Mrs. H.R. Howard, in her usual very canable manner, received current events, bringing all up to date with local and thoughtfully presented her with world happenings; the speaker closed with the well known verse made famous by the late King George V and written by Minnie Louise Haskins, "I said to the man, who stood at the gate of the year - give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown, and he replied, Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God, that shall be to you better than light and safer than the known way."

> Mrs. D.G. Robertson, spoke on "Quilts and quilting" stressing the need to preserve this disappearing art. On exhibit were various quilt blocks - both pieced and appliqued and two finished quilts, one done by the late Mrs. G.G. Robertson of Everton mother-in-law of the speaker and one of her own.
