Boardroom

Nov. 6: "Mighty Oaks from little acorns grow," or something. Anyhow it was a red letter day for the Oaks. Paced by Mike Churchill 633, Jane McCrea 604, John Dennis 512, Helen LeSueur 201, Tinnie Masales 206 and Frank Head 209, Oaks made a triple win at the Hipple's expense. Hipple's made a bid for the second canto but missed out by 5 pins. Best in Hipple's efforts were, Arlie White 681, Jake VanderKooij 247 and Bill Fabian 211. Supers were siped up when they met up with Uppers, they won 'em all with Phil LeSueur 733, Dennis Crooks 655, John Constantine 615 and Dave Shannon 204 tripling and singling. Trying to stem the tide to no avail for Uppers, Earl West 602, Ed Parent 203, Ray Atkinson 200-205, Tom Shannon 213 and Helen Yatsman 212. Finishers cooled off the league-leading Hot Shots and replaced them in the top spot when they wound up with all games to their credit. Everybody got into the Finishers' winning act, Don Harris 781 (300), John Churchill 746, Millie Fabian 668, Helen Fowler 600, Lyle Cripps 211, Howie Jank 207, Ron McCachern 244 and Reg Dunk 204-207. Nov. 7: Snap Dragons are still snapping off the wins. They took all games from Water Lillies with Norma Titus 589 (223), Verma Tutton 557 (235) and May Wilds 479 sparking the win. Betty Hardie 564 (206), Wannetta Smith 531 (233), Ruth Archibald 485 and Agnes McGinnis 457 (222). Guess the swing shift paid off, eh gals? Ella May Milne 474, Betty Ferguson 463 and Edna Dobble 438 topped the Sweet Peas' trundling. Patson Ivys were poison as far as Roses were concerned. The Ivys making with a two and totals win. Sylvia Mages 590 (249), Mary Anderson 512 (203) and Carline (pardon my sudden accent) Williamson 403 were top triplers for the winners. plateaus for Hipple's. Earl Middleton 609, Karen Jenkins 213 and Stu McConnell 208 were up there for the Seven. Cannon's remained in a tie for first when, after losing the first game to Road Runners, bounced back to annex the next two and totals. Jim Bullough 825 (353), Pete Homer 747 and George Williamson 653 were top trio on the totem pole for Allan's. "Spike" Scott 754 (370), Keith Andrews 600 headed up Misfits efforts. A-B Supermarket won a close first game from Reliable Taxi by 37 pins. Took a bit of a setback in the second then rallied to grab the finale but were shy 18 pins of annexing the singleton for totals. Ken Hulford 655, Harry Phelan 627 and Bob Martin 608 were the triplers for A-B. Larry Nolan 729 and Jack Dunn 622 had 'em for Reliable.

League standing: Masson Motors 43, Allan's Collision 40, A-B Supermarket 31, Reliable Taxi 26, Misfits 12, Fill-ins 9.

Acton Ladies

Nov. 8: Cannon's replaced Nielson's Clothing in the top spot when they handed said Nielson's a three game defeat. Alice Hatfield 609 (217), Jean Smith 578 (219) and Kitty Allen 533 (222) sparred Cannon's win. Fran Pierce 540, Ina Mellon 527 and Lila Atkinson 524 (212) were best for the losers. Ledger's L.G.A. hung onto their second place spot when they took two and totals from Family Store. The Family Store gals spoiled L.G.A.'s chances of taking over first place when they won the last canto by 19 pins. Shirley Rosenbersky 545 (213), Grace Robertson 499 (203) and Muriel McCutcheon 479 were top trio for L.G.A. For Family Store it was Ann Greenfield 527, Marry Skirrow 488 and Joyce Pickles 403. Central Cartage were an 8 pin winner in the first against Acton Jersey Dairy. They squeezed out a second game win by 2 pins then got clobbered but good in the third and dropped the odd point for totals. Nov. 9: Go-Gos couldn't get going after winning the first from Monkeys and dropped two and totals. The results put Monkeys in first place. Marion Elliott 506 (300), Helen Bittorf 453 and Mary Campbell 396 paced the win. Agnes Holmes 430, Eunice Metcalf 428 and Rose Priest 305 topped Go-Gos' trundling. Swingers couldn't swing it and it was a three game win for Black Cats with Marnie Allan 467, Mary Dally 462 and Joyce Adams 401 heading up the win. Verna Arbie 537 (214), Hanna Cleland 436 and Gwen Dawe 377 had top triconts for Swingers.

League standing: Monkeys 29, Black Cats 28, Swingers 25, Go-Gos 16.

Norm's Barber Shop hit the win trail in a big way and won 'em all from Reliable Taxi with Bob Turkoz 733, Bill Shannon 639 and Wilo Near 694 leading the bit parade. After taking it on the chin from Dominion Hotel in the first two games Acton Lanes stopped their losing streak at five games by winning a cliff-hanging third game by 2 pins. Needless to say, the boys from the Dominion had no trouble in picking up the singleton for totals. For clarification we beg to inform the uninformed that the Sports' Corner Mixed League, bowling at 9 pin embo, Tuesday nights, is the old Micro Plastic league. Seems as if the founding fathers, Micro Plastic bowed out from the sponsorship and Roy Goodwin's Sports' Corner took over said sponsorship. The information comes from the usual reliable source* courtesy of the S.R.E.M. broadcasting station — if General John Oosterhof of the Big Four league cares to contact us we will be pleased to return his EI Products. We have no use for them, they're not our brand — entries continue to come in for the C.O.B.A. 180 and 240 and under handicap tournament. Deadline for entries are Nov. 25 for the 180 and Nov. 26 for the 240 — in case our Y.B.C. Press Secretary, Jackie Palmer didn't mention it, last Saturday was bowling shirt day for the Y.B.C. ers. Unfortunately all sizes were not available but the sizes have all been taken and them that didn't get, will get, just as soon as the shirts arrive — that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios amigos and goodnight Daily City.

League standing: Tag Team 27, Flukes 26, Allouettes 28, Hipple's 24, Wildcats 23, Fantastic's 21.

Big Four

Nov. 10: It wasn't Father's Day but it was certainly Father's night, they walked Expos for all three games. Jake VanderKooij 686 (253), Jules Fryters 671 (241), Dolf van Arragon 669 (272) and John Oosterhof 612 tripled and singled for the Fathers. Harry Hofstede 661 (255), John Vlietstra 568 (264) and Rink Vlietstra 516 (202) along with Joe Hofstede 224 tripled and singled for Expos. There were shrieks of jubilation when Centennials handed the Emblems a three game defeat and although the second game was a squeaker, 11 pins decided it, the all-gal Centennial team can be justly proud of handing the league-leading Emblems a setback. Emmy Fryters 576 (260), Martha Oosterhof 525 (215), Trudy Hofstede 498 (201) and Lynda Ensing 205 were on the triple and single plateaus for Centennials. Making their weary way up to the triple plateau for Emblems were Harry Ensing 522 (228), Harry Barry 495 and Joe Louwers 490.

League standing: Emblems 36, Fathers 29, Expos 28, Centennials 19.

It's great to say that the former Y.B.C. bowlers are making their mark in the bowling world. For instance, ex-Y.B.C. bowler, Bob Turkoz, who now bowls in the Acton Major League, cracked a 375 single last Saturday afternoon. Being open bowling, it's not official but it surpasses the Bowling Lanes official high single 371, held by Ray Atkinson. "Youth must be served," especially if its a Y.B.C. bowler or in this case, a former Y.B.C. bowler. Nice bowling, Bob!

I am again happy to announce the two new bowlers in our Junior and Senior Division. Mel Jansen and Craig Perkins. Just as a comment I would like to say how pleased I am to see as many bowlers this year in our three divisions.

In the Bantam division the Gophers won both games off the Monkeys. The Skunks wiped the Mice for two games. The Dogs took one game and total pins from the Cats. Wade Knight 139-176 (315); Colin Price 150-135 (285); Barry Payne 133-140 (273) C. Norrie 169-99 (268), Chris Tenand 158-109 (267), W. Lawrence 137-109 (246), B. McCallum 151-89 (240), Rommie Turkoz 139-98 (237), Janet Storey 112-123 (235), J. McConnell 116-108 (224).

The Coca-Cola Reinharts, Seven-Up pop winners were: Cindy Norrie, Blair McCallum, Wendy Lawrence and Vaughn Cole.

In the Junior and Senior Division the ten top bowlers were: Wayne DeForest 593 (254), Gary Turkoz 551 (223), Larry DeForest 543 (210), Bob McCallum 540 (217), Jackie Palmer 532 (233), Henry Toebes 522 (192), Gord Morris 519 (187), Lynda Harris 482 (203), Gary Price 479 (167), Kevin Perkins 477 (165).

League Standings: Y.B.C. Bantams: Skunks 23, Gophers 21, Cats 20, Dogs 17, Monkeys 16, Mice 8. Y.B.C. Jr. and Sr: Unknowns 37, Hipple's 35, Phycos 33, Hotstuffs 20, Kooks 16, Swingers 6.
