Big Four

Dec. 29: Fathers made with a two and totals win from the league-leading Emblems to strengthen their hold on second place.

Oscar Feenstra of the Big Four League is the newest member of the Ancient and Fraternal Order of Proud Fathers, son number one made his appearance in this, Canada's Centennial Year. May he live to celebrate the next centennial -- winners in the Major League Sweepstakes were Had DeForest with a triple of 755 and Mike Churchill with a 303 solo -- with our Y.B.C. Press Secretary, Jackie Palmer being out of town for the New Year holiday week-end, we performe will do a little pinchhitting and give you the results of the Y.B.C. Family Twosome. This fine event brought out the best in some of our Y.B.C. bowlers. Friday and Saturday nights saw Bantam Cathy Norrie and uncle Fred Landry combine for a score of 911 for the win. Bantam Ronnie Turkoz along with brother Bob rolled a 978 winning score. This nosed out Bantam Ronnie Moore and father "Stinger" by 25 pins. With the Junior Girls, Jeanette Yatemam and mother Helen provided a winning combination with a score of 1198. Junior Boys had Larry DeForest along with uncle Carl DeForest the winners with 1379. Senior Boys was another DeForest win when Wayne DeForest teamed up with his father "Big Doc" for a winning 1289 score. As usual, Y.B.C. Supervisor Ivy Martin turned in another fine effort in arranging and conducting this tournament and relatives who turned out both to bowl and to encourage the Y.B.C. bowlers --- that winds it up once again my friends, so adios amigos and good-night Daily City.

Jack van der Kooij 706 (264), Doll van Aragoed 604 (221) and Jennie Kulken 584 (277) with triplots along with Jules Fryer's 211 solo headed up the Father's win. Dec. 30: Congratulations to all the winners in the Family Twosome Tournament. I'm sorry I was out of town for the New Year weekend and had to miss it. Sorry too, that Bantam Lynda Knight had to miss it as well. Seems as if Lynda was recovering from a tonsillectomy. The big news for this week is that this coming Saturday will be the start of the eight qualifying games of the Four Steps to Stardom. The qualifiers move on to the Zone Finals, then on to the Provincial Finals and the winners from this advance to the National Youth Bowling Championships at Edmonton, Alberta, April 13-15. This season we have entries in the Boys and Girls Bantam Singles, Doubles and Teams. Also entries for the Girls and Boys Junior Division. Senior Girls and Boys will be represented in the Singles and Doubles. Birthday congratulations are in order to Bruce Swift who celebrated his twelfth birthday December 29th. With the league bowling in the Bantams, Mike won both games from the Gophers as did the Monkeys from the Cats. Not to be outdone, Stuunk skinned the Dogs. When Supervisor Ivy Martin announced the winners of the Coca-Cola, Rainhart and Seven Up refreshment refreshers, Ken Hulford triplotted, the boys came up with two ties so we had six winners instead of four. They were Joe McConell, Allan Connor, Ronald Turkoz, Colin Price, Janet Allan and Caitie Norris.

With the Junior and Senior Division, Swingers won all three games from Unknowns. Kooks won two games and totals from Hippies while Hotshiffs won two games from Phycos but lost out for totals.
