MONTH In this one Brampton Essos knocked off the Acton Lions 5-1. The "Juves" stayed in the game trailing 2 to 1 until the C.A.H.A. rule book was cast aside and local rules took over. In the first period, stalling by the Brampton goal keeper Best Buy! - Save 15c! helped run out a penalty. It was ignored by the officials. When P. Cooper in the Acton nets tried the same, the Acton banch was warmed. Also, when an Acton player was penalized, he was told that he must open the gate before returning to the ice. Assistance that was offered by an Acton official prior to the start of the game was declined and his presence at the timer's bench was questioned. (O.M.H.A. rules request a member from each club at the timer's spot). It was obvious that the Brampton refs were after the Captain and assistants as they penalized this group to the extreme. Captain Barry Elliott was charged after the whistle had sounded behind the Acton net. When he retaliated he was ejected from the game for being the "third man in a fight." No charging penalty to Brampton. Later, assistant Ken Owen had a breakaway and was hauled down from behind. He too was given a minor penalty for "holdings and thrown out of the game.

unsuccessful. The last three goals were scored while Brampton was at full strength but the local time-keeper took it upon himself to have Brampton players return at his discretion. Chick Milne was kept in the penalty box while Brampton players returned to the ice, even though penalized after Milne.

Officials tried to oust the last assistant Chick Milne but were
