

KATHY NOLAN and Stuart Johnson were married in Holy Cross church, Georgetown, and are living on Elizabeth Dr., Acton

McGillivray-Campbell vows in Chatham chapel Dec. 26

Two Acton teachers were married during the Christmas holidays at St. Andrew's Chapel, Chatham.

The bride, Catherine Gayle Campbell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Campbell, Chatham, and teaches at the M. Z. Bennett school.

The groom, Ian Hugh McGillivray, is a high school teacher. He is the son of Mrs. James McGillivray of Toronto and the late Dr. J. M. McGillivray M.D. Mrs. McGillivray returned from Spain for her son's wedding and then resumed her travelling. She lived in Acton as a girl, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson. Rev. Philip Rees conducted the wedding ceremony at three o'clock on December 26.

The bride wore a peau de soie floor length white gown, its full train held at the shoulders by small bows. The gown was in A-line styling with long sleeves. Her head dress was a bouffant flower of embroidered netting. She carried a bouquet of white roses with heather sent from Scotland by the groom's mother.

Maid of honor was Miss Maureen Campbell and the bridesmaid Miss Lucinda Campbell, both sisters of the bride.

A niece, Miss Erin Manning, was flower girl. They wore floor length gowns of midnight blue velvet with blue velvet floral headpleces. They carried white fur muffs with corsages of pink roses pinned to them.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The groom's brother, Angus McGillivray, was groomsman and the usher was the bride's brother, Peter Campbell of Acton O.P.P. detachment. A reception followed at the Holiday Inn, Chatham. Guests were welcomed from Toronto, Acton, Collingwood, Guelph, Kingston, London, Burlington, Sarnia and Woodstock.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Bermuda, and are living on Wynford Place, Acton.

Three Drenters... in sculpture show

A widely varied sculpture show ranging from primitive iron to modern, stainless steel andplastics, now at Erindale College, University of Toronto, was organised by John Sommer of House Sol, Georgetown, Featured in the exhibition entitled "7 Sculptors" are Leonard Cesterie, Patricia Fulford, Raymond Spiers, Robert Downing and three of the famous family of artists --- the Drenters from the Rockwood area, father Joseph Amonious, and sons Yoseph and Andreas.

301 MAIN ST. E.

Hold bake sale

The Ladies' Society of the Christian Reformed Church held a very successful bake sale and draw last Friday afternoon in Simpsons-Sears, to raise money for the Association for the Mentally Retarded. -

The draw for a lamp was won by Mrs. Mills of Milton.

Some of the cakes were specially decorated for Valentine's Day. Cakes, cookies, loaves, pastry and bread found ready decorated with white mums and red carnations and the pews with white satin bows.

Kathleen Nolan of Georgetown and Stuart C. Johnson of R.R. 4,

Acton, were married in a ceremony at 12 o'clock noon in Holy Cross church, Georgetown, on January 20. Father Otger De-vent performed the double-ring

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Nolan.

48 Queen St., Georgetown, and attended school, at Bell Island.

Newfoundland. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Alec Johnson, R. R. 4. Acton, attended school in Acton and John F. Ross

Collegiate in Guelph, and is employed in the real estate busi-

The young couple are making

The altar of the church was

Free Press

Mrs. H. H. Hinton regent of Lakeside Chapter 1.0.D.E.

At the annual meeting of Lake- surer Mrs. R. Spielvogel, educaside chapter of the L.O.D.E., Mrs. tion Miss J. Barber, echoes sec-

H.H. Hinton was named regent retary Mrs. C. Schneider, stand-for the coming year. Other of- and bearer. Mts. A. Ellerby, ficers are honorary regent Mrs. sorvice at home and abroad,

C. E. Nelles, 1st vice-regent Mrs. E. Marks, Mrs. G. Muss-

Mrs. O. Orr, 2nd vice-regent, elle; democratic action and world

Mrs. G. Wallis, corresponding affairs-Mrs. R. Wost, public re-secretary Mrs. J. McHugh, trea- lations Mrs. D. Dills, mo:nbertheir home at 138 Effratieth Dry

Painting sessions

Oil painting sessions are continuing every Thursday evening at the library. The instructor is Frank Black, the noted artist

from Georgetown. Newcomers are always welcomed to the group of amateur painters.

ness with his father here.

ceremony.

wed in Holy Cross, Georgetown

Kathy Nolan, Stuart Johnson

Mrs. Williams played the organ for the marriage and the soloist, Mrs. Armstrong, sang the Lord's Prayer and The Wedding Prayer.

. The bride wore a gown of white lace and satin with long lilypoint sleeves and a cathedral train. A headdress of seed pearls and lily-of-the-talley hold her bouffant vell. She carried as trailing bouquet of red roses and white stephanotis with white lace. Maid of honor was the groom's sister, Elaine Johnson, and the bridesmalds were his sister Glynis Johnson, Marianne Coles and Mary Mitchell . The flower girl was Miss Margie Denine, ship. Miss E. Braida, planist

Mrs. M. McCullough, cards Mrs.

D. Taylor, flower and visiting

Mrs. J. Inglis, Mrs. H. Perkins,

program Mrs. S. Matthews, Mrs.

E. Smith, Mrs. H. Otterbein,

bazaar Mrs. C. Nelles, Mrs. J.

Jocque, decoration day committee Mrs. G. Currie, councillors

Mrs. J. Mann, Mrs. W. Talbot, niece of the bride.

They were floor length gowns of red velvet and chiffon and carried trailing cascades of red and white carnations and lace.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Groomsman was Ian Johnson, the groom's brother. Ushers were Dominic, Clarence and Patrick Nolan, brothers of the bride; and the ring bearer was the bride's nephew. Master Gerald Nolan.

The reception was held in Georgetown Logion Hall; Mrs. Notan wore a titue on heige brocade suit, beigg accessories and corsago of pink carnations. Mrs. Johnson wore an emerald : Jan. 18. green dress with brown accessories and a corrage of yellow

A report was given on the les is planned for next meeting.

will be dressed by Mrs. J. Ing-

be presented to Halton County

The chapter is increasing its donation to the Halton County

ival is April 9 and 10 in the Rob-

Provincial president of the

LO.D.E. Mrs. W. R. Morrison

has agreed to attend the chapter's 50th anniversary denner, ert Little School.

attend if possible.

A doll is to be purchased, and plan service

mottos repeated. M!ddleton, Mrs. E.

Footitt, Mrs. W. Coon, Mrs. H. chapter's assistance to a needy family. More will be provided If moded, and a shower of stangroup, followed by a discussion

The worship service opened Music Festival to $15. The festwith Hymn 258, Miss Riseborough gave the scripture reading and a commentary on it, followed with prayer by Mrs. Betty Ashley. Hymn 378 was sung and the mosting closed with the Mizpah bene-

this spring and said that other provincial officers also will IGA FOODS IGA

The flowers were graciously arranged by Mrs. Elsie Swift of Blue Springs Nursery, a friend of the Johnson family.

Guests were welcomed from Acton, Georgetown, Galt, Oakville, Guelph and Toronto. The couple left on a hopeymoon trip to New York state; the bride wearing a coral wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The bride was the guest of honor at several showers before the veckling. Miss Elaine Johnson, the groom's sister, held a miscellencous shower on Dec. 14; Mrs. Dominic Notan, sister-in-law of the bride, held a miscellaneous shower Jan. 16; Mrs. Jack Heppes, sister of the bride; and Mrs. Clarence Nolan, sister-Inlaw, gave a limin shower Jan. 17 and a triond, Miss Gloria Flynn, gave a miscellaneous shower

Daughters of Knox

The Daughters of Knox held: their monthly meeting on Fell, 5. The meeting was opened by the prosident, Mrs. Diane Spielvogel. Living for Josus was sung and the

The secretary Mrs. Kau Hanson read the minutes of the January meeting and 15 members answered the roll call. Plans were completed for a World Day of Prayer service, to be held on Sunday, March 3 at 7.30 p.m. The study was conducted by Miss Donna Riseborough and her on the different ways of witnesslis and Mrs. Ann Talbot in oldfashloned costume. The doll will Mrs. Robert Algie favored with two humbers on her mandolin. accompanied by Mrs. Dora Coles which was enjoyed immensely.

The lunch, with a valentine theme, was served by the group

Donations to Retarded, festival by Acton W.I.

Mrs. Ivan Marris, Bower Ave., was hostess for the February meeting of the Acton W.L. Mrs. Lindsay opened by thanking everyone for flowers, cards and other kindness during her recent bereavement. The Ode and Mary Stewart Collect were repeated As the topic of the meeting was historical research with Mrs. M. McAuley convener, the roll call was answored with an item from pages of the past or

This brought to light many past experiences and demortes. Many cards of thanks are still coming in from Christmas giffs sont out. An invitation to colebrate their anniversary with them came from the Rambeks lairn Institute for March 30. Alno Blood Clinic March 'Il' and the, officers' conference to be held at Wellington University in

A donation was voted for the retarded children, and to the Musical Festival. Final plans were made for the Annual Penny and euchre on Feb. 16- at the parish hall.

Mrs. Agnew, home economics

An ant can lift its own weight (equal to a man lifting 8,000 lbs); a worker bee 24 times its weight. and a horse one half its weight, the Federation of Onfario Naturalists tells us.

ogg cartons for planting seeds for your spring garden. Mrs. Graham as agriculture convener talked on the preservation of

Mrs. McAuley road the minutes of the Institute on the same date in 1918, 50 years ago. Miss Dorothy Simmons read "Centennial" every year. This little town, which very few know anything about was named in 1902 by a man, soon to be 100 years old. This little village was founded by a few Scots th Cape Breton. Mrs. Graham gave a poum "I Stood at the Gate of the Unknown."

Meting closell with the Lord's

The Junch committee served a Valentime lunch. Mrs. McAuley thanked the hostows and the unch committee.

Mrs. McAuley will be hostess to the March mosting.

We Stock and Order

McCALL BUTTERICK

SIMPLICITY PATTERNS HINTON'S

5c to $1.00 STORE

······

L'ARCHE AUXILIARY

NORTH HALTON ASSOCIATION FOR MENTALLY RETARDED

SPRING DANCE

BOB YOUNGER AND THE SWINGTETTE

FRIDAY, MARCH 29 ACTON LEGION HALL

For Tickets Phone 853-0676 - 853-1703 heart-shaped cake, one of many articles of baking ladies of the Christian Reformed church made and sold Friday in aid of the North Hal. ton Retarded Association Mrs Willy De Jong

VALENTINE WISHES were expressed in this and Mrs. Anne Hofstede were behind the bake counter in the Simpsons Sears order office and did a brisk business selling the goods.

(Staff Photo)

Among the seldom shown work of the father is "Memorial to the Canadian Immigrant," the Prairie Farmer, The Mower and the Sower, all themes of the soil. Andreas' work has a whimsical humour peeking through it. at all times, while Yoseph's shows the primitive spiritual ferwhich dominates all his 878-4949

FOR

GAS

APPLIANCES

SEE . . .

Richardson's TV & Appliances

Wedding Invitations · ANNOUNCEMENTS INFORMALS

· ACCESSURIES

FOR THE DISCRIMINATING

You may select your we lding medaliche anners de de le and accompany with an slate confidence as to consist and correct sees at the me

Wallingum unione TRADITIONAL HEALTS · CLOSIC DISTINGTION

. SOCIAL CORRECTNESS

Personalized wedding naphron may have and by INTERNITIONAL cake buses also available

Jou al

Dills Stationery Store

FUJI WICKO