STRIKES

At Youth Bowling Council by Jackie Palmer

Things were pretty hot this week with Ken Marshall hitting the big time, getting six strikes in a row with a final game of 317. Nice bowling Ken. As most of you know by now that our bowlers are selling chocolate bars for the purposes as follows:

- To set up a scholarship fund for the winners of the Provincial Y.B.C. Championships.
- To help defray the cost of sending the provincial championships to the National Championships. So good luck fellow bowlers in the category of salesmanship.

Acton Bowling Lanes would like to welcome four new bowlers in our Y.B.C. In the Bantam Division the brothers Cole, Steven and Vaughn. In the Junior and Senior Division, Rosalind Hall and Denise Drinkwater. Good luck and good bowling to you all.

It seems that again this year we have a few bowlers on the sick list. Patricia Sampson with her smiling personality was missed by the Unknowns. The Hippiess of course are still waiting for George Adams to get the cast off that broken ankle and return to the world of bowling.

In the Bantam Division the Monkeys took two games off the Mice. The Gophers took one game and total pins from the Dogs. The Cats defeated the Slunks on one game and took totals as well.

The ten top bowlers were: Wade Knight 125-185 (310), Janet Storey 140-165 (305), Wendy Lawrence 118-133 (251), Barry Payne 101-147 (248), Ronnie Turkosz 128-120 (248), Colin Price 107-136 (243), Gord McConnell 144-77 (221), Jim Dewilde 109-89 (198), Jan Krapek 112-85 (197), Carol Grant 80-110 (290).

55th wedding anniversary for Mr. Mrs. Roy Carter

Rev. Russel Finley's sermon was based on the twelfth chapter of Paul's letter to the Romans. These brand new Christians needed advice. Religion is like the two sides of a coin, one is belief, the other is behavior. Too often religion emphasizes the negative. Mark Twain said he didn't worry about the parts of the Bible he didn't understand; it was the parts which he did understand that gave him the most trouble.

To dedicate, or give ourselves to God unselfishly, is a transforming experience. God does not desire a demonstration such as making a human torch of oneself to show ones objection to something. We should give our bodies as a living sacrifice.

Years ago, Joseph Scriven came out from Ireland and worked as a private tutor to a wealthy family near Port Hope. He saved his money and sent for his bride. However, the ship on which she was coming went down with all on board. In his sorrow and grief Joseph Scriven wrote a letter to
