

CENTENNIAL YEAR HIGHLIGHTS

START OF DREDGING on Fairy Lake was another highlight of centennial year. A pilot project, cost of which is borne mainly by the government, dredging is expected to aid river control on the Credit.

GEORGE MUSSELLE was chosen Acton's Citizen of the Year and was honored at a special evening at the music centre. George conceived and directed the Choraliers who crowned centennial year with an Expo visit.

ACTON'S LEGION Choraliers made a big hit at Expo 67, the international fair in Montreal. They sang for enthusiastic audiences.

CENTENNIAL fall fair Queen Brenda Spear was crowned at the Friday evening performance. Jackie Lee, 1966 Queen Maggie Givens and Elaine Johnson, runners up, congratulate the attractive R.R. 2, Acton girl.

HIGH SCHOOL centennial project was the construction from plans to the finished spinning wheel. Vince Dunne, Randy Ridley and Ed Lynch are busy working on the project.

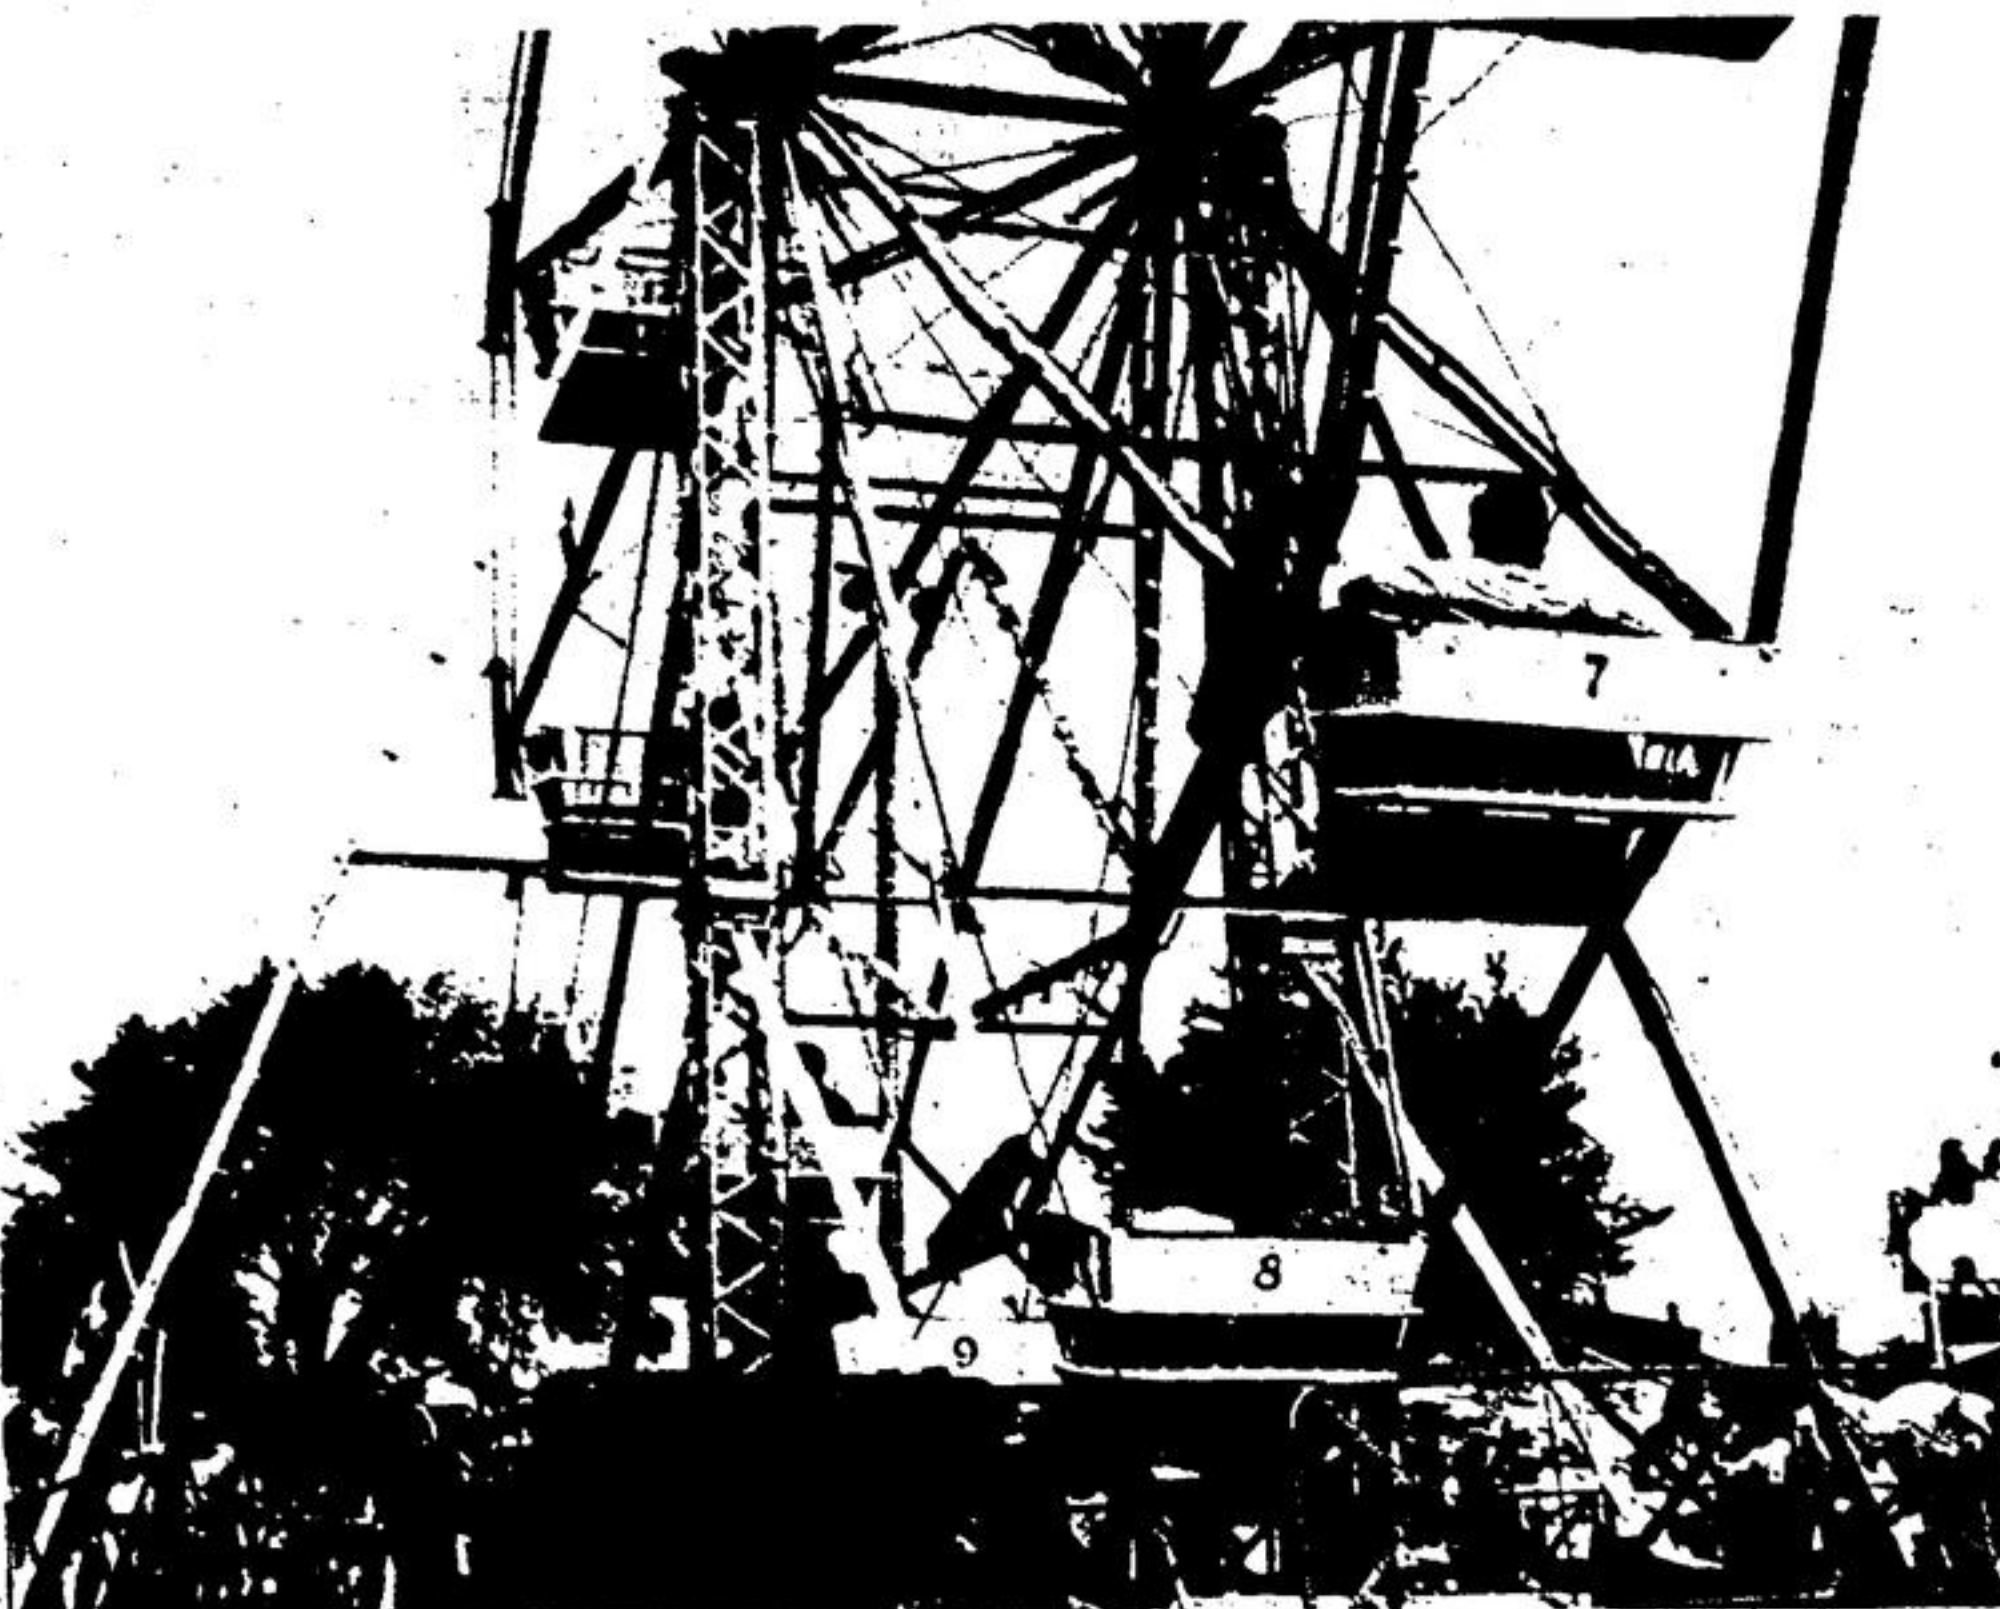

OLD FASHIONED DAYS, a promotion by Acton merchants, was another highlight of centennial year. Eve Cooper, Fred Gordon, Paul Neilsen and Bill Wandel were right in step.

ACTON'S CENTENNIAL project, the new public library, a picturesque building in a lovely setting, attracted many people to the opening ceremonies in June. Many dignitaries attended.

OFFICIAL OPENING of the Acton hydro building was another of a long list of achievements for Acton in centennial year.

CHRISTINE, a four-year-old Swiss Nubian goat's centennial project was a quartet of kids born on the farm of Gordon Hitchcock, R.R. 1, Acton. Quadruplets are unusual in the goat family.

ACTON'S centennial fair drew an estimated 12,000 people to three days packed with events. The fair broke all records.

COMPETITION for old fashioned dresses was keen among ladies in this district for centennial year. Variety and style shown would have been envied by pioneer women.

