

Ruth Coles, Jas. Anderson wed in autumn ceremony at Knox

A lovely autumn wedding was solemnized in Knox Presbyterian Church at 5 p.m. on Saturday, October 7, when Ruth Joanne Coles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coles of R.R. 2, Acton, became the bride of James Anderson of Uxbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Glasgow, Scotland.

Bouquets of white chrysanthemums with tinted foliage decorated the platform of the church. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of "Praise My Soul, the King of Heaven". The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a formal ensemble of white organza and lace. Her sleeveless empire gown was styled with an A-line skirt and the coat had a lace bodice and organza skirt edged with a border of lace which flowed into a chapel train. A cluster of satin roses and leaves held her shoulder length illusion veil with scalloped edge. She carried a bouquet of orchid and white shasta mums.

Miss Annie Coles, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Carolyn Coles, also the bride's sister and Miss Valerie Coles, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in floor-length gowns of fuchsia with velvet bodices and elbow sleeves and a satin waistband at the empire waist. The sheath skirt of matching chiffon had a softly gathered overskirt. They wore veils of matching tulle with velvet roses and leaves and carried bouquets of white and mauve shasta daisies.

David Cray of Uxbridge was groomsmen and ushers were Bruce Coles, brother of the bride, and William Hudson of Uxbridge.

Rev. Stuart B. Coles of Toronto, uncle of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. A.H. McKenzie of Knox Church.

The bride's uncle E.A. Hansen played the wedding music and following the marriage vows, the congregation joined in singing a prayer of blessing "O Perfect Love."

During the reception which followed in the A.C. Stewart Memorial Hall, Howard Coles, the bride's uncle, was master of ceremonies. David Cray read several telegrams of congratulations to the bride and groom including one from the groom's parents in Scotland.

Mrs. Coles received the guests wearing a royal blue silk knit suit with gold and black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. Dannie Opperman of Toronto in a navy suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

For travelling the bride chose a camel hair suit with green velvet hat and brown accessories. Following their wedding trip to Washington, Williamsburg and New York the bride and groom are residing in Uxbridge.

Guests were present from Alberta, Saskatchewan, North Bay, Uxbridge, Toronto, London, Kitchener, Rockwood and Acton.

Prior to their marriage several presentations and showers were held in their honor.

Friends and neighbors of the Bannockburn community, as well as relatives, held a presentation and shower in Ballinacreef Hall.

Knox Church choir, of which the bride is a former member, sang in the Mary Blue Anderson room of the church for a presentation.

The staff of Uxbridge public school, where the bride teaches, held a miscellaneous shower and the young couple were also honored at a shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hudson of Uxbridge.

Following their marriage the bride and groom were guests at a party held in their honor at the home of Mrs. Cray and her son, David Cray, in Uxbridge.

Wedge-Feenstra wedding vows said in Trinity church Nov. 4

Trinity United Church was decorated with white and pink mums, with bows on the pews for the November 4 wedding of Greta Feenstra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Feenstra, Mill St. West, to Clifford George Wedge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wedge, Main St. South.

Rev. Gordon Turner officiated at the double-ring ceremony with Dr. George Elliott as organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely in a full-length "peau-de-soie" gown with matching train, empire waistline and a scoop neckline. Her head-dress, a cluster of white roses, held a four-tiered veil of illusion net. She carried a white Bible with red roses and Stephanotis.

Miss Marlee McSwain was maid of honor. Mrs. Jack Lanthier, sister of the bride and Mrs. Brian Combe, both of Burlington were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in floor-length dresses of Pelican Pink featuring Empire waistlines and matching trim on the sleeves of maribou fur.

Their headresses were tiaras and they carried bouquets of white and peacock pink carnations.

Philip Wedge acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Wayne Gordon, cousin of the groom, and Oscar Feenstra, brother of the bride.

At the reception for 130 guests at the Legion Hall, the bride's mother received wearing a walking suit of turquoise and silver brocade with matching accessories; and a corsage of pink carnations.

The groom's mother assisted wearing a sheath dress of flowered blue with matching coat and navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

For a honeymoon trip to Ottawa and other points, the bride wore a two piece suit of red velvet with black accessories and a corsage of white garrons.

The newly-weds reside at 129 Mill St. West, Acton.

Special guest Mrs. Gladys Wedge grandmother of the groom attended the wedding with guests from Brantford, Erin, Sarnia, Burlington and Acton.

The bride carried the white Bible of the groom's late grandmother, Mrs. Morris Gordon, and the wedding cake was made by Mrs. Sheila O'Rourke.

Prior to her marriage the bride was honored at a presentation from her co-workers at the A-B Supermarket. She received a floor polish and a Blue Mountain pottery ash tray.

Mrs. George Currie and Mrs. Freda Gordon held a pantry shower at her home on Bower Ave. Mrs. C. Shultz and Mrs. D. Matheson

Mrs. Joe Hofstede of Acton and Mrs. Jack Lanthier and Mrs. Brian Combe of Burlington also held a miscellaneous shower for the bride.

Cancer Society officers retain same positions

On Thursday evening a meeting of the executive of the Acton Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society met at the home of Mrs. R. Arbic. It was unanimously agreed that each officer retain the same office for the coming year.

The treasurer's report was read and all agreed that the budget for the coming year needed to be increased since "Service to Patients" costs had shown some increase and also some new dressing supplies were needed.

Although no one from the executive had been able to attend the regional meeting in Brampton this month a complete report of the year's work was sent. The executive was very pleased to receive a personal letter of commendation from Maurice Grimes the Field Director, regarding the report.

Suggestions for program activities for the coming year were discussed and the executive are looking forward to another year of continued co-operation of all in the area to assist them in their program of care and control of cancer.

Mrs. Coats (853-2225) and Mrs. Arbic (853-0744) will be pleased to discuss any problems or offer information if anyone cares to phone them.

Many winners named at Lakeside bazaar

Lakeside chapter of the I.O.O.F.'s annual Christmas bazaar was well-attended Saturday afternoon in the Legion Hall.

The event was again very successful financially. Many articles were sold and draw tickets had been sold in advance.

All friends and former pupils have been cordially invited to attend.

Conference

Weekends of prayer, conferences and discussions for single girls in this district are being conducted at Mount Cenacle Retreat House, 88 Fenell Ave. W., Hamilton on December 8, 9, 10.

Rev. J. Hagarty, S.J. will conduct the weekend.

RUTH COLES AND JAMES ANDERSON were married at Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton, on October 7 by Rev. S. B. Coles and Rev. A. McKenzie. (Holton Photo, Shelburne)

Pioneer cemetery gateposts completed

Mrs. G. S. Matthews was hostess to the November meeting of the Bannockburn Women's Institute. Mrs. C. Sinclair presided and the meeting opened with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect.

The roll call was most interesting when the members told of a special flower they had grown this summer.

The committee in charge of the Centennial project reported the stone gate posts at Pioneer Cemetery were completed. Arrangements are now to be made to purchase letters for an archway.

Mrs. C. Sinclair reported on the Area Convention she had attended recently in Guelph.

Mrs. Harris of Georgetown put the meeting in the Christmas mood with a film "Holiday with Flowers." She gave a demonstration on making floral arrangements. These were later raffled off. Winners were Mrs. G. S. Matthews, Mrs. Fred Brooks, Mrs. G. Stevens, Mrs. R. Lindsay, Mrs. W. Linham.

At the close of the meeting lunch was served by Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Lindsay and the hostesses.

Golden Age rhythm band big hit

The fifth Annual Rally of Zone 13 of the United Senior Citizens of Ontario was held in Holy Cross Parish Hall, Georgetown on Wednesday, Nov. 22 with all 10 Clubs represented. Total attendance was 275 and they assembled before 12 noon.

Mr. Allen, president of the Georgetown Club welcomed all members then introduced Father Oger Devent who also welcomed the Rally to his church, then gave the grace and led in the Lord's Prayer. After lunch, the Zone President, Mr. Thos. Bradley of Milton welcomed the assembled Clubs.

Mrs. Bradley, Zone Secretary, called the Roll. Mr. Davidson answered for Acton Club which had 27 persons there.

Mr. Allen then introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Harold Llewellyn who spoke very fittingly. A reading by a member of Burlington Club followed. Mrs. Coe, President of Oakville Club led the Oakville Jubilee Singers in several selections - Shortening Bread, Golden Slippers, Moonlight Bay and Auld Lang Syne. Mrs. Kee, of Georgetown gave two readings - "The Beauty Contest" and "The Master's Touch".

Mrs. May, President of Streetville Club introduced Mr. and Mrs. Houston, two of their new members, recently moved from Scotland who sang a couple of humorous duets with action.

A talented couple from Bronte, no longer young, played several lovely duets on the piano and were well applauded for their musical ability, which was quite wonderful, especially considering their years. Mr. Fellows introduced Mrs. Richardson, secretary, also pianist for Aldershot club and a sing-song followed, led by Mr. Soles of the Recreation Committee.

The Milton Rhythm Band, accompanied by Piano, violin, and banjo performed several numbers - Road to the Isle, Mocking Bird Hill. Then their quartette sang "How Great Thou Art" with all joining in the chorus.

Mr. Davidson, president of Acton Golden Age Club, introduced their number - the Rhythm Band, with Mrs. Bradshaw at the piano and led by Mrs. Cossar. They performed each number on their various instruments then sang it with the audience joining lustily in the chorus. Old Blue Bonnet, Mocking Bird Hill and the Bells of St. Mary's.

The ladies were dressed in their centennial costumes, the men with white shirts and black bow ties. (Mr. Davidson wore his swallow tail coat also).

Judging by the tremendous applause, this was the highlight of the program even though several of the usual performers were ill and two recently called home to their reward.

Mr. Wm. Fellows, vice-president was courtesy convener and thanked all who took part.

Rev. Llewellyn returned to the stage and reported that he had just visited Robert McEmery in the Georgetown Hospital and found him improving. Then he closed the rally with a comforting prayer, followed by all singing "The Queen."

Those who wished were led on a tour through the beautiful new church before leaving for home.
