Winners in the Major League weekly swoonstakes were Don Harris with a 753 triple and Pete Homer with a 309 single -- a var accident unfortunately eliminated Frank Morton and Larry McAfee of the Major League last week -- also rushed for the Guelph General Hospital was Steve Blanchard, secretary of the Sports Cotour League and C.O.B.A. representative for the removal of a bad acting appendix -- the Y.B.C. house qualifying round for our Junior and Senior bowlers finished today. Y.B.C. press secretary Jackie Palmer has the result of this in her column. The Bantams have one more week to go -- in keeping with this fast-moving jet age, the Big Four had a spirited election for next bowling season's executive. For president, Jake van der Kooy, vice-president, Joe Hofstede, secretary, Trudy Hofstede and looking after the leagues' guilders, treasurer Jane vanSoulon -- that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios amigos and good-night Daly City.
