluded with hymn Jesus Master whom we Serve.

Mrs. O. Moran and Mrs. R. Algie provided music and accompanied the soloist and hymns with piano and mandolin.

Mrs. A.M. McPherson expressed the appreciation to Mr. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson for their presence and interesting message. She said it was nearly 20 years since they had left but there were many still around who remembered them. They were pleased to have guests from local Baptist and United Churches and also Georgetown W.M.S.

Meeting closed with hymn "All the way My Saviour Leads Me", and Rev. A.H. McKenzie pronounced the benediction.

Mrs. McLeod and her helpers served lunch and a period of social fellowship was enjoyed.
