Headpin Hillies

We acknowledge the apology of the McNabb in his Sports Spot column last week and we have this to say, -- it takes a big man to admit his mistakes and so, in view of this, the McNabb can stand tall in his boots -- congratulations are in order to Ernie Lawson of the Sports Corner Major League team. Ernie joined the Ancient and Fraternal Order of Proud Fathers with the arrival of a son -- registrations are now being accepted for the C.O.B.A. 240 and 180 average handicup tournament. Steve Blanchard and Earl Middleton have the information on this and league secretaries can contact either one for same -- agent Jackie Palmer's remarks on the chocolate bar selling campaign in progress for the Youth Bowling Council. This campaign does many important things. It encourages the children to assist the Y.B.C. It provides merchandise prizes for their individual efforts. It provides the funds to ensure our province's participation in the National Youth Championships. It sets up a Scholarship Fund for the Y.B.C. members in our province. It allows "Bowling" to be the only sport that can operate a local, provincial or national program without the financial assistance of provincial or federal grants -- that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios amigos, happy birthday Shaun and goodnight Daly City.

4-H Snuggle Bugs at work meeting

The Acton 4-H Snuggle Bugs have now completed their fourth meeting. Last week two of the members were not present so a work meeting was held. The girls did a lot of work on their books and also their night apparel.

All have finished cutting out their patterns and a few have their garments near completion. At the last meeting Mrs. Lynch and Mrs. McNaughton showed how to do different seams and several stitching methods. Everyone found this interesting.

Books are going to have black plastic covers this year. Some have finished the printing for the cover and also have their "snuggle-bug" made.

When the home economist comes to the next meeting they hope that she'll be pleased with their work.

North Halton O.S.S.T.F. elect P. Martindale head

Thomas Campbell, assistant to the Deputy Minister of Education, spoke on trends in education to members of the North Halton branch of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation recently in Georgetown.

Retiring president, M.T. Ramnarsingh of Georgetown, was dinner chairman. He was presented with a gavel by Mrs. M. Povys as a token of appreciation.

A new executive headed by P. Martindale of Acton was installed by Mr. Richardson. The executive includes president Mr. Martindale; Mrs. M. Povys, Milton, first vice president; A. Truscott, Erin, second vice president; David Meaking, Georgetown, third vice; and Miss E. Carey, Georgetown, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. M. Richardson brought greetings from the provincial office of the Ontario Federation and spoke of the exciting developments to challenge teachers in the coming year. A number of resolutions were discussed and passed at the meeting.
