Dec. 11: Uppers held the upper hand all the way when they met up with Hot Shots and cooled said Hot Shots out with nary a win. Ray Atkinson 692, Bill Buchanan 659, Tom Shannon 609, Ed Parent 201, Earl West 223 and Helen Yabeman 203 tripled and singled for Uppers. Gerry Post 632, Roger Murray 203 and Ches Lowandowski 249 had the mentions for Hot Shots. The league leading Finishers came up with a block-buster in the first against Hipples and it's just as well they did because Hipples won the next two. The big first game win gave Finishers the odd point for totals. Phyllis Angell 642, Jake van der Kooy 612, Wal-ly Sosa 248 and Arlie White 235 made with the triples and singles for Hipples. Horis Jank 772 (374), Don Harris 700, John Churchill 230 and Reg Dunk 228 had 'em for Finishers. Oaks took the first from Supers by 10 pins, the second by 6, then got clobbered in the finale and lost out for totals. Joyce Buchanan 608, John Dennis 220, Jane McCrea 200 and Mike Churchill 223 tricolored and soloed for Oaks. In the limelight for Supers were, Dennis Crooks 684, Phil LeSueur 684, and Judi Daly 207.

League standing: Finishers 64, Hot Shots 51, Uppers 46, Supers 40, Hipples 40, Oaks 32.

Blue Springs Nursery

Dec. 12: After the girls got through oohing and aahing over Sherry Morris' engagement diamond they got down to the serious business of bowling and Sweet Peas did themselves a lot of good with a three game win from Poison Ivys. The games were of the close variety, 31, eight and 27 pins decided the wins. Joan Schipper 579, Ella May Milne 454, Jessie Ware 453 were top trio for Sweet Peas. Sylvia Mages 724 (277), Mary Anderson 639 (266) and Norma Gimmer 464 were tops in the Ivys' efforts. Poppies made with a two and totals win from Snap Dragons who clobbered for a middle game win. Ivy Martin 566 (254), Betty Hardie 553 and Ruth Archibald 491 paced the win. Jane McCrea 525, Norma Titus 524 (215) and May Wilds 453 snapped off the tricolored for Snap Dragons. Roses ran in two fast wins on Water Lillies then took a rest and called it a day with a two and totals win. Jean Bullough 474, Jackie Higgins 457 and Gall Fryer 444 headed up Roses' win. For Water Lillies Burna White 512, Cora Walters 450 and Sandi Sinclair 447 topped the trundling.

League standing: Snap Dragons 58, Poppies 51, Roses 39, Water Lillies 44, Sweet Peas 30, Poison Ivys 30.

Sports Corner Mixed

Dec. 12: Coasters hung onto top spot by one point by winning two games from Lucky Seven who, on the strength of a big win in the first canto took totals. Jim Kolman 610, Harry Gehlrich 202-202 tripled and singled for Coasters. Stu McConnell 617 and Earl Middleton 208 had 'em for Lucky Seven. Road Runners with a three game win from Hipples moved up behind the leaders with Dee DeForest 717, Gino De Bartolo 717, JoAnn McKenna 229 and George Tilcox 248 leading the hit parade. Steve Blanchard with 603 and Yvan Emond with 209 for Hipples, tried to stem the tide but no dice. Shadows snapped out of the doldrums and made with a two and totals win from Cannons. Joan Knight 677, Keith Andrews 670, John McKenna 610, Elmer White 203-209 and Dave McMillan 214 sparked the win. Cam Leishman 707 (314), Frank McKenna 672, Marg Dunn 217 and Bill Ingles 213 tricolored and soloed for Cannons.

League standing: Coasters 62, Road Runners 61, Cannons 51, Hipples 47, Lucky Seven 42, Shadows 31.

Industrial-Commercial

Dec. 13: Masson Motors had no trouble in handing A-B Supermarket a zero count with Phil LeSueur 697, Jon Hurst 676 and Terry Masales 637 heading up Masson's tricolored. Earl Middleton 603 and Bob Martin 431 (double) was the best the A-B's could do. With nary a mentionable to their credit Fill-ins failed to register a win against Allan's Collision who had Jim Bullough 701, Pete Homer 670 and Don Harris 629 up on the triple plateau. Misfits made with a 13 pin win in the first against Reliable Taxi then faltered to a standstill and it was a two and totals win for Reliable. Jeff Fryer 817, Larry Nolan 706 (331) and Bruce Shults 684 paced the Taxi's win. Lorne Norton with 698 was a loner for Misfits.

League standing: Masson Motors 70, Allan's Collision 65, Reliable Taxi 51, A-B Supermarket 45, Misfits 26, Fill-ins 16.

Action Ladies

Dec. 13: Cameos won the first canto from Family Store by 23 pins, took the second easily only to lose out in the finale by five pins. The two and totals win however, keeps Cameos well ahead of the field. Alice Hatfield 561 (223), May Swackhamer 449 and Bea Anderson 444 were top triplers in the win. Best for the Family Store were Anne Greenfield 533 (206), Madelyn Manes 423 and Dianne Taylor 345. It was a big win for the L.G.A. Store when they met up with Central Cartage, they took 'em all. The Cartage crew made a bid for the second chukker but missed it by three pins. Grace Robertson 562, Donna Manes 536 (225) and Shirley Rosenberky 460 sparked the win. Lorna Pargoter 517, Mary Papillon 491 and Lenora Walters 324 were best in the Cartage trundling. Nielson's Clothing won the first from Acton Jersey Dairy by eight pins, then lost the second by 23 and were shy 25 pins of winning the last spasm and the Dairy Malts dashed away the two and totals win. Eleanor Goy 600 (235), Audrey Lawrence 570 and Ruth McLellan 468 were top tripling trio for the Dairy. Lila Atkinson 577 (211), Marion Hunter 569 and Ina Molton 501 (212) were best for Nielson's Clothing.

League standing: Cameos 63, Nielson's Clothing 50, Ledger's L.G.A. 48, Central Cartage 42, Acton Jersey Dairy 40, Family Store 30.

Old Timers

Dec. 14: Go-Gos were a going concern when they met up with the Black Cats, they ran up two fast wins before running out of steam and settled for a two and totals win. Eunice Metcalf 494, Cora Walters 473 and Agnes Holmes 380 were top trio in Go-Gos win. For Black Cats, Joyce Adams 464, Mary Daly 464 and Marnie Allen 436 were best. Swingers were a two and totals winner from Monkeys who came alive in time to win the third game. Swingers were well away in taking the singleton for totals. Verna Arbic 608 (237), Peg Spielvogel 452 and Gwen Dawe 361 made with the triples for Swingers. Helen Bittorf 440, Ina Wilson 381 and Mary Campbell 261 swung with the triples for Monkeys.

League standing: Black Cats 49, Swingers 42, Monkeys 40, Go-Gos 37.

Major

Dec. 14: Dominion Hotel came up with an upset by taking Norm's Barber Shop for all gammas. The Barber Shop tried to register a win in the second canto but still got clipped by twopins. John McGilloway 724, Wayne Spiros 710 and Wayne Eason 645 tricolored for Dominion. Bob Turkoz 772, Bill Shannon 757 and Dave Shannon 601 were top trio for the Barber Shop. Sports' Corner took two and totals from Reliable Taxi who came up with a 24 pin win in the middle canto. Don Harris 754, Jeff Fryer 749 and Frank Morton 735 paced the win. Ray Atkinson 711 (301), Pete Schipper 631 and Larry Porto 622 triggered the triples for Reliable. Acton Lanes got into the spirit of things and came off best in a two and totals go with Station Hotel. Jim Bullough 848 (305), Had DeForest 745 and Carl DeForest 647 headed up the bowling alley win. Tops in Station Hotel's efforts were Pete Homer 787, Leo McGilloway 732 and Bill Williams 673.

Action Mixed

Dec. 15: Allouettes, with a three game win from Hipples regained the top spot. Verna Arbic 356 (238), Fred Daigle 530 (203) and Bill Dobbie 473 paced the win. For Hipples, Gary Price 553, Garry Dobbie 444 and Helen Brouillard 431 were best in the lost cause. Tag Team lost their first place spot despite winning two and totals from Flukes. Tagging the tricolored for Tag Team were, Hec Daigle 621 (260), Ray Lizotte 559 (203) and Aldao Daigle 425. Heading up Flukes' roll were, Andre' Brouillard 580 (270), Ed Browne 506 (205) and Edna Dobbie 451.

League standing: Allouettes 49, Tag Team 48, Hipples 39, Flukes 37.

Big Four

Dec. 15: Contentinals are still riding the waves of victory. Taking the Fathers for two and totals brings them closer to the pack. The gals were gunning for the bundle but Fathers spoiled it by winning the last chukker. Lynda Ensing 600, Renee Voskamp 231 and Jane van Souten 241 tripled and singled for Contentinals. Jake van der Kooy 721, Dolf van Aragon 687, John Douk 203 and Jules Roberts 208 were tops for Fathers. Emblems are still firmly entrenched in first place, a two and totals win from Exos doing them no harm. Harry Barons 618, Sid Hofstede 206 and Nellie Harbers 200 tripled and singled for Emblems. For Exos it was Oscar Feenstra 616, Harry Hofstede 220 and Dine Bowman 200.

League standing: Emblems 55, Fathers 44, Exos 42, Contentinals 41.

Headpin Hillites

Some of the leagues had their Christmas rolls and with the Major league the turkey winners were Bob Turkoz, Bill Shannon, John McGilloway, Wayne Spiros, Pete Homer, Leo McGilloway, Jim Bullough, Had DeForest, Ray Atkinson, Pete Schipper, Don Harris and Jeff Fryer and that my friends adds up to a lot of turkey eating. In the Acton Mixed League, Hec Daigle, Lynda Sopor, Andre' Brouillard, Edna Dobbie, Gary Price, Mabel Daigle, Rose-Marie Lizotte and Doris Fitzner were winners. The takers home of the succulent birds in the Big Four were Harry Barons, Dine Bowman, Dolf van Aragon and Lynda Ensing. Bit of excitement over Dolf van Aragon's win. Dolf struck out in the last frame of the last game to beat out Jake van der Kooy by one pin and poor Jake had to phone home and tell Mrs. Jake to turn the oven off. And how about Joe Hofstede, who was booming his fate all evening about never winning anything, came up winner with the hidden

Well it seems as if the Y.B.C. jumped the gun or were just in the Christmas Spirit, and had their Christmas Roll a week early. Some surprises cropped up in the winners. The turkey winners in the Bantam division were Dobbie Lawrence, Frances Ross, Dale Anderson, Blair McCallum, Colin Price and Allan Connor.

Winners of the boxes of chocolates were Heather McEachern, Danny Ross, Wade Knight, Dennis Emond, Anne Porte, Bill Gouffes, Ronnie Grant, Carol Grant, Donna Darby, Michael Fletcher, Gord McConnell, Colin Priest and Barry Payne.

The winners of the turkeys in the Junior and Senior Division were Gord Norris, John Churchill, Rick Davidson, Jeanette Yate-man, Henry Toebes and Jackie Palmer.

In the Bantam Division this week a grand sweep swept the plain. The Dogs made the Monkeys suffer after winning two score and proudly lugged home the bird. We have it on reliable information that Joe's turkey will not be eaten but stuffed, mounted and have the place of honor on his fireplace mantel—of course Saturday was the big day for our Youth Bowling Council and Y.B.C. Press Secretary Jackie Palmer reports on this.

This annual Christmas roll for the kids is a lot of work but it's worth it and to all our Supervisors and coaches, Ivy Martin, Steve Blanchard, Earl Middleton, Mary Anderson, Sylvia Mages, Tinnie Masales, Dave Pink, Carolynne Williamson, Marg Middleton, our score-sheet typist Audrey Blanchard and busy counter-girl Joan Knight, our sincere thanks for a job well done --- and to you Doug Miller, Anne Myers and Arlene Hoult at Bowling Headquarters, the Y.B.C. here in Acton thanks you wholeheartedly for making the Youth Bowling Council tick and our very best wishes for Christmas and the New Year are extended to you --- being the last column before Christmas, to our patrons and bowlers everywhere, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year --- that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios amigos and goodnight Daly City.
