IN MEMORIAM

DUNN—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Florence Dunn, who passed away December 19, 1963. God took her home, it was His will, But in our hearts, she liveth still.

Ever remembered by her son Fred, daughter-in-law Betty and their family. a25-296

HARRIS—In loving memory of a dear mother, Georgina, who passed away December 27, 1964.

When ties of love are broken, Loved ones have to part, It leaves a wound that never heals, In an ever aching heart, A precious one from us has gone,

A voice we loved is stilled, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled, Always remembered by her daughter Melissa. a25-877

HARRIS—In loving memory of a dear grandmother, Georgina Harris, who passed away December 27, 1964.

When evening shades are falling, And we sit in quiet alone, To our hearts there comes a longing,

If she only could come home, Friends may think we have forgotten, When at times they see us smile, But they little know the heart-ache,

Our smiles hide all the while, Always remembered by her granddaughter Georgina. a25-878

CHURCHILL

Donations for fire victims White Gift service in news

(Intended for last week) by Mrs. R. McArthur

The regular monthly meeting of the U. C. W. was held in Churchill Church vestry on Wednesday afternoon with a fair attendance. Mrs. A. Winter was hostess in the absence of Mrs. F. Freeman.

The President Mrs. W. Thompson chaired the meeting and opened with a poem "A Christmas Song." Mrs. V. Stephen gave the devotions, topic — "Living one day at a time," scripture Luke 2, verse 11.

A number of Christmas carols were sung. Mrs. J. McGeachie and Mrs. W. Middleton, guests of Mrs. Thompson's, visited from Acton group and gave a demonstration on things needed for leprosy patients which was very interesting and helpful.

A miscellaneous shower was held and a nice amount of useful things handed in to be taken to the Gallas family who lost all in the fire which destroyed the farm house on the 5th Line, Erin township.

The slate of officers for 1968 was read by Mrs. F. Thompson as follows: president, Mrs. R. Denny; 1st vice pres., Mrs. W. Swackhamer; secretary, Mrs. R. Saunders; treasurer, Mrs. F. Freeman; pianist, Mrs. F. Thompson; press reporter, Mrs. F. MacArthur.

Visiting com., Mrs. E. Leitch, Mrs. H. Griffin, Mrs. V. Stephen, Mrs. A. Winter and Mrs. F. MacArthur; work com., Mrs. D. Williamson, Mrs. L. Stokov, Mrs. F. Freeman and Mrs. L. Swackhamer.

Social com., Mrs. L. Swackhamer, Mrs. W. Thompson and Mrs. A. Winter; Christian Education Mrs. R. Saunders and Mrs. F. Thompson; program com., Mrs. W. Thompson, Mrs. W. Swackhamer and Mrs. D. Williamson.

Mrs. Stephen thanked Mrs. W. Thompson for her two years leadership as president and the work she had put in the meeting. Lunch was served by Mrs. Winter, Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. W. Swackhamer and a social half hour spent.

Three celebrants joined forces to blow out candles at a birthday dinner last Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner for their daughter Julian celebrating her first birthday, son David, five years and Mrs. Turner's mother, Mrs. J.J. Julian of Malton.

In spite of the bad weather a good number attended the White Gift and Candle Light Service held Sunday evening in Churchill Church. It was a lovely service with the members of the junior choir and Sunday school taking parts.

Miss Erica Stokov was the leader. Those reading passages of scripture were Carol Buchanan, Vera Stokov, Beverley Leitch and Eric Stokov. Janice Swackhamer read the story "Lost in the woods." The choir sang a number between each reading telling of the Christmas story.

It was an impressive service and enjoyed by all attending. After the service the congregation were all invited over for a social evening with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Swackhamer and girls in their new home where lunch was served to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr were guests on Friday evening at the Wellington Junior Farmers President's dance held in Fergus.

Mrs. Margaret Miller of London and Mr. Ken Knox of Woodstock were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr and all attended the Sweet Adelines and Barbershop Christmas Concert in Oshawa.

You might still be preparing for Christmas, but the Chamber of Commerce is preparing further ahead than that. Plans are made already for the annual Christmas tree burning. It's to be Saturday evening, January 6, in the field north of the town dump.

It's grown into a yearly highlight attended by many people who circle the monster blaze and then enjoy a cup of coffee and doughnut.

Witnesses hold three day assembly 1,224 attended the Sunday afternoon public Bible address, "Will God Intervene in Men's Affairs?" The talk delivered by J. Scaglione was the climax of the three day semi-annual assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses held at the M. M. Robinson High School, Burlington.

16 ministers were ordained by water baptism. 50 Jehovah's Witnesses from Acton and area attended.

Carol service The annual service of carols and candlelight was held at St. Alban's church Sunday evening. Lessons were interspersed with carols and choir anthems during the impressive service.

Tyler needles about one wayers

At last week's council meeting, Councillor Ted Tyler asked Deputy-Reeve F. Oakes if he had heard any objection from ratepayers about the one way street proposals outlined at a recent meeting of council.

"No," said Dr. Oakes, "but I was led to believe you weren't serious at that time; that it was just exploratory."

"From discussion I've heard so far I gather only the reeve and deputy-reeve are opposed," needed Councillor Tyler.

"Just a minute," grinned Dr. Oakes, "some people have discussed it with me. They were opposed."

Councillor Earl Masalos silenced the good natured repartee with a reminder they were "pre-mature."
